BANKERS VOICE OPPOSITION TO HOUSE BILL 120

The Adams County Bankers' Association went on record as opposing one proposed modification of the state's unemployment compensation laws, but seemed favorable toward another. At the monthly meeting Wednesday evening at the Adams House, the bankers passed a resolution instructing their secretary to communicate with State Senator Donald P. MacPherson to express their opposition to House Bill 120, and asked that individual bankers also notify their senator.

The bill would eliminate the "merit system" for employer contributions to the unemployment fund which is based on employment turnover of the firm, and would assess the employer at a flat rate, according to Theron W. Spangler, president of the association. The bill has passed the House and awaits committee action in the Senate.

Carroll Seaward Speaks
Although it was not put into a formal resolution, one banker indicated a more favorable attitude toward Senate Bill 55, which would increase the rate of contribution and "remove some of the safety valve features," but would keep the same basis for contributions, according to Spangler. He said, "We're not opposed to liberalizing unemployment compensation payments, but we would not like to see the abolition of the merit system."

Carroll Seaward, manager of the Municipal Bond Department of the Philadelphia Investment House of Yarnell, Biddle, and Co., told the bankers of some of the features he looks for in judging whether municipal and school district bonds are safe to purchase.

"There Are Handicaps"
"Whenever anybody wants an absolutely safe investment," Seaward said, "they buy U. S. government bonds. And yet municipal bonds may be just as safe, if you know which ones to buy, and they have two definite advantages over government bonds: first, they give you a higher rate of interest, and second, they have a greater variety of maturities dates. They are not as likely to all come due at once, and leave you without investments."

"On the other hand, there are handicaps. You don't buy municipal bonds if you want a quick profit, or (Continued On Page 2)

Ira Hayes

A Hero To All But Himself
BY LEIGHTON C. TAYLOR

"Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging; and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise."
This proverb by King Solomon is as true today as it was when written — the subject of our story has confirmed it.

Ira Hayes, one of the Iwo Jima Flag-raising Marine heroes, recently met a sad and untimely death caused by exposure and excessive intoxication. Hayes was a pure, unadulterated American — a full-blooded North American Indian of the proud Pima tribe in the southwest, more particularly Arizona.

Bernard DeVoto, an authority on the habits, customs, and characteristics of the various Indian tribes, says of the Pimas, "They are a proud, law-abiding, industrious people. On their irrigated farm lands they produce cantaloupes, watermelons, corn, wheat, honey, and other food stuffs. They also raise beef cattle; and they practice the benevolence of the desert: Asked the price of their cornmeal cakes, they say, 'Bread is to eat, not to sell — take what you want.' He adds, too, that 'they surpass many Christian nations in honesty and virtue.'"

Planted Flag On Iwo
With four other Marines and a Navy Corpsman, in a never-to-be-forgotten incident, Ira Hayes, the Pima Indian, reached a high point for him and his country. He climbed to the top of Mount Suribachi, on the fiercely embattled Iwo Jima Island, (where, quoting Admiral Nimitz, "Uncommon valor was a common virtue"), and helped raise the flag of the United States, while a quick-witted Associated Press photographer caught the intensely dramatic scene.

Last November a great bronze reproduction of that picture was dedicated near the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington National Cemetery as a Marine Corps memorial. And Ira Hayes was there with two other survivors of the original heroic six. That was his last public appearance. Being lionized and lauded, worried and

ARREST ROOMER FOR ROBBERY AT FAIRFIELD HOTEL

Junior Woodring, 28, Fairfield, has pleaded guilty before Justice of the Peace Roger Myers to charges of burglary and larceny of the Fairfield Hotel.

Woodring, charged by Fairfield Chief of Police W. L. Fleming with removing $231 from the hotel, admitted to the crime at a hearing Wednesday afternoon before the Fairfield justice and was committed to the Adams County jail for appearance at the next sentence court.

Chief Fleming's investigation of the removal early Saturday morning of $231 in receipts from the bar at the Fairfield Hotel led him to believe that someone very familiar with the hotel had been the burglar that broke open two cash drawers and removed the money.

HAD HELD LOCK UP

Nothing else was disturbed in the bar room when C. C. McClellan, the bartender, went to open the bar later Saturday morning and found that the cash drawers had been entered and the money removed.

Checking further, Chief Fleming discovered that Woodring had not only been in the bar the night the money was stolen but that he had aided the bartender in locking up when McClellan closed the place late Friday night.

Woodring, under questioning by the chief, admitted to the burglary and said he had "slipped a lock" on one of the doors, returning to the barroom after the place had been closed, according to his admissions at Wednesday's hearings.

RECOVER $60 LOOT

Chief Fleming recovered two bags in which the money had been removed from the cash drawers and found in them $60 in change, all that apparently remained from the loot taken originally from the cash drawers.

Chief Fleming said Woodring was a resident of the hotel at the time of the burglary. The hotel is owned by Maynard Stuckey. Justice Myers said today that Woodring had been in other "scraps" previously with the law in Fairfield, but had been highly regarded by persons who had employed him in various capacities in the community.

There were also present Mr. and Mrs. Ira Slonaker who were married on last Thursday at the home of Rev. E. W. Stonebaker, in Fairfield. Mr. and Mrs. Shulley left this afternoon on a wedding trip."

Mr. Shulley is a son of the late David and Lydia (Brown) Shulley and Mrs. Shulley, the former Miss Minerva Hershey, is a daughter of the late Harvey and Ellen (Cluck) Hershey. Both are life-long residents of the Fairfield-Orrtanna area and for the last 30 years have resided in their present home at the edge of Orrtanna.

Both are in good health. Mr. Shulley, aged 76, is a retired farmer. Mrs. Shulley is 73.

There are four grandchildren.

New Humane Society Aims At Planned Parenthood For Pets

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—A new humane movement in America has as its goal planned parenthood for animal pets.
We are a cat-and-dog-loving people. No country spends more money in the care and feeding of its pets. Probably no other country has as many animal hospitals—or cemeteries for pets.
Yet still more than two million unwanted, homeless animals must be put to death each year in dog pounds and animal shelters.
Helen Jones Explains
Here is the reason, as given by Helen Jones, educational activities director of the newly organized National Humane Society:
"There are some 49 million dogs and cats in American homes, and the number increases about 5 per cent each year. But there are also at least 15 million homeless dogs and 25 million homeless cats, and they are increasing even more rapidly.

"At present they must be put to death. The tragic killing must continue while the surplus continues. But the humane movement must begin to prevent the breeding of unwanted animals instead of merely killing, killing, endlessly killing."
People Don't Realize
Miss Jones believes few people realize the scope of the problem because they so seldom see the suffering endured by abandoned animals. She spoke bitterly of pet

HOUSE LIKELY TO VOTE RAISE IN OWN SALARY

By B. L. LIVINGSTONE
WASHINGTON (AP)—Members of the House, cooking a collective eye toward voter reaction, faced a decision today on whether to vote themselves a 66 per cent pay boost. It seemed certain they would say "yes."
But some apprehensions were voiced as the House prepared to open limited debate on a bill to raise congressional pay from the present $15,000 yearly to $25,000, and to give comparable hikes to federal judges.
Whatever the House does is subject to approval of the Senate, where the Judiciary Committee has approved a bill calling for congressional pay of $32,500.
Some Complaints
Some House members complained of the timing, saying Congress should not raise its own pay until it acts on smaller increases proposed for government workers. And there were proposals to reduce the amount of the increase.
President Eisenhower has urged an unspecified pay raise for Congress, and leaders of both parties were backing the pending measure.
"The House will accept the whole package," predicted Rep. Celler (D-N.Y.), floor manager for the bill. He said he expected fewer than 100 opposition votes.
The measure calls for these increases among others:
1. Senators and representatives, from $15,000 to $25,000 a year. They now get $12,500 basic pay, plus $2,500 in taxable expense money for which they need not account. This schedule was voted in 1946. Before that, congressmen drew $10,000.
2. Federal judges, $7,500 a year.

owners who drive out on the highway to dump unwanted puppies or kittens.
"They don't realize that animals which have been domesticated by mankind cannot revert to the wild state and live off the land," she said.
The new humane society blames the situation largely on irresponsible pet owners. It plans a national campaign to induce them to avoid overbreeding their animals.
"At least 2,970 communities need organized humane work. It has become a national problem."
The new N.H.S. will cooperate with the SPCA and other groups in the field, she said, but will operate its own separate animal shelters. The society doesn't oppose vivisection, but will refuse to turn over animals from its own shelters to scientific laboratories.

RIDING CLUB WILL DEVELOP NEW SHOW SITE

With a full agreement reached with Gettysburg Recreation Association, members of the Gettysburg Riding Club are ready to go ahead with plans for development of a seven-acre section in the southwestern corner of the Recreation Park as a horse show site.

All Riding Club members were named to show committees at the club's February meeting on Tuesday evening at the engine house and if weather conditions permit, the new site can be used for the club's annual show in June. Considerable grading is involved and it is "unpredictable" where the show can be held this year, President LeRoy H. Weinbrenner said.

The Riding Club has been given use of the Rec Park section under terms similar to those granted the softball association, model airplane club and the Little League baseball organization, it was explained. The club will spend "several thousand dollars" on its improvement program, Weinbrenner said.

Rotary Is Co-Sponsor
Mr. Weinbrenner announced that the Rotary Club again has voted to go along as a joint sponsor of the '55 show.

Attorney Charles W. Wolf, Ray M. Hoffman and S. B. Miller were appointed to the club's charity committee.

A by-laws revision committee also was named. It includes Attorney Donald Oyler, chairman; Attorneys Franklin R. Bigham, Richard A. Brown, Charles Wolf and Dr. Bruce N. Wolff.

Movies of the local club members in action were shown by Dr. Wolff Tuesday evening and it was announced there will be films on the Tennessee Walking Horse and the Quarter Horse for the March and April meetings.

If you intend to resell them soon, because most of them are for long-term investment. You should not buy bonds that run longer than fifteen years.

"Two other handicaps are the lack of information on these bonds, and their lack of marketability. If you were forced to sell the bonds of a small town, you would have trouble," he mentioned the name of a small Adams County borough. "Who in New York or Chicago investment houses ever heard of this place?" he said.

School District Bonds
On school district bonds, he said: "Many of the schools would not be able to pay off their bonds if it were not for the state reimbursement fund. The state legislature must renew these obligations each two years, since one legislature cannot commit another as far as this is concerned. It would be political suicide for a legislature to repudiate these debts, but where you have a legislature that is divided, party-wise, then you may have some delays."

"Another difficulty is population shifts. In some regions, elaborate and expensive schools have been built, the bonds have been sold, and then, for one reason or another, most of the people have moved away. The state then finds it cheaper to close down the school, and transport the remaining children to another district, and the bonds then default. You have this sort of thing happening in the coal regions."

One example of a successful bond issue which Mr. Seaward cited was the Pennsylvania Turnpike bonds. "While the construction is going on, there were some doubts about those bonds. But now they are paying off on schedule, and the first issues will be retired by 1961," he said.

The meeting was attended by 30 bankers representing nine county banks. President Spangler announced that the next meeting will be held March 16, and the topic will be retirement plans for banks.

GOVERNOR TO BACK SHAPIRO ON HOSPITALS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. George M. Leader today promised to back Welfare Secretary Harry Shapiro "to the limit" in his campaign to clean up what Shapiro termed "miserable conditions" in the state's mental hospitals.

"I think Mr. Shapiro is proceeding in his investigations in an intelligent, well informed manner and I will back him to the limit," Leader told a news conference.

Referring to the overall picture of Pennsylvania's state operated mental hospitals, Leader said he thought an outside agency of experts might be hired by the state to "evaluate conditions at all the state's hospitals."

As to the Laurelton State Village where Shapiro has ordered 40 mentally defective women removed from a "secure cottage," Leader commented:

Awaits Figures
"I will back him up in that move and all the other moves along the lines of evaluating conditions at the (state) hospitals."

On the hiring of a professional group to evaluate the hospitals, Leader said he did not know whether or not the fees would be paid out of the Welfare Department budget or if a new appropriation would have to be made.

Asked about a statement by Shapiro last week that he will ask for an additional 20 to 40 million dollars to run the Welfare Department in the next biennium, the governor said:

"I can't say anything now until I get some specific figures, not just 20 or 40 million dollars."

SAYS FINANCIAL CONDITION OF PA. IS DIFFICULT

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. George M. Leader said today the commonwealth's financial position is "extremely difficult" but ruled out the need for "quickie" taxes.

"I don't see how we can enact taxes for this biennium at this stage of the game," he told his weekly news conference.

Leader's statement virtually removed the possibility of imposing new levies to finance up to a 90 million dollar deficit for the period between now and next May 31.

The need for added revenue, above and beyond the 400 to 500 million dollars which Leader said is required for the two years after June 1, has previously been mentioned by Atty. Gen. Herbert B. Cohen.

To Cut Appropriations
Since no "quickie" taxes are possible between now and next May 31, Leader said, then the administration must start cutting back appropriations approved nearly two years ago.

With Budget Secretary Andrew Bradley at his side, Leader said there were two ways of doing this:

1. Holding up for bookkeeping purposes until after June 1 the actual payment of non-preferred appropriations. This type of grant includes aid to state-aided colleges and institutions.

2. Legislative enactment postponing until after June 1 actual payment of preferred appropriations. This type of appropriation includes money paid for actual state operations.

Asked by newsmen if he stood by his inaugural statement that the new Democratic administration is a "receiver in bankruptcy" from the recent GOP administration, he said:

"For practical purposes, we are. We are in a difficult financial position."

Need 20 Millions

Bradley later told a newsmen that the commonwealth needs about 20 million dollars in additional cash before May 31 to meet bills that must be paid by them. The biggest of these is 16 million dollars for relief.

Present estimates, he said, indicate that about 21 million dollars of the needed cash can come from lapsing or holding up the non-deferred appropriations.

SAYS SOVIET SHIFT DOESN'T ASSURE WAR

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Treasury Secretary Humphrey says the recent changes in the Soviet Union's political hierarchy do not indicate a shift to a complete wartime economic status.

He said also last night at a dinner sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce of Greater Philadelphia that he did not believe the Formosan crisis would alter U. S. plans for reduced spending.

He told a press conference prior to the dinner that the switch in Soviet premiers did not indicate to him that the Russian economy has been shifted to a complete wartime or defense basis. Coincidental with the switch was an announcement of increased stress on production of heavy goods rather than on those for consumer use.

Can Outproduce Them
Humphrey also told the press conference that he was confident the U. S. could "produce more than the Soviet Union with just a little warning."

In his speech, Humphrey said the Formosan situation has not yet developed a sufficient threat to turn the U. S. administration away from its plans for reduced spending.

"While there is still high tension in many places," he said, "there is no armed warfare between major powers at any point on the globe at this moment. There is peace—uneasy as it is—as far as American fighting men are concerned."

The treasury secretary said tax reductions, in addition to those recently put into effect, appear possible because of planned future spending cuts and economic expansion. Such tax cuts, he said, "are firm foundation stones creating greater confidence" in the nation's future prosperity.

BANKERS VOICE OPPOSITION TO HOUSE BILL 120

The Adams County Bankers' Association went on record as opposing one proposed modification of the state's unemployment compensation laws, but seemed favorable toward another. At the monthly meeting Wednesday evening at the Adams House, the bankers passed a resolution instructing their secretary to communicate with State Senator Donald P. MacPherson to express their opposition to House Bill 120, and asked that individual bankers also notify their senator.

The bill would eliminate the "merit system" for employer contributions to the unemployment fund which is based on employment turnover of the firm, and would assess the employer at a flat rate, according to Theron W. Spangler, president of the association. The bill has passed the House and awaits committee action in the Senate.

Carroll Seward Speaks

Although it was not put into a formal resolution, one banker indicated a more favorable attitude toward Senate Bill 55, which would increase the rate of contribution and "remove some of the safety valve features," but would keep the same basis for contributions, according to Spangler. He said, "We're not opposed to liberalizing unemployment compensation payments, but we would not like to see the abolition of the merit system."

Carroll Seward, manager of the Municipal Bond Department of the Philadelphia Investment House of Yarnell, Biddle, and Co., told the bankers of some of the features he looks for in judging whether municipal and school district bonds are safe to purchase.

"There Are Handicaps"

"Whenever anybody wants an absolutely safe investment," Seward said, "they buy U. S. government bonds. And yet municipal bonds may be just as safe, if you know which ones to buy, and they have two definite advantages over government bonds: first, they give you a higher rate of interest, and second, they have a greater variety of maturities. They are not as likely to all come due at once, and leave you without investments."

"On the other hand, there are handicaps. You don't buy municipal bonds if you want a quick profit," (Continued On Page 2)

Ira Hayes A Hero To All But Himself

BY LEIGHTON C. TAYLOR

"Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging; and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise."

This proverb by King Solomon is as true today as it was when written — the subject of our story has confirmed it.

Ira Hayes, one of the Iwo Jima Flag-raising Marines, recently met a sad and untimely death caused by exposure and excessive intoxication. Hayes was a pure, unadulterated American — a full-blooded North American Indian of the proud Pima tribe in the southwest, more particularly Arizona.

Bernard DeVoto, an authority on the habits, customs, and characteristics of the various Indian tribes, says of the Pimas, "They are a proud, law-abiding, industrious people. On their irrigated farm lands they produce cantaloupes, watermelons, corn, wheat, honey, and other food stuffs. They also raise

Following a statement of purpose by Dr. Walter C. Langsam, college president, the actual ground-breaking will take place, with the spade presented by Tabb Hostetter, contractor for the dormitory.

Following Mrs. Wilcox and Mrs. Cruice, the earth will be turned in the following order: Dr. Langsam, Judge Hiram H. Keller, Doylestown, Pa., chairman of the college Board of Trustees; Dean Wilbur E. "ANOTHER DAY"

When I meet up with people . . . while going on my way . . . why do they have to utter that . . . it's just another day . . . it seems folks are ungrateful . . . when they use such a phrase . . . and countless blessings they enjoy . . . are smothered in a haze . . . for to my mind each new-found day . . . is like a priceless treasure . . . that mortal souls like you and I . . . cannot begin to measure . . . though dawning light may bring forth tears . . . it also carries hope . . . and faith to face the woes of life . . . with which we all must cope . . . each day presents a challenge . . . to test our strength and will . . . once proven, life is warm and sweet . . . a promise to fulfill . . . and so with morning light I pray . . . to thank my God above . . . for giving me another day . . . in which to live and love.

There will be a special speaker from Pittsburgh to discuss "Fashions and Charm." Members of the local club desiring to attend this meeting are asked to contact the president, as soon as possible, so that arrangements for transportation can be made.

Soprano Is Ill; Substitute Opera

NEW YORK (AP)—A respiratory illness of Italian soprano Renata Tebaldi, scheduled to sing the title role in Verdi's "Aida" for the first time at the Metropolitan Opera, resulted in a switch to Puccini's "Tosca" with Zinka Milanov as the featured singer.

Miss Milanov was called for her substitution less than eight hours before curtain time last night. She never had sung "Tosca" at the Met.

The management, with a sellout audience eager to hear Miss Tebaldi, decided on a complete change of operas. Met officials said only a few persons asked for refunds.

Use Electronics To Curb Air Pollution

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Electronic sentinels to control air pollution are being built into furnaces in the city's four incinerator plants. John A. Bailey, deputy street commissioner, announced today.

As part of a 6½ million dollar civic waste removal program, the city is building 10 new furnaces in addition to the five presently in operation. When all are in operation the city will be able to burn 2,000 tons of refuse daily.

To control the smoke from these 2,000 tons of waste matter, the robot units monitor the temperature of the furnace around the clock. If it drops too low—indicating poor combustion which causes smoke—the burners are automatically adjusted to speed up the combustion rate.

COUPLE UNITED AFTER 7 YEARS

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Mettersa—Mother—is home at last for the Katsanevas.

Mrs. Mike Katsanevas arrived at a Salt Lake City airport yesterday alone and bewildered. For seven years she had waited to come from Greece to America and be with her husband.

But somehow word of her arrival failed to reach Mike and her children. She waited an hour and a half. Then suddenly her 66-year-old husband and three of her children hurried into the airport waiting room.

There were tearful embraces and happy exclamations. "Mettersa" was home.

Mike had to leave Mrs. Kasanevas behind in Greece with seven of his children when he came to America with the other three in 1947. He found work as a janitor at the Clearfield Naval Supply Depot and tried to save so he could bring the rest of his family to their new home.

But the saving was slow. Finally, his fellow workers heard about his efforts and chipped in to bring the family to America in time for Christmas.

Man Acquitted Of Kidnapping

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—A Superior Court jury has found Daniel J. Marsin, 41-year-old welder, innocent of kidnapping Mrs. Evelyn Anne Smith and holding her in the Superstition Mountains for $75,000 ransom.

The defendant, who walked from the courtroom with his unconscious wife in his arms after the verdict was returned yesterday, said he expected to be acquitted. He acknowledged, however, that he "was worried."

Marsin's tiny wife Lillian fainted in his arms as the verdict was announced. Marsin picked her up and carried her into an ante-room.

Marsin was accused of abducting the 24-year-old Mrs. Smith from in front of a Phoenix beauty salon last June 9 and of taking her to the Superstition Mountains, 50 miles east of here.

Mrs. Smith returned to her home unharmed on the evening of June 10. Her husband said he paid her $75,000 ransom. The money was recovered.

$276 SUIT IS FILED

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles says a power struggle in Moscow eventually will produce Russian leaders with whom the United States can make "practical agreements" to ease world tensions.

He also says the Formosa crisis can be settled if Red China will renounce the use of force to capture Nationalist-held islands.

Diplomats noted that the secretary's speech last night to the Foreign Policy Assn. in New York was calm and peaceful in tone but firm against spread of communism in any important new areas of Asia.

Dulles apparently took this tone deliberately in contrast to recent warlike speeches by Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov and Red Chinese Foreign Minister Chou En-lai. Molotov denounced the United States. Chou threatened, as Dulles put it, to use "all the forces at his command" to capture Formosa.

Appeals To Reds
As for the Formosa problem, Dulles said the United States "has no commitment and no purpose" to defend such islands as Quemoy and the Matsus "as such." But he made clear that it might well fight over Quemoy and Matsus if any Communist attack on them was aimed at the conquest of Chiang Kai-shek's Formosa.

Dulles appealed to the Chinese Reds to reconsider a United Nations Security Council bid to discuss a Formosa cease-fire.

"It is hardly to be expected," he said, "that the Chinese Communists will renounce their ambitions. However, might they not renounce their efforts to realize their goals by force?"

Discussing the Russian situation, he said a distinction must always be made between the Soviet government and the Communist party. "Didn't Say When"

"The time may come—I believe it will come," he said, "when Russians of stature will patriotically put first their national security and the welfare of their people."

"They will be unwilling to have that security and that welfare subordinated to the worldwide ambitions of international communism."

"If their point of view should prevail, then indeed there could be a basis for worthwhile negotiation and practical agreement between the United States and the new Russia."

The secretary did not speculate within what period of time "Russians of stature" might seize power from those whose first dedication, he said, is to "international communism."

New Humane Society Aims At Planned Parenthood For Pets

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—A new humane movement in America has as its goal planned parenthood for animal pets.
We are a cat-and-dog-loving people. No country spends more money in the care and feeding of its pets. Probably no other country has as many animal hospitals—or cemeteries for pets.
Yet still more than two million unwanted, homeless animals must be put to death each year in dog pounds and animal shelters.
Helen Jones Explains
Here is the reason, as given by Helen Jones, educational activities director of the newly organized National Humane Society:
"There are some 49 million dogs

and cats in American homes, and the number increases about 5 per cent each year. But there are also at least 15 million homeless dogs and 25 million homeless cats, and they are increasing even more rapidly.
"At present they must be put to death. The tragic killing must continue while the surplus continues. But the humane movement must begin to prevent the breeding of unwanted animals instead of merely killing, killing, endlessly killing."
People Don't Realize
Miss Jones believes few people realize the scope of the problem because they so seldom see the suffering endured by abandoned animals. She spoke bitterly of pet

HOUSE LIKELY TO VOTE RAISE IN OWN SALARY

By B. L. LIVINGSTONE
WASHINGTON (AP)—Members of the House, cooking a collective eye toward voter reaction, faced a decision today on whether to vote themselves a 65 per cent pay boost. It seemed certain they would say "yes."
But some apprehensions were voiced as the House prepared to open limited debate on a bill to raise congressional pay from the present $15,000 yearly to $25,000, and to give comparable hikes to federal judges.
Whatever the House does is subject to approval of the Senate, where the Judiciary Committee has approved a bill calling for congressional pay of $22,500.
Some Complaints
Some House members complained of the timing, saying Congress should not raise its own pay until it acts on smaller increases proposed for government workers. And there were proposals to reduce the amount of the increase.
President Eisenhower has urged an unspecified pay raise for Congress, and leaders of both parties were backing the pending measure.
"The House will accept the whole package," predicted Rep. Celler (D-NY), floor manager for the bill. He said he expected fewer than 100 opposition votes.
The measure calls for these increases among others:
Last Raise In '46
1. Senators and representatives, from $15,000 to $25,000 a year. They now get $12,500 basic pay, plus $2,500 in taxable expense money for which they need not account. This schedule was voted in 1946. Before that, congressmen drew $10,000.
2. Federal judges, $7,500 a year.

and Supreme Court Justices, $10,000. District judges now get $15,000, appeals court judges $17,500, and Supreme Court Justices $25,000.
3. U.S. attorneys, from a top of $15,000 to a top of $20,000, and assistant U.S. attorneys to a maximum of $15,000.
4. The vice president and speaker of the House, an additional $5,000. As presiding officers of Congress, their salary now is $30,000 plus a $10,000 expense allowance.
Also included is an increase in the salary ceiling of professional staff employees of congressional committees, from the present $11,646 to $14,900.

SEES LIMITED BAN ON RABBITS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The chair-man of a legislative committee looking into the controversial San Juan rabbit question predicted Tuesday that his group's study may result in Pennsylvania placing a limited ban on the animal.
Before his House Conservation and Wild Life Committee began a hearing on the subject Rep. Harris G. Bredt (D-Clearfield) said:
"It seems to me that a limited ban on the importation of San Juan rabbits, in order to give us time to see what happens to those already in the state, just about crystallizes sentiment on the problem."
He added, however, that the decision is up to the committee after it hears representatives of six groups vitally concerned with the rabbit.
The hearing is the first step in the committee's overall study of Pennsylvania's game, fish, forest and water resources, authorized by the House two weeks ago.
There were 25.2 births per thousand population in the United States in 1954.

Two points to remember for good telephone service

- 1 Answer all calls, just as promptly as you can.
- 2 Give the party you are calling at least a minute to answer... about 10 rings.

You'll always be a winner in the telephone service league if you remember these "two points".

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times
TWENTY YEARS AGO

Council Extends Street Lights Five More Blocks And Sets Up Light Budget: Council added five blocks to Gettysburg's present "White Way," set up a budget for 1935, maintained its total tax rate of 14 mills for another year, heard a plea for an additional piece of fire-fighting apparatus and granted exonerations to H. H. Thomas, Gettysburg tax collector, on his 1934 duplicate, at a special meeting Monday evening.

Discussion on the additions to Gettysburg's "white way" consumed the greater part of the four-hour session and when the smoke of the verbal battle cleared away the proponents of the improvements mustered a scant majority to win the fight.

Councilmen John E. Newman, William Biddle and Charles T. Jacobs voted against extending the white way while President C. Ray Rupp, C. W. Epley, D. C. Stallsmith and Emory C. Williams voted for the improvement.

The cost of lighting the five additional blocks—two on Chambersburg Street and one each on Carlisle, York and Baltimore Streets—was the chief talking point of the opponents of the extensions. They pointed out that the extra cost of lighting the five blocks would be in excess of $2,500 a year.

After setting up a budget for 1935 with expenditures in excess of $34,000 council was forced to pare a number of items when the total tax rate was retained at 14-mills—12 for general purposes and 2 for special purposes. The budget finally adopted follows: highway, $9,000; sewers, $1,000; board of health, $400; stationery and printing, $250; police department, $3,600; salaries, $1,820; street lighting, $7,500; water, $1,800; heat and fuel, $250; Eichelberger fund, $166.26; truck, $400; insurance, $1,300; fire department, $1,600; disposal plant, $2,000; market house, $800; miscellaneous, $600. Total $32,611.26.

Firemen Ask New Pumper, Ladder Truck: Gettysburg needs a new piece of fire-fighting apparatus, a committee from the fire company informed council at its adjourned meeting, Monday evening.

James B. Aumen, president of the fire company, chief spokesman for the committee, asked council for assistance in purchasing a combination pumper and ladder truck, which he said, would cost approximately $8,000.

In presenting the proposition to council Mr. Aumen pointed out that since 1916, the fire company has raised approximately $18,150 for the purchase of fire fighting equipment while during the same period council's contributions toward new apparatus have approximated only $3,500.

Mr. Aumen pointed out that the fire company has approximately $2,000 in its treasury for the purchase of the new apparatus leaving council's share at about $3,000.

Local Schools Show Increase In Enrollment: That Gettysburg's public school enrollment is keeping pace with the increases in population was made clear to members of the local school board at the February meeting Monday night by Superintendent Lloyd C. Keefe.

Professor Keefe presented a chart showing the growth in school enrollment during the last ten years. The chart begins with the year 1925 showing 356 pupils in the high school and 613 in the elementary, or a total of 969.

This year there are 810 pupils in the elementary grades and 508 in the high school, for a total of 1,318. This is an increase of 349 pupils in the grade and high school during the last ten years.

Hauptmann Is Sentenced To Die In Electric Chair For Kidnapping And Killing Baby Charles Lindbergh Jr.: Flemington, Feb. 14 (AP) — Richard Bruno Hauptmann will be taken to the death house at state prison in Trenton Saturday, Sheriff John H. Curtis said today.

Hauptmann Wednesday night was convicted of the murder of the Lindbergh baby during his kidnapping three years ago with death in the electric chair as the penalty.

The jury of eight men and four women deliberated 11 hours and 45 minutes before returning its verdict.

Today's Talk

NEVER ACKNOWLEDGE DEFEAT

I wonder what kind of a world this would be if we all got discouraged, after a few trials, and just quit cold? We wouldn't have much of a world!

My friend, the late Don Marquis, was one of the most talented of newspaper men, and at home with the writing of poetry, humor and short stories. He was also an accomplished playwright. He wrote one poem that has stayed with and inspired me for years. He called it "New Beginnings." He said that "He was full of New Beginnings, and that there was always one ready to state off defeat."

Many people fail because they recognize failure and bow to it. Success is so much easier than failure and it has the added inspiration and encouragement that all success has. You keep climbing higher instead of lower. No one wins all the time. We learn valuable lessons from every failure, but we learn most from success because we are affected mentally, spiritually and physically when we are winning.

We ought to keep planting success seeds within us so that something good is forever growing for which we are responsible. I cannot accept mere money success, however, as the most genuine kind of success. Money success can be wiped out in a single day, but the success that spreads cheer, hope and encouragement to others can never be lost. People live happily by it all through life.

The true success is that one from which you enjoy the greatest satisfaction. Audubon, the noted artist and writer about American birds, was always happiest when he was in search of new birds to paint and learn about. Every new part of the country was a new Heaven to him—if it had birds to paint. Everything that he depicted in his wanderings is today a treasured item. His was a success greater than that of any warrior.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Back to Quiet and Sanity!"

"Work for money," said my dad. "Any game and stake refuse. Never play," he used to add. "If you can't afford to lose."

"There is just one rule to use. Ere a game you enter in. If you can't afford to lose, Then you can't afford to win."

"Never put a friend at stake. Never risk him for a fee. For the dollars you may take, By his loss you'll poorer be."

"There is just one way to choose. Bear in mind when games begin, If you can't afford to lose, Then you can't afford to win."

DULLES DIDN'T SAY ANYTHING FINAL ABOUT QUEMOY, MATSU

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—He didn't say yes and he didn't say no. That sums up Secretary of State Dulles' reply to the important question: Will the Red Chinese be allowed to have Quemoy and Matsu islands?

For months the Eisenhower administration's position on that question has been vague. It was still vague after Dulles finished talking about it in a New York speech last night.

Since he didn't make it off the cuff but had plenty of time to prepare it his vagueness can be considered deliberate. Why? Either because the administration hasn't made up its mind, doesn't want to tell the Reds or wants elbow room for horse trading.

Possible Interpretation
Dulles words can be interpreted this way:

1. The United States may fight—Dulles didn't say it would—to defend those islands if the Red Chinese try to take them by force.

2. If the Reds play nice, stop talking about invading Formosa and agree to a cease-fire, they may be allowed to have Quemoy and Matsu.

Chiang Kai-shek, American ally, has his main force on Formosa lands, 100 miles across water from the Red Chinese mainland. He has other forces scattered among islands close to the mainland.

The United States is pledged to defend Formosa and the Pescadore Islands under a Senate-approved treaty with Chiang. As Dulles said last night, this pledge does not extend to any other Chiang-held islands.

What He Said

Dulles said:

"The United States has no commitment and no purpose to defend the coastal positions as such." Then, almost wistfully, he wondered whether the Reds "might not renounce their efforts to realize their goals by force." And he added he hoped the Reds' announced decision to take Formosa was "not irrevocable."

But he talked dimly of the idea of letting the Reds have Quemoy and Matsu merely for the asking. He said, "It is doubtful this would serve either the cause of peace or the cause of freedom." Nothing, in so many words, was final in what he said.

DISTRICT CAGE TOURNEY PLANS ARE OUTLINED

The smallest fields in history in the Class A and C District 3 play-offs in prospect following a meeting to set up the tourneys Wednesday night.

Class A will have four teams at the most entered but the outlook is for but three teams. The only sure entry is Manheim Twp. of the Lancaster County League. But the champions of both the South and Central Penn Leagues also will play in the tourney, providing the South Penn title-winner is any team other than Mechanicsburg.

Red Lion of the York County League also will play if it finishes first, or second in its conference. It is likely that the Lions will not finish that high, however, since their first half record was three wins and five losses. They have won four of five this half for a 7-7 record.

Should Red Lion qualify, the York County team will meet Manheim in Harrisburg March 4. The winner of this game, or Manheim if the game is not played, will meet the South Penn champion in Harrisburg March 7. The Central Penn winner will meet the winner of this game for the championship at the Hershey Sports Arena, March 9.

Wildcats In Class B
Mechanicsburg was given a place in the Class B playoffs due to its good record in the South Penn—a league composed otherwise entirely of Class A teams. The Wildcats meet Hamburg of Berks County March 2.

Other pairings in the first round of Class B will show a York County League team facing Greencastle of Franklin County; Bolling Springs, champion of the Adams County League, facing Camp Hill, West Shore winner, and Newport of the Perry-Juniata against Mahanoy Joint of the Upper Dauphin.

The East Shore winner will play the Hamburg-Mechanicsburg victor March 5; Donegal, Lancaster Section 1 champ will face the Greencastle-York County winner; the Lebanon County champion will play the Bolling Springs-Camp Hill victor, and Kutztown, Berks Central I leader, will go against the team that wins the Newport-Mahanoy Joint game.

Semi-finals in the Class B category will be held March 8 with the finals on March 12. No sites have been set yet.

Class C will have its smallest field since its inception with only nine teams entered.

East Berlin Entered
The first round will consist of one game with East Berlin of the Adams County League facing Scot-

New Surgeon General Is Well Known In Emmitsburg

Rear Admiral Bartholomew W. Hogan, Chevy Chase, Md., hero in the sinking of the carrier Wasp in 1942, took office Tuesday as the 22nd surgeon general of the U. S. Navy.

Admiral Hogan, married to the former Miss Grace Glominger, Emmitsburg, and who commanded the Naval Medical Center at Bethesda for two years until July, 1953, was sworn in before Navy Secretary Charles S. Thomas.

Nominated last January 14 by President Eisenhower, his appointment was confirmed by the Senate last week. For his "conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity" after the huge carrier was torpedoed, Admiral Hogan was awarded the Silver Star Medal and later the Navy and Marine Corps Medal. The citations told how he "worked tirelessly, caring for the injured," despite his own "serious wounds."

Born in West Quincy, Mass., he attended Boston College, got his medical degree from Tufts College Medical School, Boston, and entered the Navy as a lieutenant, junior grade, in 1925. At one time he was professor of psychiatry at Georgetown University School of Medicine.

His most recent post was as deputy chief of the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery, Washington. Several years ago Dr. Hogan received an honorary degree from Mount St. Mary's College, Emmits-

Worley Asks Free Licenses For Some

HARRISBURG (AP)—It was up to the House today to determine if an assemblyman should be banned from holding any elective county or city office.

A bill submitted yesterday would declare it illegal for either a representative or a senator to hold county or city elective posts. At present assemblymen are banned from holding the office of councilman in any incorporated city.

The bill was sponsored by Reps. E. J. Farabaugh (D-Cambria) and Louis Rovaneck (D-Cambria).

Another new bill offered yesterday by Reps. Francis Worley (R-Adams) and Rovaneck would have the Fish Commission issue free life long resident fishing licenses to all applicants 70 years old or over.

The semi-finals will be March 11 and the finals in Class C March 14. As in the case of Class B, no playoff sites have been set yet.

KIDNEYS MUST REMOVE EXCESS WASTE
Nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, dizziness and disquiet may be due to slow-down of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages.

Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the kidneys get rid of waste and filter toxins out of your blood. Get Doan's Pills today!

Man And 2 Boys Held In Robbery

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Police today held a man and two teenage boys in connection with a robbery in which $5,000 in cash and $4,000 in checks were taken from a used car dealer at his home. The cash and checks were recovered.

Howard C. Franklin, 53, reported that as he turned into the driveway of his home last night he found it blocked by a trash can. When he stopped the car to remove the obstacle, he said, he was set upon by three robbers who took his car keys, grabbed a brief case containing the money from the locked trunk of his car, and fled in an auto.

Police set up roadblocks, and after a short chase a patrol car caught up with an auto which had collided with two parked cars. The three arrested gave their names as Larry Blackwell, 31; Eugene Nash, 17; and George Leroy Nash, 18.

The prison system, he said, "is rotten to the core" with "corruption, kickbacks, and the destruction of official files to conceal shady practices."

Brophy's proposal would call for a sweeping investigation of federal prisons, detention homes, reformatories and the parole system.

He told the House last year his resolution offered then was "motivated by evidence that the soft parole policies of the federal government permit the release of scores hardened criminals to prey upon our citizens."

Brophy said there is a possibility of a similar resolution being offered in the Senate.

"Several members are aware of the conditions and are studying the proposal," he said.

LEADER FAVORS LOBBY MEASURE BY LEGISLATURE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Legislative leaders agreed today that registration of lobbyists at the State Capitol has merit if legislation is drawn along proper lines.

Gov. George M. Leader, too, is on record as favoring such a move and expects to confer with administration chiefs to discuss any or all proposed lobbying laws.

The governor has a personal stake in the matter—for he too has a lobbyist of sorts.

Leader's younger brother, Henry, a York attorney, serves as the governor's liaison with the Legislature, keeping tabs on administration legislation and on how individual lawmakers are pushing or opposing it.

Duncan McCallum, Leechburg, secretary to Gov. John S. Fine, served in a similar capacity during the last administration.

"Sensible Legislation"
Rep. Alber S. Readinger, Democratic House leader, said he is for "sensible legislation" regarding lobbyists and noted that lobby registration is part of the Democratic platform, and declared:

"I assure you that every part of that platform will be implemented with legislation."

One bill to require registration by lobbyists—a perennial introduced by Sen. Elmer J. Holland (D-Allegheny)—already is before the General Assembly.

The bill also would require lobbyists to report funds spent and on whom.

Holland has sponsored a similar bill through numerous sessions. This time he was joined in sponsorship by Sen. William J. Lane (D-Washington).

Purpose of the measure, Holland said, is not to bar lobbyists from the legislative halls but to make lobbying for bills a "recognized and well-conducted vocation."

Police set up roadblocks, and after a short chase a patrol car caught up with an auto which had collided with two parked cars. The three arrested gave their names as Larry Blackwell, 31; Eugene Nash, 17; and George Leroy Nash, 18.

SAVES 4 FROM BLAZING HOME

QUARRYVILLE, Pa. (AP)—A father bundled his four small children in the lightweight mattress from a crib and carried them to safety early today through the blazing living room of a southern Lancaster County home.

Avery Hash, 31, carried his year-old twin girls, a 2-year-old daughter and 3-year-old son, shielding them from the flames by using the mattress. He was followed by his wife, and all six members of the family escaped injury.

Hash said he was awakened by smoke about 3 a. m. and found the living room afire as the result of an oil stove explosion. He gathered his family quickly and escaped. The small bungalow-type home is about seven miles south of Lancaster, near the Pennsylvania-Maryland border. Hash is employed as a member of the fire company at Bainbridge (Md.) Naval Training Station.

Reports were heard from Mrs. Paul E. Altoff and Miss Malva Duttrera. The resignation of Mrs. J. Ray Remdollar was accepted with regret.

To clarify any misunderstandings which may have resulted in the intentions of the Community Club, as sponsoring organization for the local Girl Scouts, excerpts from the minutes of past meetings were read by the secretary. A copy of the action taken in the past will be given to the Girl Scout committee of the club to review with a request to bring their recommendations for future policy to the next regular meeting, for discussion and decision. This committee consists of Mrs. J. Harvey Pettyjohn, chairman, Mrs. Charles H. Fiske, Mrs. Alvin Grotz, Mrs. J. Donald Lemmon, Mrs. John N. Sell and Mrs. Vernon Snyder.

"ANOTHER DAY"

When I meet up with people
... while going on my way ... why do they have to utter that ... it's just another day ... it seems folks are ungrateful ...
when they use such a phrase
... and countless blessings they enjoy ... are smothered in a haze ... for to my mind each new-found day ... is like a priceless treasure ... that mortal souls like you and I ... cannot begin to measure ... though dawning light may bring forth tears ... it also carries hope ... and faith to face the woes of life ... with which we all must cope ... each day presents a challenge ... to test our strength and will ... once proven, life is warm and sweet ... a promise to fulfill ... and so with morning light I pray ... to thank my God above ... for giving me another day ... in which to live and love.

There will be a special speaker from Pittsburgh to discuss "Fashions and Charm." Members of the local club desiring to attend this meeting are asked to contact the president, as soon as possible, so that arrangements for transportation can be made.

Soprano Is Ill; Substitute Opera

NEW YORK (AP)—A respiratory illness of Italian soprano Renata Tebaldi, scheduled to sing the title role in Verdi's "Aida" for the first time at the Metropolitan Opera, resulted in a switch to Puccini's "Tosca" with Zinka Milanov as the featured singer.

Miss Milanov was called for he substitution less than eight hours before curtain time last night. She never had sung "Tosca" at the Met.

The management, with a sellout audience eager to hear Miss Tebaldi, decided on a complete change of operas. Met officials said only a few persons asked for refunds.

Use Electronics To Curb Air Pollution

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Electronic sentinels to control air pollution are being built into furnaces in the city's four incinerator plants. John A. Bailey, deputy street commissioner, announced today.

As part of a 6½ million dollar civic waste removal program, the city is building 10 new furnaces in addition to the five presently in operation. When all are in operation the city will be able to burn 2,000 tons of refuse daily.

To control the smoke from these 2,000 tons of waste matter, the robot units monitor the temperature of the furnace around the clock. If it drops too low—indicating poor combustion which causes smoke—the burners are automatically adjusted to speed up the combustion rate.

COUPLE UNITED AFTER 7 YEARS

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Meters—Mother—is home at last for the Katsanevas.

Mrs. Mike Katsanevas arrived at a Salt Lake City airport yesterday, alone and bewildered. For seven years she had waited to come from Greece to America and be with her husband.

But somehow word of her arrival failed to reach Mike and her children. She waited an hour and a half. Then suddenly her 66-year-old husband and three of her children hurried into the airport waiting room.

There were tearful embraces and happy exclamations. "Meters" was home.

Mike had to leave Mrs. Katsanevas behind in Greece with seven of his children when he came to America with the other three in 1947. He found work as a janitor at the Clearfield Naval Supply Depot and tried to save so he could bring the rest of his family to their new home.

But the saving was slow. Finally, his fellow workers heard about his efforts and chipped in to bring the family to America in time for Christmas.

Property Transfers DEFER ACTION ON $3 BILLION SLASH IN TAXES

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chairman Cooper (D-Tenn.) said today the House Ways and Means Committee will act next week on President Eisenhower's request to postpone about three billion dollars in scheduled tax cuts.

The committee is expected to approve by a big margin, possibly on Monday or Wednesday, Eisenhower's recommendation for a one-year postponement of these tax cuts now set automatically for April 1.

(1) From 52 to 47 per cent in the corporation income tax rate, amounting to about two billion dollars annually; and (2) about one billion dollars in excise tax rates on automobiles, cigarettes, liquor, gasoline, beer and wine.

Not Much Opposition
Little opposition to the extension of present rates has been voiced either in the House or Senate.

Meanwhile, it was reliably reported, key Democrats planned a strategy huddle Saturday to consider two questions likely to be much more explosive:

1. A proposal by some Ways and Means members for a drive now to cut individual income taxes for everybody.

2. A move by others to seek repeal of a controversial tax cut on income from dividends included last year's Republican-sponsored general tax revision bill.

Dulles Says Struggle In USSR Eventually Will Produce Men With Whom U.S. Can Deal

Emmitsburg

EMMITSBURG — Col. Thomas J. Frailey, chairman of the Republican Central Committee of Emmitsburg, has announced that the speaker for the annual Washington Birthday dinner of the GOP Club of Frederick County to be held at Hotel Frederick, next Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock will be U. S. Senator John Marshall Butler, of Maryland. Tickets for this event may be obtained from Col. Frailey.

Mrs. Thomas J. Frailey entertained the members of the Over The Teacups Sewing Club on Monday evening.

The Emmitsburg Fire Company was called to the home of Mrs. Lucy Wetzel, Horner's Nest Road, about three miles west of Emmitsburg, Tuesday evening to extinguish a chimney fire. There was no damage. Twenty-eight firemen reported.

Man Acquitted Of Kidnapping

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—A Superior Court jury has found Daniel J. Marsin, 41-year-old welder, innocent of kidnapping Mrs. Evelyn Anne Smith and holding her in the Superstition Mountains for $75,000 ransom.

The defendant, who walked from the courtroom with his unconscious wife in his arms after the verdict was returned yesterday, said he expected to be acquitted. He acknowledged, however, that he "was worried."

Marsin's tiny wife Lillian fainted in his arms as the verdict was announced. Marsin picked her up and carried her into an ante-room.

Marsin was accused of abducting the 24-year-old Mrs. Smith from in front of a Phoenix beauty salon last June 9 and of taking her to the Superstition Mountains, 50 miles east of here.

Mrs. Smith returned to her home unharmed on the evening of June 10. Her husband said he paid her $75,000 ransom. The money was recovered.

$276 SUIT IS FILED

Gary E. Waltmar, Littlestown, is suing Lewis and Fred Spangler, East Berlin, for $276 damages resulting from a vehicular accident on March 22, 1954, in Hanover. Fred Spangler was driving Lewis Spangler's car when the accident occurred, according to the complaint in York court.

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles says a power struggle in Moscow eventually will produce Russian leaders with whom the United States can make "practical agreements" to ease world tensions.

He also says the Formosa crisis can be settled if Red China will renounce the use of force to capture Nationalist-held islands.

Diplomats noted that the secretary's speech last night to the Foreign Policy Assn. in New York was calm and peaceful in tone but firm against spread of communism in any important new areas of Asia.

Dulles apparently took this tone deliberately in contrast to recent warlike speeches by Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov and Red Chinese Foreign Minister Chou En-lai. Molotov denounced the United States. Chou threatened, as Dulles put it, to use "all the forces at his command" to capture Formosa.

Appeals To Reds
As for the Formosa problem, Dulles said the United States "has no commitment and no purpose" to defend such islands as Quemoy and the Matsu "as such." But he made clear that it might well fight over Quemoy and Matsu if any Communist attack on them was aimed at the conquest of Chiang Kai-shek's Formosa.

Dulles appealed to the Chinese Reds to reconsider a United Nations Security Council bid to discuss a Formosa cease-fire.

"It is hardly to be expected," he said, "that the Chinese Communists will renounce their ambitions. However, might they not renounce their efforts to realize their goals by force?"

Discussing the Russian situation, he said a distinction must always be made between the Soviet government and the Communist party.

Didn't Say When

"They will be unwilling to have that security and that welfare subordinated to the worldwide ambitions of international communism."

"If their point of view should prevail, then indeed there could be a basis for worthwhile negotiation and practical agreement between the United States and the new Russia."

Bullets Sink Navy 74-72 In Overtime On Goal By Sevebeck; Snyder Gets 31

Reservist Jim Sevebeck, who transferred here from Navy two years ago, rammed through the winning goal in an overtime period as the Gettysburg College cagers upset Navy 74-72 Wednesday afternoon at Annapolis in a stunning surprise.

The Bullet victory, first over Navy since 1942, was the result of a determined uphill battle all the way. The Middies took 42-30 at half time and midway in the last half enjoyed a 13-point bulge.

Bill Snyder, who continued on his prolific scoring rampage with 31 points, Art Hendley and Sevebeck combined to provide the Bullet scoring punch which finally brought a tie at 62-62 with but 1:34 minutes of the regulation game remaining.

Costly Foul Miss
A goal and foul by Dick Hockenbury sent the Bream-men to the front but Ken McCally retaliated for Navy with a goal. Immediately afterwards he was fouled and when he missed one shot, the game went into overtime with the score standing at 65-65.

After swapping scoring in the opening minutes of the five-minute period Sevebeck converted a pair of fouls to give Gettysburg a 72-70 edge. The Bullets took to freeing the ball but McCally made a steal and drove down court for the tying points with half a minute remaining. In the fading seconds Sevebeck landed his winning tally. Sevebeck played only in the fourth period and extra frame during which he contributed 12 points.

Snyder's 31 tallies gives him an even 1,000 points in his career to make him the only Bullet player in history ever to reach that figure.

Gettysburg's victory was its sixth against 11 setbacks. They invade Lewisburg Saturday night for an engagement with Bucknell who lost here 92-87.

Fresh Defeated
The undefeated Navy Plebes routed the college freshmen 89-60 in their engagement as Frank Pettino tabbed 36 points for the winners. Barclay Sell topped the frosh with 14. The win was the 14th straight for the Plebes. Gettysburg now has a 2-6 record.

Klein Appointed To Athletic Commission

HARRISBURG (P) — Alfred M. Klein of Elkins Park, a lawyer and former Kefauver crime committee investigator, today was named to the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission.

Gov. George M. Leader appointed Klein the second member of the new board to replace three Republican commissioners he fired this week.

The governor named James H. (Sleepy Jim) Crowley, Scranton, yesterday as chairman of the new group.

Crowley is the former Fordham football coach and one-time member of the immortal "Four Horsemen" of Notre Dame.

Bigler Matmen Host Tonight To Spring Grove

Biglerville High School's wrestling squad will attempt to swing back into the win column when it meets Spring Grove at Biglerville this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Bill Krebs' Cannons have a 2-2 record for the season. They opened with a pair of wins over Boiling Springs but then dropped two engagements to Shippensburg.

Following tonight's meet the Cannons will engage the Mercersburg Academy jayvees at Mercersburg on February 24 and conclude their season March 3 with Susquehanna Township at home.

PALMERTON IS POWER IN DIST. PIAA PICTURE

HARRISBURG (P) — Palmerton's Blue Bombers continue to loom as the most potent threat to take top honors in the Dist. 11 PIAA basketball race as loop seasons approach the finish line.

The Bombers, undefeated in 21 games this season, tied their previous all-time consecutive win streak Tuesday by smashing Stroudsburg, 98-64.

They aim to set a new record tomorrow when they welcome Lehigh to their home court.

A win over Lehigh—a likely prospect on the basis of the Bombers' won-lost tally—would assure them of at least a tie for the second-half pennant of the Lehigh Valley League.

Win By Wide Margin
In their last game of the season Palmerton meets second-place Catasauqua, but Catasauqua has already dropped one of its second-half games. Palmerton won the first half title.

Statington and Catasauqua meet Friday, with the Cats under pressure to win to keep in the race.

Nearly all of the Bombers' scores have been by wide margins. In two games with Statington, the defending Dist. 11 champ, Palmerton was winner by 18 and 19 points respectively.

Meanwhile, Allentown, the probable contender against the Bombers for the district crown, continued to roll ahead undefeated in the East Penn League.

18-1 Record
The Canaries now have an 18-1 log for the season. Their sole loss was to the 1954 state runner-up Chester, 65-64. They must win their remaining games in order to take second-half honors and the league crown without strength-sapping league playoffs.

Allentown meets upset-minded Hazleton Friday on the Hazleton court. Hazleton dropped their first of the second half to Bethlehem Tuesday, 95-60.

Meanwhile, Chester secured its grip on the Sec. 1 crown of Dist. 1 by defeating Haverford 78-28. The Clippers have only two more section games against weak opposition with one more victory giving them the title.

Chester now has a 17-1 season log. Their only loss was to West Philadelphia, a non-PIAA team, in the season opener.

Reading On Top
In the west, state champion Farrell again won the Sec. 3 crown in the WPIAL thanks to a victory by New Castle over second-place Sharon.

The win knotted New Castle and Sharon for the runner-up spot in the section, but ruled them out of contention for first place. They each have three losses. The Steelers have no losses in section competition and only two more games to play—one against weak Alliquippa and one against Sharon.

In central Pennsylvania's Dist. 3 Reading is now at the top of the topsy-turvy Central Penn League following a night of upsets Tuesday that knocked defending champion York and Harrisburg's William Penn from the unbeaten ranks of second half competition.

Penn dropped its game to Steelton, 60-56, while Reading knocked off York 61-55, leaving Reading the only team undefeated in second-half activity.

Lancaster won the first half of league competition in a round as confusing as the current semester.

In 1920 Babe Ruth hit 54 home runs to lead the major leagues. His nearest rival for the honors was George Sisler with 19.

20TH STRAIGHT WIN OF SEASON FOR MARQUETTE

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

This was supposed to be a long, winter for Marquette in college basketball, but, man, spring is bustin' out all over for the Warriors.

They weren't expected to have much this season, and Coach John Nagle was pessimistic despite 10 returning lettermen. He figured they wouldn't be able to improve much on their 11-15 record of last season. That prospect seemed genuine when Marquette dropped its opener to Michigan State 91-72.

At that point, though, Nagle, in his second year with the Warriors, changed his style and gave his boys their head on the court. He's had a tiger by the tail ever since.

Pack Up 20th Win
Marquette ripped through its 20th consecutive victory (tops in the nation) since losing the opener night. That gave the Warriors, No. 6 in this week's Associated Press poll, a 98-point average in three games since learning of their selection as one of nine at-large teams for the NCAA Tournament.

San Francisco, No. 1 team in the nation, whipped St. Mary's (Calif.) 65-67 and extended its winning streak to 18. Big Bill Russell scored 24 points.

Third-rated La Salle, the NCAA champ, ho-hummed past Albright 89-69 with two-time All America Tom Gola scoring 27 points. Oklahoma A&M shook up the Missouri Valley Conference race by defeating Tulsa 62-52 in an intra family squabble between coaching brothers Hank and Clarence Iva.

Penn Beats Brown
The loss dropped Tulsa out of first place and substituted idle St. Louis.

In other league races, North Carolina snapped a three-game losing string by outlasting Wake Forest 83-79 in an Atlantic Coast Conference contest despite Dick Hemric's 35 points. Virginia Tech dropped its 17th straight decision as Virginia Military neared a Southern Conference playoff berth 76-74 on Don Nyman's layup with 17 seconds left.

Penn closed in on its second Ivy League title in three seasons by rallying to beat Brown 67-61 while Princeton surprised second-place Columbia 53-52 with a great drive in the last seven minutes.

Wilkinson Has Lead On Points
NEW YORK (P) — If Darrell Floyd of Furman is to be sidetracked in his bid for individual scoring honors in major college basketball it appears Virginia's Buzzy Wilkinson will have to do the job.

Floyd, taking up where Furman's All-American Frank Selvy left off last season, was shackled by the flu for two games last week, but before that he scored 40 points against Newberry to boost his top-ranked average to 35.5 points a game.

Wilkinson, meanwhile, pushed into the runner-up position with 68 points in two games for a 32.1 average and took over the total point lead with 675—one more than Floyd's sum—according to statistics compiled by the NCAA service bureau through last week's games.

Jesse Arnette of Penn State with 562 points and a 28.1 average is in sixth place among the nation's major college players.

Best Chance For GHS Loop Victory Offered On Friday When Waynesboro Is Here

If the Gettysburg High School basketballers have any aspirations of winning at least one game in the South Penn League this season they had better effort themselves for an all-out effort against Waynesboro here Friday evening for it is unlikely they have enough strength to stop Shippensburg or Chambersburg in away games or Carlisle here in the final home contest on February 25.

At present Waynesboro is in the cellar of the second half league race as the result of dropping five straight games. The Warriors, who have lost 14 straight, including 12 league games, are also winless in the second half but have lost only four. The loser of Friday's game will probably finish in last place.

Harry Pure's Indians edged the Warriors 55-49 in the first half game at Waynesboro after a tight battle.

Waynesboro's main offensive threats have been Carroll Hartle and Joe Caron. If the Warriors can bottle them they may snare their first league triumph.

Also Seek Revenge
The Warriors reserve will seek revenge for a 52-32 loss at Waynesboro in the preliminary game which starts at 6:45.

Other games in the league Friday will have important bearing on the second half race. Games include Chambersburg at Hershey, Shippensburg at Hanover, and Carlisle at Mechanicsburg.

The Adams County League rings down the curtain on its regular season schedule Friday evening. Littlestown and Newville have a postponed affair to make up and it has been tentatively carded for next Wednesday at Newville. Play-offs in the league will be staged between the four top teams on February 24 and 26 at Gettysburg College.

The schedule for Friday follows: Biglerville at Littlestown, New Oxford at York Springs, East Berlin at Boiling Springs, and Newville at Fairfield.

The Biglerville and Littlestown girls' teams are both unbeaten and their contest at Littlestown may decide the league championship. Biglerville has a 6-0 mark and Littlestown is 5-0. A win for the Cannons would gain them the title while a Bolt triumph would mean the game with Newville would have to be played.

Fairfield Junior High plays at Biglerville Friday afternoon at 3:45 to complete the day's program.

OLSON DEFEATS TIGER JONES; TO MEET MAXIM

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
CHICAGO (P) — Middleweight champion Bobo Olson, after slicing up Ralph (Tiger) Jones, is going big game hunting.

His first quarry will be battle-weight Joe Maxim, former light heavyweight champion, at San Francisco April 13.

Maxim, who must shed 21 pounds to make the 175 limit for the fight, is on a timetable that Olson's manager Sid Flaherty hopes will lead to a crack at Archie Moore's light heavy title.

Never Heavier
Olson carried the most weight of his career, 168 pounds, against Jones, 161, last night at Chicago Stadium and treated a national television audience and 6,221 ring-side customers to a masterful performance in the nontitle 10-round bout.

Jones, who a month ago in the same ring defeated Sugar Ray Robinson handily, was gradually broken down by the champion's sharp, slashing counterpunches.

By the third round, the Tiger gamely trying to carry the fight to Olson with a lively pace from the opening bell — was bleeding from the nose.

Gory Finish
By the fourth round, there was blood from a cut on his right eye. By the sixth, another gash near the same place bled profusely until the end.

It was a gory finish. Judge Frank McAdams and Referee Frank Gilmer gave Olson all 10 rounds, the former scoring it 100-78 and the latter 100-86. Judge John Bray saw it 99-87 for Olson.

Olson, unmarked, said he felt stronger at 168 "but maybe I was faster at 160 and not as easy a target."

After Jones had four stitches taken over his eye, he conceded Bobo was "the toughest fighter I've ever met."

Barons Stop Hershey 7-4 With Francis
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
It would be hard to beat the performance of veteran goalie Emile (The Cat) Francis for the Cleveland Barons in last night's American Hockey League game with the Hershey Bears.

With Francis in the nets, the Barons turned back Hershey 7-4 to snap the Bears' four-game winning streak. He also figured in two rather odd occurrences.

The 28-year-old goaltender received 17 minutes of penalties—served by substitutes—during a second period uproar. First he fought with Norm Corcoran and was given a 5-minute major penalty. Later he drew an additional 10-minute misconduct for disputing a 2-minute penalty for holding the puck.

Francis also was given a rare assist on a second period Cleveland goal as Cal Stearns broke away for the score with his team short-handed two men.

Eddie Olson, the league's leading scorer, tallied twice in the opening period to spark the Barons' attack.

RIDING CLUB WILL DEVELOP NEW SHOW SITE

With a full agreement reached with Gettysburg Recreation Association, members of the Gettysburg Riding Club are ready to go ahead with plans for development of a seven-acre section in the southwestern corner of the Recreation Park as a horse show site.

All Riding Club members were named to show committees at the club's February meeting on Tuesday evening at the engine house and if weather conditions permit, the new site can be used for the club's annual show in June. Considerable grading is involved and it is "unpredictable" where the show can be held there this year, President LeRoy H. Winebrenner said.

The Riding Club has been given use of the Rec Park section under terms similar to those granted the softball association, model airplane club and the Little League baseball organization, it was explained. The club will spend "several thousand dollars" on its improvement program, Winebrenner said.

Rotary Is Co-Sponsor
Mr. Winebrenner announced that the Rotary Club again has voted to go along as a joint sponsor of the show.

Attorney Charles W. Wolf, Ray M. Hoffman and S. B. Miller were appointed to the club's charity committee.

A by-laws revision committee also was named. It includes Attorney Donald Oyley, chairman; Attorneys Franklin R. Bigham, Richard A. Brown, Charles Wolf and Dr. Bruce N. Wolff.

Movies of the local club members in action were shown by Dr. Wolff Tuesday evening and it was announced there will be films on the Tennessee Walking Horse and the Quarter Horse for the March and April meetings.

if you intend to resell them soon, because most of them are for long-term investment. You should not buy bonds that run longer than fifteen years.

"Two other handicaps are the lack of information on these bonds, and their lack of marketability. If you were forced to sell the bonds of a small town, you would have trouble," he mentioned the name of a small Adams County borough. "Who in New York or Chicago investment houses ever heard of this place?" he said.

School District Bonds
On school district bonds, he said: "Many of the schools would not be able to pay off their bonds if it were not for the state reimbursement fund. The state legislature must renew these obligations each two years, since one legislature cannot commit another as far as this is concerned. It would be political suicide for a legislature to repudiate these debts, but where you have a legislature that is divided, party-wise, then you may have some delays."

"Another difficulty is population shifts. In some regions, elaborate and expensive schools have been built, the bonds have been sold, and then, for one reason or another, most of the people have moved away. The state then finds it cheaper to close down the school, and transport the remaining children to another district, and the bonds, then default. You have this sort of thing happening in the coal regions."

One example of a successful bond issue which Mr. Seiwald cited was the Pennsylvania Turnpike bonds. "While the construction is going on, there were some doubts about those bonds. But now they are paying off on schedule, and the first issues will be retired by 1961," he said.

The meeting was attended by 30 bankers representing nine county banks. President Spangler announced that the next meeting will be held March 16, and the topic will be retirement plans for banks.

GOVERNOR TO BACK SHAPIRO ON HOSPITALS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. George M. Leader today promised to back Welfare Secretary Harry Shapiro "to the limit" in his campaign to clean up what Shapiro termed "miserable conditions" in the state's mental hospitals.

"I think Mr. Shapiro is proceeding in his investigations in an intelligent, well informed manner, and I will back him to the limit," Leader told a news conference.

Referring to the overall picture of Pennsylvania's state operated mental hospitals, Leader said he thought an "outside agency of experts might be hired by the state to evaluate conditions at all the state's hospitals."

As to the Lauretton State Village where Shapiro has ordered 40 mentally defective women removed from a "secure cottage," Leader commented:

Awaits Figures
"I will back him up in that move and all the other moves along the lines of evaluating conditions at the (state) hospitals."

On the hiring of a professional group to evaluate the hospitals, Leader said he did not know whether or not the fees would be paid out of the Welfare Department budget or if a new appropriation would have to be made.

Asked about a statement by Shapiro last week that he will ask for an additional 20 to 40 million dollars to run the Welfare Department in the next biennium, the governor said:

"I can't say anything now until I get some specific figures, not just 20 or 40 million dollars."

SAYS FINANCIAL CONDITION OF PA. IS DIFFICULT

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. George M. Leader said today the commonwealth's financial position is "extremely difficult" but ruled out the need for "quickie" taxes.

"I don't see how we can enact taxes for this biennium at this stage of the game," he told his weekly news conference. Leader's statement virtually removed the possibility of imposing new levies to finance up to a 90 million dollar deficit for the period between now and next May 31.

The need for added revenue, above and beyond the 400 to 500 million dollars which Leader said is required for the two years after June 1, has previously been mentioned by Atty. Gen. Herbert B. Cohen.

To Cut Appropriations
Since no "quickie" taxes are possible between now and next May 31, Leader said, then the administration must start cutting back appropriations approved nearly two years ago.

With Budget Secretary Andrew Bradley at his side, Leader said there were two ways of doing this:

1. Holding up for bookkeeping purposes until after June 1 the actual payment of non-preferred appropriations. This type of grant includes aid to state-aided colleges and institutions.

2. Legislative enactment postponing until after June 1 actual payment of preferred appropriations. This type of appropriation includes money paid for actual state operations.

Asked by newsmen if he stood by his inaugural statement that the new Democratic administration is a "receiver in bankruptcy" from the recent GOP administration, he said:

"For practical purposes, we are. We are in a difficult financial position."

Need 20 Millions
Bradley later told a newsmen that the commonwealth needs about 20 million dollars in additional cash before May 31 to meet bills that must be paid by them. The biggest of these is 16 million dollars for relief.

Present estimates, he said, indicate that about 21 million dollars of the needed cash can come from lapsing or holding up the non-deferred appropriations.

SAYS SOVIET SHIFT DOESN'T ASSURE WAR

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Treasury Secretary Humphrey says the recent changes in the Soviet Union's political hierarchy do not indicate a shift to a complete wartime economic status.

He said also last night at a dinner sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce of Greater Philadelphia that he did not believe the Formosan crisis would alter U. S. plans for reduced spending.

He told a press conference prior to the dinner that the switch in Soviet premiers did not indicate to him that the Russian economy has been shifted to a complete wartime or defense basis. Coincidental with the switch was an announcement of increased stress on production of heavy goods rather than on those for consumer use.

Can Outproduce Them
Humphrey also told the press conference that he was confident the U. S. could "produce more than the Soviet Union with just a little warning."

In his speech, Humphrey said the Formosan situation has not yet developed a sufficient threat to turn the U. S. administration away from plans for reduced spending.

"While there is still high tension in many places," he said, "there is no armed warfare between major powers at any point on the globe at this moment. There is peace—uneasy as it is—as far as American fighting men are concerned."

The treasury secretary said tax reductions, in addition to those recently put into effect, appear possible because of planned future spending cuts and economic expansion. Such tax cuts, he said, "are firm foundation stones creating greater confidence" in the nation's future prosperity.

Praised By Weaver
Burgess William G. Weaver, who served as toastmaster at the dinner, presented Swisher with a letter expressing the appreciation of the community to "you and your contemporaries" for outstanding service to the community.

In his opening remarks, the burgess told the Jaycees, "I like what I have seen of the activities of the Gettysburg Junior Chamber of Commerce. Gettysburg needs the products of your minds. This tonight is one of the finest things you have done."

"Delinquents represent only a very, very small percentage of the people of our United States," Burgess Weaver said. "But unfortunately by their actions they serve to give all youth a bad name. It is good to have programs such as this to honor the great majority of youth who otherwise are almost forgotten."

Dean Tilberg Speaks
Weaver introduced guests including representatives from the Lions, Kiwanis, Exchange, Soroptimist and Rotary Clubs in addition to wives of members of the Junior Chamber.

Urges Poultrymen To Guard Against Egg Production Slump

By FRANK S. ZETTEL
Adams County Farm Agent

During the winter season, poultrymen constantly must be on guard against slumps in egg production. There always is a direct relationship between the amount of feed consumed, and the number of eggs laid. A drop in the amount of feed consumed is followed by a drop in egg production in just a few days.

It's a mighty good idea to check body weight occasionally, either by weighing marked birds in the flock, or by feeling the breasts of a number of birds in each pen, after they have gone to roost. Birds losing weight will generally slow up in their egg production. So if you do notice a drop in weight, your best bet is to try to increase feed consumption by any means you can muster.

Anything that affects the birds' regular routine of feeding will upset egg production. Try to keep away from sudden and drastic changes in management... such as a lack of a constant supply of drinking water... irregular use of artificial lighting, or irregular feeding.

You can't prevent cold snaps from occurring... but you can do something about them, to prevent a slump in egg production. Feed wet mash or pellets as a bonus during cold spells... anything to keep that feed intake where it belongs. That extra pound of feed is what makes those extra eggs.

More Cattle On Feed
The number of cattle and calves on feed in the United States at the first of this year was eight per cent larger than a year ago. The number on feed in the North Central States was up four per cent above a year ago, as well. And in the thirteen western states, cattle and calves on feed were up twenty-two per cent.

The Crop Reporting Service estimates that near-record numbers of cattle and calves were on feed the first of this year in the corn belt. That's up about four per cent above last year. The number one feeding state, Iowa, showed a six per cent increase, with Nebraska, the second biggest feeding state, up two per cent. Illinois was up five per cent.

In fact, all North Central states had the same or more cattle on feed than a year ago. The one exception was North Dakota, down eight per cent. California and Colorado, the important feeding states in the west, were up thirty-three and twelve per cent. And all other areas of the west made increases from seven to sixty-nine per cent... except Wyoming and Texas that were down just a little.

From the nine corn belt states for which state inspection records are available, we find that shipments in of stocker and feeder cattle during December were up twenty-four per cent over December a year ago. Likewise for the July-December period, in-shipments were up twenty per cent.

And in our own state of Pennsylvania, the number of cattle and calves on feed the first of the year totaled eight-four thousand head. That's two per cent over a year ago, and six per cent below the five-year average.

Must Plant Registered Seed
If you're planning on producing some certified seed as part of your crop this year... here are some timely reminders. Rules and regulations for certification of small grains and soybean seed were revised by the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture last May. These rules go into effect with spring oats, spring barley, and soybeans this spring.

The new rules are intended to improve the quality of seed which growers of certified seed plant. They provide that registered seed be planted by seed growers who produce certified seed for sale to grain farmers. Registered seed production and control will be the responsibility of the Pennsylvania State University... operating through the Foundation Seed Stocks Project. Here are the rules.

Only grain grown from registered seed will be considered for certification. Also, proof that satisfactory seed was used must accompany the application for inspection. You can use tags or a bill of sale for such proof. Remember, you have to apply for inspection to the Bureau of Plant Industry in the Department of Agriculture in Harrisburg for all spring grains... and do it before next June fifteenth.

Another rule is that fields shall be planted to only one variety. Not less than five acres will be approved for certification service... and you have to have the five acres in one continuous area... not spread all over the place. Allowance will be made, however, for seed grown in contour strips.

GOING TO CONVENTION

Schiebel, former pastor of the Arendtsville Lutheran Church, has been recently elected one of three regional representatives to the Farm Bureau Insurance Company's Policyholders' Convention, to be held in Columbus, Ohio, March 11 and 12. WEATHERMAN PLEASES SOME BUSINESS FOLK

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—The weatherman—who gets blamed for almost everything—is getting some friendly pats today from industries that fared less profitably in other years when the winters were more on the sissy side.

It's been a good winter for the makers and sellers of heavy overcoats, rubbers and galoshes, and for distributors of coal, fuel oil and natural gas.

On the other hand, merchants in many cities blame the weatherman for store sales dropping below the year ago figure. New York department stores report sales off 3 per cent last week because the weather kept people home. But San Francisco, with better days, had a sales increase of 6 per cent above the year-ago figures.

Chain Stores Gain
Chain stores and mail order houses report big gains in sales last month as merchandise associated with cold weather moved freely. The average gain: 9 per cent. For the mail order houses, the increase averaged 15 per cent above a year ago. Maybe folk stayed home because of the bad weather and shopped through the postman.

Fuel peddlers have had some sorry winters in recent years and talked gloomily of climatic changes and the disappearance of the old-fashioned "real" winter. But this year the American Petroleum Institute reports that cold weather has reduced the big stocks of fuel oils, to the industry's joy.

Employment in general has dropped in areas where winter halted outdoor work.

Milk Off, Eggs Up
Milk production is running slightly behind a year ago, because in many regions the cows haven't been getting out to pasture as they did in the sissy winters.

Egg prices have gone up, and one reason given is that cold weather has discouraged the birds and also has kept some farmers from coming to town with the eggs the hens did lay.

Cold waves have dipped lower into the South this year. Freezing weather has cut output of some winter vegetables and threatens to slice some Southern fruit crops. You'll be paying higher prices for some foods.

Werner said he would retire as postmaster at end of this month to run for the city job. Harrisburg's mayor gets $7,000 annually. The postal job pays $9,870.

Bullets Sink Navy 74-72 In Overtime On Goal By Sevebeck; Snyder Gets 31

Reservist Jim Sevebeck, who transferred here from Navy two years ago, rammed through the winning goal in an overtime period as the Gettysburg College cagers upset Navy 74-72 Wednesday afternoon at Annapolis in a stunning surprise.

The Bullet victory, first over Navy since 1942, was the result of a determined uphill battle all the way. The Middies led 42-30 at half time and midway in the last half enjoyed a 13-point bulge.

Bill Snyder, who continued on his prolific scoring rampage with 21 points, Art Hendley and Sevebeck combined to provide the Bullet scoring punch which finally brought a tie at 62-62 with but 1:34 minutes of the regulation game remaining.

Costly Foul Miss
A goal and foul by Dick Hockenbury sent the Bream-men to the front but Ken McCally retaliated for Navy with a goal. Immediately afterwards he was fouled and when he missed one shot, the game went into overtime with the score standing at 66-65.

After swapping scoring in the opening minutes of the five-minute period Sevebeck converted a pair of fouls to give Gettysburg a 72-70 edge. The Bullets took to freezing the ball but McCally made a steal and drove down court for the tying points with half a minute remaining. In the fading seconds Sevebeck landed his winning tally. Sevebeck played only in the fourth period and extra frame during which he contributed 12 points.

Snyder's 31 tallies gives him an even 1,000 points in his career to make him the only Bullet player in history ever to reach that figure.

Fresh Defeated
The undefeated Navy Plebes routed the college freshmen 88-60 in their engagement as Frank Pettinos tabbed 36 points for the winners. Barclay Sell topped the fourth with 14. The win was the 14th straight for the Plebes. Gettysburg now has a 2-6 record.

Klein Appointed To Athletic Commission

Gov. George M. Leader appointed Klein the second member of the new board to replace three Republican commissioners he fired this week.

Bigler Matmen Host Tonight To Spring Grove

Biglerville High School's wrestling squad will attempt to swing back into the win column when it meets Spring Grove at Biglerville this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Bill Krebs' Cannons have a 2-2 record for the season. They opened with a pair of wins over Bolling Springs but then dropped two engagements to Shippensburg.

Following tonight's meet the Cannons will engage the Mercersburg Academy jayvees at Mercersburg on February 24 and conclude their season March 3 with Susquehanna Township at home.

PALMERTON IS POWER IN DIST. PIAA PICTURE

HARRISBURG (AP) — Palmerton's Blue Bombers continue to loom as the most potent threat to take top honors in the Dist. 11 PIAA basketball race as loop seasons approach the finish line.

The Bombers, undefeated in 21 games this season, tied their previous all-time consecutive win streak Tuesday by smashing Stroudsburg, 58-64.

They aim to set a new record tomorrow when they welcome Lehigh to their home court.

A win over Lehigh—a likely prospect on the basis of the Bombers' won-lost tally—would assure them of at least a tie for the second-half pennant of the Lehigh Valley League.

Win By Wide Margin
In their last game of the season Palmerton meets second-place Catasauqua, but Catasauqua has already dropped one of its second-half games. Palmerton won the first half title.

Slatington and Catasauqua meet Friday, with the Cats under pressure to win to keep in the race.

Nearly all of the Bombers' scores have been by wide margins. In two games with Slatington, the defending Dist. 11 champ, Palmerton was winner by 18 and 19 points respectively.

Meanwhile, Allentown, the probable contender against the Bombers for the district crown, continued to roll ahead undefeated in the East Penn League.

18-1 Record
The Canaries now have an 18-1 log for the season. Their sole loss was to the 1954 state runnerup Chester, 65-64. They must win their remaining games in order to take second-half honors and the league crown without strength-sapping league playoffs.

Allentown meets upset-minded Hazleton Friday on the Hazleton court. Hazleton dropped their first of the second half to Bethlehem Tuesday, 95-60.

Meanwhile, Chester secured its grip on the Sec. 1 crown of Dist. 1 by defeating Haverford 78-28. The Clippers have only two more section games against weak opposition with one more victory giving them the title.

Chester now has a 17-1 season log. Their only loss was to West Philadelphia, a non-PIAA team, in the season opener.

Reading On Top
In the west, state champion Farrell again won the Sec. 3 crown in the WPIAL thanks to a victory by New Castle over second-place Sharon.

The win knotted New Castle and Sharon for the runner-up spot in the section, but ruled them out of contention for first place. They each have three losses. The Steelers have no losses in section competition and only two more games to play—one against weak Alliquippa and one against Sharon.

In central Pennsylvania's Dist. 3-Reading is now at the top of the topsy-turvy Central Penn League following a night of upsets Tuesday that knocked defending champion York and Harrisburg's William Penn from the unbeaten ranks of second half competition.

Penn dropped its game to Steelton, 80-56, while Reading knocked off York 61-55, leaving Reading the only team undefeated in second-half activity.

Lancaster won the first half of league competition in a round as confusing as the current semester.

The governor named James H. (Sleepy Jim) Crowley, Scranton, yesterday as chairman of the new group.

Crowley is the former Fordham football coach and one-time member of the immortal "Four Horsemen" of Notre Dame.

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

This was supposed to be a long, winter for Marquette in college basketball, but, man, spring is bustin' out all over for the Warriors.

They weren't expected to have much this season, and Coach John Nagle was pessimistic despite 10 returning lettermen. He figured they wouldn't be able to improve much on their 11-15 record of last season. That prospect seemed genuine when Marquette dropped its opener to Michigan State 91-72.

At that point, though, Nagle, in his second year with the Warriors, changed his style and gave his boys their head on the court. He's had a tiger by the tail ever since.

Pack Up 20th Win
Marquette ripped through its 20th consecutive victory (tops in the nation) since losing the opener night. That gave the Warriors, No. 6 in this week's Associated Press poll, a 98-point average in three games since learning of their selection as the first of nine at-large teams for the NCAA Tournament.

San Francisco, No. 1 team in the nation, whipped St. Mary's (Calif.) 65-57 and extended its winning streak to 18. Big Bill Russell scored 24 points.

Third-rated La Salle, the NCAA champ, ho-hummed past Albright 89-69 with two-time All America Tom Gola scoring 27 points. Oklahoma A&M shook up the Missouri Valley Conference race by defeating Tulsa 62-52 in an intra family squabble between coaching brothers Hank and Clarence Iba.

Penn Beats Brown
The loss dropped Tulsa out of first place and substituted idle St. Louis.

In other league races, North Carolina snapped a three-game losing string by outlasting Wake Forest 83-79 in an Atlantic Coast Conference contest despite Dick Hemmick's 35 points. Virginia Tech dropped its 17th straight decision as Virginia Military neared a Southern Conference playoff berth 76-74 on Don Nymman's layup with 17 seconds left.

Penn closed in on its second Ivy League title in three seasons by rallying to beat Brown 67-61 while Princeton surprised second-place Columbia 53-52 with a great drive in the last seven minutes.

WILKINSON HAS LEAD ON POINTS
NEW YORK (AP) — If Darrell Floyd of Furman is to be sidetracked in his bid for individual scoring honors in major college basketball it appears Virginia's Buzzy Wilkinson will have to do the job.

Floyd, taking up where Furman's All-American Frank Selvy left off last season, was shackled by the flu for two games last week, but before that he scored 40 points against Newberry to boost his top-ranked average to 35.5 points a game.

Wilkinson, meanwhile, pushed into the runnerup position with 68 points in two games for a 32.1 average and took over the total point lead with 675—one more than Floyd's sum—according to statistics compiled by the NCAA service bureau through last week's games.

Jesse Arnette of Penn State with 562 points and a 28.1 average is in sixth place among the nation's major college players.

Best Chance For GHS Loop Victory Offered On Friday When Waynesboro Is Here

If the Gettysburg High School basketball team has any aspirations of winning at least one game in the South Penn League this season they had better get themselves for an all-out effort against Waynesboro here Friday evening for it is unlikely they have enough strength to stop Shippensburg or Chambersburg in away games or Carlisle here in the final home contest on February 25.

At present Waynesboro is in the cellar of the second half league race as the result of dropping five straight games. The Warriors, who have lost 14 straight, including 12 league games, are also winless in the second half but have lost only four. The loser of Friday's game will probably finish in last place.

Harry Pure's Indians edged the Warriors 55-49 in the first half game at Waynesboro after a tight battle.

Waynesboro's main offensive threats have been Carroll Hartie and Joe Caron. If the Warriors can bottle them they may snare their first league triumph.

Also Seek Revenge
The Warriors reserves will seek revenge for a 52-32 loss at Waynesboro in the preliminary game which starts at 6:45.

All other games in the league Friday will have important bearing on the second half race. Games include Chambersburg at Hershey; Shippensburg at Hanover, and Carlisle at Mechanicsburg.

The Adams County League rings down the curtain on its regular season schedule Friday evening. Littlestown and Newville have a postponed affair to make up and it has been tentatively carded for next Wednesday at Newville. Playoffs in the league will be staged between the four top teams on February 24 and 26 at Gettysburg College.

The schedule for Friday follows: Biglerville at Littlestown, New Oxford at York Springs, East Berlin at Bolling Springs, and Newville at Fairfield.

The Biglerville and Littlestown girls' teams are both unbeaten and their contest at Littlestown may decide the league championship. Biglerville has a 6-0 mark and Littlestown is 5-0. A win for the Cannons would gain them the title while a Bolt triumph would mean the game with Newville would have to be played.

Fairfield Junior High plays at Biglerville Friday afternoon at 3:45 to complete the day's program.

Diplomats Defeat Bullet Matmen 25-5; Lewis Wins; Terrors Here On Saturday

Gaining but one verdict, a fall by Howard Lewis, 147-pounder, the Gettysburg College wrestling team suffered a 25-5 setback at the hands of Franklin and Marshall here Wednesday evening.

The powerful Diplomat squad took two events by falls and five by decisions.

Ned Horner, 137, gained the quickest fall for the visitors by pinning Dave Turnbull in 2:22 with a half-nelson and arm lock.

The other fall for the Diplomats was taken by Hal DeHaven, 157, who tossed Charles Heverly in 1:58 of the third period with a chancery and arm bar.

Lewis used a cradle hold to pin Bob Smith in 30 seconds of the second period.

F. and M.'s victory was its fourth in seven engagements.

Coach Gene Haas' squad now has a 3-2-1 record.

The Bullets will meet Western Maryland here Saturday afternoon at 2:30. The meet was recently switched from Westminster to the local gymnasium.

The summaries:
123 Class—Jerry Yoder, F&M, defeated Ken Purdy, 7-2.
130—Dick Samuels, F&M, defeated Bob Walmsley, 5-0.

CALLS STOKES "BEST MOBILE MAN" IN U.S.A.

By JOE BRADIS
LORETO, Pa. (AP)—They'll be talking about Maurice Stokes at Little St. Francis College long after the six-foot-six All America basketball candidate has graduated.

In the past few years the St. Francis team has sprung into the national basketball spotlight and no one can take more bows for its surprising surge than Stokes, a high scoring, tremendous rebounding, center.

Coach Dr. William T. (Skipper) Hughes calls the 21-year-old Pittsburgh senior "the best mobile man in the country," adding:

"He's unquestionably one of the top collegiate performers in the nation barring none. That includes Dick Rickette of Duquesne and Tom Gola of La Salle. This boy Stokes is a whirlwind dervish."

Plans For Future
Last year in the National Invitation Tournament at New York Stokes pumped in 34 points against Brigham Young for an 81-66 victory in the opening game. He followed that with 28 in a losing 90-63 effort in the quarter-finals against Duquesne.

Stokes won a place on the all-tournament team then and will get a chance for a repeat performance next month. St. Francis accepted a bid to the tournament yesterday.

Stokes, who is studying economics, plans to play basketball after he graduates. "That's what I know best," says Maurice. "I've received a lot of offers and naturally I've got to make up my mind soon."

OLSON DEFEATS TIGER JONES; TO MEET MAXIM

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
CHICAGO (AP) — Middleweight champion Bobo Olson, after slicing up Ralph (Tiger) Jones, is going big game hunting.

His first quarry will be battle-wise Joe Maxim, former light heavyweight champion, at San Francisco April 13.

Maxim, who must shed 21 pounds to make the 175 limit for the fight, is on a timetable that Olson's manager Sid Flaherty hopes will lead to a crack at Archie Moore's light heavy title.

Never Heavier
Olson carried the most weight of his career, 168 pounds, against Jones, 161, last night at Chicago Stadium and treated a national television audience and 6,221 ring-side customers to a masterful performance in the non-title 10-round bout.

Jones, who a month ago in the same ring defeated Sugar Ray Robinson handily, was gradually broken down by the champion's sharp, slashing counterpunches.

By the third round, the Tiger gamely trying to carry the fight to Olson with a lively pace from the opening bell — was bleeding from the nose.

Gory Finish
By the fourth round, there was blood from a cut on his right eyelid. By the sixth, another gash near the same place bled profusely until the end.

It was a gory finish. Judge Frank McAdams and Referee Frank Gilmer gave Olson all 10 rounds, the former scoring it 100-78 and the latter 100-86. Judge John Bray saw it 99-87 for Olson.

After Jones had four stitches taken over his eye, he conceded Bobo was "the toughest fighter I've ever met."

'FRISCO BID AS GOP MEETING PLACE WINS

By D. HAROLD OLIVER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Republican National Committee gathered today to act on a subcommittee recommendation that he party hold its 1956 nominating convention in San Francisco the week starting Aug. 20.

Approval was predicted by National Chairman Leonard W. Hall, who announced the site subcommittee's unanimous decision yesterday.

San Francisco won out in an 11th-hour bid over Chicago and Philadelphia. The Democrats have picked Chicago for their 1956 convention starting either July 23 or Aug. 13.

He To Talk

President Eisenhower arranged to deliver an off-the-record talk at a closed luncheon meeting of the GOP committee.

Hall, in a speech prepared for the session, heaped praise on Eisenhower as "the greatest leader of our times" and appealed to his fellow committeemen:

"Let's sell Republicanism as we never have before. And we can do it under the leadership of one of the greatest men any party ever had—Dwight D. Eisenhower—if we follow him."

Hall, who says he assumes Eisenhower will run for a second term, also hit at dissenters within the party who, he said, "haven't caught up with the facts of life."

Late Entry

Without naming them, he said, "These little groups don't trouble me—they have always been with us. Every nation and every political party has had them."

Up until last week San Francisco had not been considered in the GOP convention picture. Only Chicago and Philadelphia had made formal bids of $250,000 each weeks ago and these were repeated yesterday.

Hall credited Mayor Elmer Robinson with spearheading the drive for selection of San Francisco. The city sent a representative here yesterday offering to match the $250,000 bids of the other cities and promising the GOP rent-free use of the city's Cow Palace, a huge structure built for cattle shows and other expositions and having a seating capacity of close to 17,000.

Cool weather and an option on 10,000 hotel rooms also were held out as inducements.

No Restitution In Theft Of $189.13

BALTIMORE (AP)—After Mrs. Augustine Bright pleaded guilty Tuesday to the theft of $189.13 from her employer, Judge Joseph R. Byrnes gave her a 30-day suspended sentence, placed her on probation and said there should be no restitution.

"If it weren't for my oath of office, I would find this woman not guilty," Byrnes said. "Any time a man works a woman like that for $20 a week."

The 32-year-old Negro mother of one child admitted she took the money from her employer in small amounts over a six-week period. It was testified she earned $20.53 for working a 54-hour week in a laundry and dry cleaning store. Her husband is in the Navy.

property, such as a residence, as well as on business property.

In the case of nonbusiness property, the amount of the loss is not the cost of replacement or restoration, but is the difference between the value of the property immediately before the storm and its value immediately afterwards not to exceed the cost or other basis of the property destroyed. Such losses must be reduced by the amount of insurance or other compensation received on account of the damage. Losses on account of destruction of nonbusiness property are deductible only if the taxpayer itemizes his deductions. They cannot be deducted if the taxpayer uses the optional standard deduction.

PINEAU FORMS NEW CABINET FOR FRENCH

By HARVEY HUDSON

PARIS (AP)—Christian Pineau, seeking approval as France's first Socialist premier in seven years, today finished piecing together a cabinet he hopes will satisfy the balky National Assembly.

Pineau plans to go before the deputies for approval tomorrow, but the most favorable estimates gave him less than 320 supporting votes in the 627-member chamber. With likely abstentions, that should assure his confirmation but would promise a shaky government with a brief life expectancy.

Pineau was called in by President Rene Coty Monday to try to form France's 21st postliberation cabinet—a task in which both Antoine Pinay, conservative independent, and Pierre Pflimlin of the Catholic Popular Republican Movement (MRP), had failed.

First In Years

If Pineau wins assembly approval, he will be the first Socialist premier since Paul Ramadier's government resigned in November 1947. Since the 1951 elections, the Socialists have even refused to serve in any cabinet because of their adamant stand for a program completely in line with party principles. However, they voted solidly for Pierre Mendes-France, whose defeat on a vote of confidence Feb. 5 launched the present government crisis.

As unofficially reported, Pineau's Cabinet lists 4 Socialists, 4 members of the MRP, 4 Radical Socialists, 2 members of the Union of Democratic and Socialist Resistance and 3 from the Gaullist Republican Union for Social Action.

Also Foreign Minister

Reportedly Pineau will also be foreign minister and will have two deputy premiers, former Foreign Minister Robert Schuman of the MRP and Yvon Delbos of the Radical Socialists.

The biggest groups in such a coalition are the Socialists, with 104 deputies, the MRP with 84, the Gaullists with 78 and the Radical Socialists with 69. Pineau, however, likely may not have the support of all those members.

WOULD BUILD CASTLE REPLICA

HARRISBURG (AP)—A replica of historic Ole Bull Castle, site of a Norwegian settlement of a century ago, would be built in Potter County under a bill before the Senate today.

The measure, introduced Tuesday by Sen. James S. Berger (R-Potter), would appropriate $20,000 for construction of the replica by the Department of Forests and Waters.

Other Senate bills introduced Tuesday would:

Set up a court martial board of three commissioned officers to hear cases of enlisted men ordered dismissed or refused reenlistment in the Pennsylvania state police—Eustace H. Bane (D-Fayette).

Give orphans courts exclusive jurisdiction in all proceedings affecting birth records—Martin Silvert (D-Philadelphia).

NAVY DEPOT TO HAVE OPENHOUSE

As a part of the world-wide celebration in honor of the 160th anniversary of the Supply Corps, the business corps of the United States Navy, the four naval activities at the Mechanicsburg naval supply depot will hold an open house from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, February 19.

The four activities who will act as general host to the public are: the Naval Supply Depot, the Ships Parts Control Center, the Ordnance Supply Office, and the Naval Records Management Center.

Visitors will see one of the finest displays ever presented to the public at an open house, according to Rear Admiral S. R. Edson, commanding officer of the depot. The major displays will be concentrated in one of the large warehouse buildings and will include demonstrations on all of the many facets of essential supply operations performed by the Mechanicsburg activities in supporting the United States Fleet.

A demonstration of special interest to local business men will highlight the various stages of processing priority requests for material in the Mechanicsburg warehouses to naval users throughout the world. Audience participation displays will be available for visitors to try their skill in flying a Link trainer, used for training naval aviators, to test their voices on naval tape recorders, and to use a Geiger counter.

10 years or more; permit destruction of the old records; permit destruction of records 25 years old or more without reproduction—William V. Mullin (D-Philadelphia).

Problem Of 15 Fliers Revived

WASHINGTON (AP)—The problem of 15 American fliers held by Red China and 35 Chinese students detained in America is still alive, although obscured by concern over Formosa.

Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) brought the matter of the imprisoned Americans to the fore again Tuesday when he told the Senate "the conscience of the United Nations should be deeply troubled" by its failure to get them freed from Red prisons.

Shortly afterward, Secretary of State Dulles—without mentioning Knowland—came to the defense of the U. N. He told a meeting of the United States Committee for the international organization "is an almost essential buffer" between hostile nations.

AIRMAN GRINS AFTER ORDEAL

WINNIPEG, Man. (AP)—Flashing a big grin, Tommy Pittman, who survived three bitterly cold nights and two days in the wilderness without food greeted newsmen: "I'm mighty glad to be here."

The 34-year-old U.S. Air Force captain could still laugh and smile although his right leg was broken and frostbitten and his head injured.

Last night Capt. Pittman was flown to Winnipeg, five hours after he was plucked from the northern Saskatchewan wilderness on which he dropped after a B47 Stratofortress exploded at a height of 35,000 feet 110 miles west of The Pas, Man., last Saturday.

STORM LOSS IS DEDUCTIBLE

Taxpayers whose property was wholly or partially destroyed by hurricanes or other storms during 1954 are entitled to deduct losses on their Federal income tax returns for 1954. E. A. McGinnis, district director of internal revenue at Philadelphia, said today.

Director McGinnis reminded these taxpayers that unless these deductions are taken on the return for 1954, the taxpayer will lose the benefit of them.

The deduction applies to storm losses sustained on nonbusiness

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times

TWENTY YEARS AGO
Council Extends Street Lights Five
More Blocks And Sets Up 1935 Budget: Gettysburg's present "White Way," set up a budget for 1935, maintained its total tax rate of 14 mills for another year, heard a plea for an additional piece of fire-fighting apparatus and granted exonerations to H.
H. Thomas, Gettysburg tax collector, on his 1934 duplicate, at a special meeting Monday evening.

Discussion on the additions to Gettysburg's "white way" consumed the greater part of the four-hour session and when the smoke of the verbal battle cleared away the proponents of the improvements mustered a scant majority to win the fight.
Councilmen John E. Newman,
William Biddle and Charles T. Jacobs voted against extending the white way while President C. Ray Rupp, C. W. Epley, D. C. Stallsmith and Emory C. Williams voted for the improvement.

The cost of lighting the five additional blocks—two on Chambersburg Street and one each on Carlisle, York and Baltimore Streets—was the chief talking point of the opponents of the extensions. They pointed out that the extra cost of lighting the five blocks would be in excess of $2,500 a year.

After setting up a budget for 1935 with expenditures in excess of $84-000 council was forced to pare a number of items when the total tax rate was retained at 14-mills—12 for general purposes and two for special purposes. The budget finally adopted follows: highway, $9,000;
sewers, $1,000; board of health, $400;
stationery and printing, $250; police department, $3,600; salaries, $1,820; street lighting, $7,900; water, $1,800;
heat and fuel, $250; Eichelberger fund, $166.26; truck, $400; insurance, $1,300; fire department, $1,600; disposal plant, $2,000; market house, $800; miscellaneous, $500. Total $32,011.26.

Firemen Ask New Pumper, Ladder Truck: Gettysburg needs a new piece of fire-fighting apparatus, a committee from the fire company informed council at its adjourned
meeting, Monday evening.

James B. Aumen, president of the fire company, chief spokesman for the committee, asked council for assistance in purchasing a combination pumper and ladder truck, which he said, would cost approximately $8,000.

In presenting the proposition to council Mr. Aumen pointed out that since 1916, the fire company has raised approximately $18,150 for the purchase of fire fighting equipment while during the same period council's contributions toward new apparatus have approximated only $3,500.

Mr. Aumen pointed out that the fire company has approximately $2-000 in its treasury for the purchase of the new apparatus leaving council's share at about $1,000.

Local Schools Show Increase In Enrollment: That Gettysburg's public school enrollment is keeping pace with the increases in population was made clear to members of the local school board at the February meeting Monday night by Superintendent Lloyd C. Keefe.

Professor Keefe presented a chart showing the growth in school enrollment during the last ten years.
The chart begins with the year 1925 showing 356 pupils in the high school and 613 in the elementary, or a total of 969.

This year there are 810 pupils in the elementary grades and 508 in the high school, for a total of 1,318.
This is an increase of 249 pupils in the grade and high school during the last ten years.

Hauptmann Is Sentenced To Die
In Electric Chair For Kidnapping
An Infant: Baby Charles Lindbergh Jr., Flemington, Feb. 14 (AP)—Richard Bruno Hauptmann will be taken to the death house at state prison in Trenton Saturday, Sheriff John H.
Curtiss said today.

Hauptmann Wednesday night was convicted of the murder of the Lindbergh baby during his kidnapping three years ago with death in the electric chair as the penalty.
The jury of eight men and four women deliberated 11 hours and six minutes before returning their verdict

NEVER ACKNOWLEDGE DEFEAT

I wonder what kind of a world this would be if we all got discouraged, after a few trials, and just quit cold? We wouldn't have much of a world!
My friend, the late Don Marquis, was one of the most talented of newspaper men, and at home with the writing of poetry, humor and short stories. He was also an accomplished playwright. He wrote one poem that has stayed with and inspired me for years. He called it
"New Beginnings." He said that he was full of New Beginnings, and that there was always one ready to start off defeat.

Many people fall because they recognize failure and bow to it.
Success is so much easier than failure and it has the added inspiration and encouragement that all success has. You keep climbing higher instead of lower. No one wins all the time. We learn valuable lessons from every failure, but we learn most from success because we are affected mentally, spiritually and physically when we are winning.

We ought to keep planting success seeds within us so that something good is forever growing for which we are responsible. I cannot accept mere money success, however; as the most genuine kind of success. Money success can be wiped out in a single day, but the success that spreads cheer, hope and encouragement to others can never be lost. People live happily by all through life.
The true success is that one from which you enjoy the greatest satisfaction. Audubon, the noted artist and writer about American birds, was always happiest when he was in search of new birds to paint and learn about. Every new part of the country was a new Heaven to him—if it had birds to paint.
Everything that he depicted in his wanderings is today a treasured item. His was a success greater than that of any warrior.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Back to Quiet and Sanity."

Once Famed Katalysine Spring To Be Revived; Plan Bottling Plant:
Clyde D. Berger, of Pikesville, Maryland, announced here today that he plans to begin bottling water from the katalysine spring on the former Springs hotel property, west of Gettysburg, about April 1.

Water from the spring was last bottled in 1913, Berger said. In 1917 the once famous Springs hotel, erected originally as the nucleus for a mineral spa, burned to the ground.

Montreal Blaze Kills 11 Persons

MONTREAL (AP)—Fire whipped through the top floors of a 75-year-old brick apartment house in the heart of snow-covered Montreal last night, killing 11 persons and injuring a dozen others.
As a heavy snow fell, firemen scrambled up ladders to rescue a score of frenzied men and women from wooden balconies and window ledges. Some 200 people lived in the building but many were out.
Two women who jumped from the fourth floor were in a serious condition with fractured spines. Of the 12 persons hospitalized, three were firemen who were and burned.

DULLES DIDN'T SAY ANYTHING FINAL ABOUT QUEMOY, MATSU

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—He didn't say yes and he didn't say no. That sums up Secretary of State Dulles' reply to the important question:
Will the Red Chinese be allowed to have Quemoy and Matsu islands?

For months the Eisenhower administration's position on that question has been vague. It was still vague after Dulles finished talking about it in a New York speech last night.

Since he didn't make it off the cuff but had plenty of time to prepare it his vagueness can be considered deliberate. Why? Either because the administration hasn't made up its mind, doesn't want to tell the Reds or wants elbow room for horse trading.

Possible Interpretation
Dulles words can be interpreted this way:

1. The United States may fight—Dulles didn't say it would—to defend those islands if the Red Chinese try to take them by force.
2. If the Reds play nice, stop talking about invading Formosa and agree to a cease-fire, they may be allowed to have Quemoy and Matsu.

Chiang Kai-shek, American ally, has his main force on Formosa lands, 100 miles across water from the Red Chinese mainland. He has other forces scattered among islands close to the mainland.

The United States is pledged to defend Formosa and the Pesca-dores under a Senate - approved treaty with Chiang. As Dulles said last night, this pledge does not extend to any other Chiang-held islands.

What He Said
Dulles said:

"The United States has no commitment and no purpose to defend the coastal positions as such."
Then, almost wistfully, he wondered whether the Reds "might not renounce their efforts to realize their goals by force." And he added he hoped the Reds' announced decision to take Formosa was "not irrevocable."

But he talked dimly of the idea of letting the Reds have Quemoy and Matsu merely for the asking.
He said, "It is doubtful this would serve either the cause of peace or the cause of freedom." Nothing, in so many words, was final in what he said.

DISTRICT CAGE TOURNEY PLANS ARE OUTLINED

The smallest fields in history in the Class A and C District 3 playoffs is in prospect following a meeting to set up the tourneys Wednesday night.

Class A will have four teams at the most entered but the outlook is for but three teams. The only sure entry is Manheim Twp. of the Lancaster County League. But the champions of both the South and Central Penn Leagues also will play in the tourney, providing the South Penn title-winner is any team other than Mechanicsburg.

Red Lion of the York County League also will play if it finishes first, or second in its conference.
It is likely that the Lions will not finish that high, however, since their first half record was three wins and six losses. They have won four of five this half for a 7-7 record.

Should Red Lion qualify, the York County team will meet Manheim in Harrisburg March 4. The winner of this game, or Manheim if the game is not played, will meet the South Penn champion in Harrisburg March 7. The Central Penn winner will meet the winner of this game for the championship at the Hershey Sports Arena, March 9.

Wildcats In Class B
Mechanicsburg was given a place in the Class B playoffs due to its good record in the South Penn—a league composed otherwise entirely of Class A teams. The Wildcats meet Hamburg of Berks County
March 2.

Other pairings in the first round of Class B will show a York County League team facing Greencastle of Franklin County; Bolling Springs, champion of the Adams County League, facing Camp Hill, West Shore winner, and Newport of the Perry-Juniata against Mahanoy Joint of the Upper Dauphin.

The East Shore winner will play the Hamburg-Mechanicsburg victor March 5; Donegal, Lancaster Section 1 champ will face the Greencastle-York County winner; the Lebanon County champion will play the Bolling Springs-Camp Hill victor, and Kutztown, Berks Central I leader, will go against the team that wins the Newport-Mahanoy Joint game.

Semi-finals in the Class B category will be held March 8 with the finals on March 12. No sites have been set yet.

Class C will have its smallest field since its inception with only nine teams entered.

East Berlin Entered
The first round will consist of one game with East Berlin of the

New Surgeon General Is Well Known In Emmitsburg

Rear Admiral Bartholomew W. Hogan, Chevy Chase, Md., hero in the sinking of the carrier Wasp in 1942, took office Tuesday as the 22nd surgeon general of the U. S. Navy.

Admiral Hogan, married to the former Miss Grace Gloninger, Emmitsburg, and who commanded the Naval Medical Center at Bethesda for two years until July, 1953, was sworn in before Navy Secretary Charles S. Thomas.

Nominated last January 14 by President Eisenhower, his appointment was confirmed by the Senate last week. For his "conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity" after the huge carrier was torpedoed, Admiral Hogan was awarded the Silver Star Medal and later the Navy and Marine Corps Medal. The citations told how he "worked tirelessly, caring for the injured," despite his own "serious wounds."

Born in West Quincy, Mass., he attended Boston College, got his medical degree from Tufts College Medical School, Boston, and entered the Navy as a Lieutenant, junior grade, in 1925. At one time he was professor of psychiatry at Georgetown University School of Medicine.

His most recent post was as deputy chief of the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery, Washington.
Several years ago Dr. Hogan received an honorary degree from Mount St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg. Admiral and Mrs. Hogan have three children, Bartholomew Jr., Thomas and Mary Liddle. The new surgeon general is well-known in Emmitsburg having visited often at his wife's former home, Valley View Farm, near Mount St. Mary's.

Man And 2 Boys Held In Robbery

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Police today held a man and two teenage boys in connection with a robbery in which $5,690 in cash and $4,000 in checks were taken from a used car dealer at his home. The cash and checks were recovered.

Howard C. Franklin, 53, reported that as he turned into the driveway of his home last night he found it blocked by a trash can.
When he stopped the car to remove the obstacle, he said, he was set upon by three robbers who took his car keys, grabbed a brief case containing the money from the locked trunk of his car, and fled in an auto.

Police set up roadblocks, and after a short chase a patrol car caught up with an auto which had collided with two parked cars. The three arrested gave their names
as Larry Blackwell, 31; Eugene
Young, 17; and George Leroy Nash, 18.

Worley Asks Free Licenses For Some

HARRISBURG (AP)—It was up to the House today to determine if an assemblyman should be banned from holding any elective county or city office.

A bill submitted yesterday would declare it illegal for either a representative or a senator to hold county or city elective posts. At present assemblymen are banned from holding the office of councilman in any incorporated city.

The bill was sponsored by Reps.
E. J. Farabaugh (D-Cambria) and Louis Rovaneck (D-Cambria).

Another new bill offered yesterday by Reps. Francis Worley (R-Adams) and Rovaneck would have the Fish Commission issue free life long resident fishing licenses to all applicants 70 years old or over.

TO GET STATE AID

HARRISBURG (AP)—The state Highways Department is ready to pay more than three million dollars to local communities in state aid for road construction.

The department yesterday approved the payments as part of a quarterly payment from the motor license fund. The state aid totals 18 million dollars a year.

Certified for payment was: $1-701,243 to 1,293 second class townships; $144,304 to 59 first class townships; $449,558 to 712 boroughs, $787,708 to 44 cities.

land of Franklin County March 3.
The winner of that game will play at Greenwood Joint March 11 when there will be three other games: Fleetwood, champion of Berks Northern, meets Paradise of Lancaster Section III; Lykens of the Upper Dauphin against Womels-dorf, Berks Western winner, and Hummelstown of the West Shore faces Birdsboro of Berks Central II.

The semi-finals will be March 11 and the finals in Class C March 14. As in the case of Class B, no playoff sites have been set yet.

LEADER FAVORS LOBBY MEASURE BY LEGISLATURE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Legislative leaders agreed today that registration of lobbyists at the State Capitol has merit if legislation is drawn along proper lines.

Gov. George M. Leader, too, is on record as favoring such a move and expects to confer with administration chiefs to discuss any of all proposed lobbying laws.

The governor has a personal stake in the matter—for he too has a lobbyist of sorts.

Leader's younger brother, Henry, a York attorney, serves as the governor's liaison with the Legislature, keeping tabs on administration legislation and on how individual lawmakers are pushing or opposing it.

Duncan McCallum, Leechburg,
secretary to Gov. John S. Pine, served in a similar capacity during the last administration.

"Sensible Legislation"
Rep. Alber S. Readinger, Democratic House leader, said he is for "sensible legislation" regarding lobbyists and noted that lobby registration is part of the Democratic platform, and declared:

"I assure you that every part of that platform will be implemented with legislation."
One bill to require registration by lobbyists—a perennial introduced by Sen. Elmer J. Holland (D-Allegheny)—already is before the General Assembly.

The bill also would require lobbysts to report funds spent and on whom.

Holland has sponsored a similar bill through numerous sessions.
This time he was joined in sponsorship by Sen. William J. Lane (D-Washington).

Purpose of the measure, Holland said, is not to bar lobbyists from the legislative halls but to make lobbying for bills a "recognized and well-conducted vocation."

Police set up roadblocks, and
after a short chase a patrol car
caught up with an auto which had collided with two parked cars. The
three arrested gave their names
as Larry Blackwell, 31; Eugene

SEESK SUPPORT IN PRISON PROBE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Broyhill (R-Va.) said today he is seeking additional support by House members before offering a resolution for investigation of the federal prison system.

Broyhill, who last year offered such a resolution, contends there is "corruption and scandal" in the prison system which should be aired before a congressional committee.

"Recent developments, such as the slaying of William Remington" in the Lewisburg, Pa., penitentiary, "point up the defects in our penal system," he told a reporter.

"I am still studying the proposal, still receiving information, and am seeking the best way to go about" getting approval of such a resolution, he added.

Broyhill said there is a possibility of a similar resolution being offered in the Senate.

"Several members are aware of the conditions and are studying the proposal," he said.

Broyhill's proposal would call for a sweeping investigation of federal prisons, detention homes, reformatories and the parole system.

"He told the House last year his resolution offered then was "motivated by evidence that the soft parole policies of the federal government permit the release of scores hardened criminals to prey upon our citizens."

The prison system, he said, "is rotten to the core" with "corruption, kickbacks, and the destruction of official files to conceal shady practices."

QUARRYVILLE, Pa. (AP)—A father bundled his four small children in the lightweight mattress from a crib and carried them to safety early today through the blazing living room of a southern Lancaster County home.

Avery Hash, 31, carried his year-old twin girls, a 2-year-old daughter and 3-year-old son, shielding them from the flames by using the mattress. He was followed by his wife, and all six members of the family escaped injury.

Hash said he was awakened by smoke about 3 a. m. and found the living room afire as the result of an oil stove explosion. He gathered his family quickly and escaped. The small bungalow-type home is about seven miles south of Lancaster, near the Pennsylvania-Maryland border. Hash is employed as a member of the fire company at Bainbridge (Md.)
Naval Training Station.

ABOUT 100 AGED WOMEN DIE IN FIRE IN JAPAN BEFORE DAWN

By JOHN RANDOLPH
YOKOHAMA, Japan (AP)—About 100 aged women died in flaming agony today when a flash fire roared through a Roman Catholic old ladies' home before dawn.

There were only 46 survivors, police said. Nearly all were burned or injured in jumps from the second floor of their two-story wooden dormitory, declared a fire hazard in 1953. Several were in critical condition.

"I could do nothing," a survivor cried. "I can hear their screams. Help! . . . Help! . . . Help! . . . Help!"

Mostly Old Women
The inmates were mainly pitiful old Japanese women without families. Their ages ranged from 60 to 96.

It was Japan's worst building fire since the Pacific war air raids. Sister Umeko Sugiyama, 42, a nun, died when she dashed back into the burning building to carry out another of her charges.

The home, a converted Japanese army barracks, was part of the convent of the Garden of Our Lady, belonging to the Franciscan Missionaries of Mary, an international Catholic order.

Blame Wiring
Yokohama police said the blaze apparently started with defective wiring at 4:30 a.m. Heat and sparks ignited a two-story chapel and two other buildings. They too burned to the ground.

The main convent housing 101 nuns and novices, mainly Japanese, was spared.

In the Yokohama National Hospital, the suffering survivors mingled Christian "Our Lady" and "Amen's" with chants of "Namu amida butsu" — the Buddhist prayer of mercy for the dying.

Chihō Hamada, 86, told how the oldest resident, 96-year-old Mrs. Machi Okuni, died.

"I Am Old Enough"
"We were awakened—only to see flames and smoke all around. 'Okuni-san looked about her and said, 'I am old enough to die.' 'Then she held up her bed quilt to keep the flames back and let the others escape.'"

EXPECT SENATE TO FOLLOW SUIT ON PAY BOOST

WASHINGTON (AP)—Leaders predicted today the Senate will follow the House lead in voting a substantial pay boost for members of Congress and federal judges.

The House voted 283-118 yesterday to give the 96 senators and 435 representatives a $10,000 annual boost to $25,000. Comparable raises are included for the vice-president, the House speaker, all federal judges and U.S. attorneys.

Sen. Clements (D-Ky.) acting majority leader, said the Senate probably will take up its version of the pay raise next week.

Heavy Majority
The bill approved by a heavy majority in the Senate Judiciary Committee would give members of Congress a $7,500 increase to $22,500.

Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn.), who headed a subcommittee which conducted hearings on the question, told a reporter today he believes the Senate will pass its bill "by a substantial margin."

He said "at the moment" his plan is to stick to the Senate bill, "then work out our differences in conference."

Mail Is Against It
Sen. George (D-Ga.), dean of the Senate and its president pro tem, and Sen. Bridges (R-NH), senior Republican member, support the raise to $22,500.

However, one senator who has backed a pay boost said in an interview today his mail is running heavily against it and that, while visiting in his state last week, he found people "bitter" about it. This senator, asking not to be named, indicated he may vote "no."

The pay bill sailed through the House with relatively light opposition.

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Indians said today that infielder Stan Pawloski had signed a contract for the 1955 season. Terms were not made public.

Pawloski batted .280 in 55 games with Indianapolis last year after being discharged from the Army. His home is Waukegan, Pa.

The number of households in the United States increased 23 per cent from 1940 to 1950.

Though the story of Thomas Edison has been told and retold many times and in many ways, the scenes where he fashioned his long line of inventions are becoming steadily more popular today as travel attractions on the American scene.

One of the lesser known of these, but rising steadily in interest and attendance, is the Edison Museum at West Orange, New Jersey, including the laboratory, library and machine shop where the great inventor spent the major portion of his time.

Of the other settings, Greenfield Village, at Dearborn, Michigan, probably is the best known and most visited. There Edison's friend and admirer, Henry Ford, has restored the Menlo Park laboratory and the railroad station where Edison worked as a lad.

In another section of the country, at Fort Myers, Florida, Edison's winter home, gardens and laboratory are now open. Besides the shop and laboratory, the 14 acres of garden reflect another side of Edison — his interest in rare trees, ferns and flowers from all parts of the world.

"Cradle Of Industry"
Elsewhere, elements of Edison are on display at leading industrial collections, such as the Eastman Museum at Rochester, New York.

But it remains for the group of buildings at West Orange, where

Edison set up shop in 1887, to be known as the "cradle of American industry." In every corner it recounts the engrossing story of Edison's engineering achievements.

In the original chemical laboratory, for example, nothing has been changed since Edison's death in 1931. Half-filled chemical bottles, experiments in the making, the littered work desk and his acid stained lab coat on the hanger make his presence strongly felt. Even in his eighties, he sometimes worked here sixteen and eighteen hours a day. When sleep became imperative, he would retire to an old cot in the library rather than go the few blocks to his home.

The challenge and romance of invention are manifest at the Museum. Having brought the incandescent light into being, Edison found this was not quite enough and proceeded to devise a practical system for distributing electricity and illumination to cities.

"Writing In Daylight"
On display is a model of the first central station, opened in downtown New York in 1882. Reports of that hour showed that its light was "more brilliant than gas and a hundred times steadier." In the offices of the New York Times, where men had "battered their eyes sufficiently by years of night work," it seemed "almost like writing in daylight."

Another interesting item on display is the original phonograph which employed a tinfoil cylinder and a blunt, polished steel needle. Into this Edison recited "Mary had a little lamb" — the first time sound was ever reproduced. Other inventions shown include the stock ticker; an incandescent lamp operating on the "Edison effect" principle, which is the basis of electronics, and several of his improvements on the telegraph, telephone and typewriter.

Edison also was responsible for the "kinetograph," the first camera with a continuing tape-like film, which made it possible to take and reproduce motion pictures. In fact, the first movie studio, called the "Black Maria," was set up here. It was reconstructed last year, complete with rotating spindle to capture the light of the sun through an opening in the roof. Early Edison films are now shown in the studio as part of the guided tour.

Operated By Foundation
The Museum is maintained and operated by the Thomas Edison Foundation, whose trustees include distinguished inventors, engineers and industrialists, who knew and worked with the great inventor. The president of the Foundation is Charles F. Kettering, while the executive director is Vice Admiral Harold G. Bowen, retired, who formerly headed the Navy's Bureau of Engineering and the Naval Research Laboratory.

The Museum is open Wednesday through Sunday from 9:30 to 11:30 and 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. Admission is 50 cents per person, with children under 12 admitted free.

Truman, Acheson Are Still In Accord

KANSAS CITY (AP)—After being out of office more than two years, Harry S. Truman and his former secretary of state Dean Acheson are still in agreement.

Acheson, visiting the Trumans this week, appeared at a press conference with the former President yesterday. Truman, who is 70, was asked about his future plans. He replied with a quip he's used before:

"I shall run for president the year I'm 90."

Said Acheson: "If Mr. Truman is elected at 90, I shall be happy to serve with him."

Both feel Adlai Stevenson is the best choice for the 1956 Democratic presidential candidate.

'FRISCO BID AS GOP MEETING PLACE WINS

By D. HAROLD OLIVER
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Republican National Committee gathered today to act on a subcommittee recommendation that he parry hold its 1956 nominating convention in San Francisco the week starting Aug. 20.

Approval was predicted by National Chairman Leonard W. Hall, who announced the site subcommittee's unanimous decision yesterday.

San Francisco won out in an 11th-hour bid over Chicago and Philadelphia. The Democrats have picked Chicago for their 1956 convention starting either July 23 or Aug. 13.

He To Talk
President Eisenhower arranged to deliver an off-the-record talk at a closed luncheon meeting of the GOP committee.

Hall, in a speech prepared for the session, heaped praise on Eisenhower as "the greatest leader of our times" and appealed to his fellow committeemen:

Hall, who says he assumes Eisenhower will run for a second term, also hit at dissenters within the party who, he said, "haven't caught up with the facts of life."

Late Entry
Without naming them, he said, "These little groups don't trouble me—they have always been with us. Every nation and every political party has had them."

Up until last week San Francisco had not been considered in the GOP convention picture. Only Chicago and Philadelphia had made formal bids of $250,000 each weeks ago and these were repeated yesterday.

Hall credited Mayor Elmer Robinson with spearheading the drive for selection of San Francisco. The city sent a representative here yesterday offering to match the $250,000 bids of the other cities and promising the GOP rent-free use of the city's Cow Palace, a huge structure built for cattle shows and other exhibitions and having a seating capacity of close to 17,000.

Cool weather and an option on 10,000 hotel rooms also were held out as inducements.

No Restitution In Theft Of $189.13

BALTIMORE (AP)—After Mrs. Augustine Bright pleaded guilty Tuesday to the theft of $189.13 from her employer, Judge Joseph R. Byrnes gave her a 30-day suspended sentence, placed her on probation and said there should be no restitution.

"If it weren't for my oath of office, I would find this woman not guilty," Byrnes said. "Any time a man works a woman like that for $20 a week."

The 32-year-old Negro mother of one child admitted she took the money from her employer in small amounts over a six-week period. It was testified she earned $20.53 for working a 54-hour week in a laundry and dry cleaning store. Her husband is in the Navy.

property, such as a residence, as well as on business property.

In the case of nonbusiness property, the amount of the loss is not the cost of replacement or restoration, but is the difference between the value of the property immediately before the storm and its value immediately afterwards not to exceed the cost or other basis of the property destroyed. Such losses must be reduced by the amount of insurance or other compensation received on account of the damage.

Losses on account of destruction of nonbusiness property are deductible only if the taxpayer itemizes his deductions. They cannot be deducted if the taxpayer uses the optional standard deduction.

PINEAU FORMS NEW CABINET FOR FRENCH

By HARVEY HUDSON

PARIS (AP)—Christian Pineau, seeking approval as France's first Socialist premier in seven years, today finished piecing together a cabinet he hopes will satisfy the balky National Assembly.

Pineau plans to go before the deputies for approval tomorrow, but the most favorable estimates gave him less than 330 supporting votes in the 627-member chamber. With likely abstentions, that should assure his confirmation but would promise a shaky government with a brief life expectancy.

Pineau was called in by President Rene Coty Monday to try to form France's 21st postliberation cabinet—a task in which both Antoine Pinay, conservative independent, and Pierre Pflimlin of the Catholic Popular Republican Movement (MRP), had failed.

First In Years
If Pineau wins assembly approval, he will be the first Socialist premier since Paul Ramadier's government resigned in November 1947. Since the 1951 elections, the Socialists have even refused to serve in any cabinet because of their adamant stand for a program completely in line with party principles. However, they voted solidly for Pierre Mendes-France, whose defeat on a vote of confidence Feb. 5 launched the present government crisis.

As unofficially reported, Pineau's Cabinet lists 4 Socialists, 4 members of the MRP, 4 Radical Socialists, 2 members of the Union of Democratic and Socialist Resistance and 3 from the Gaullist Republican Union for Social Action.

Also Foreign Minister
Reportedly Pineau will also be foreign minister and will have two deputy premiers, former Foreign Minister Robert Schuman of the MRP and Yvon Delbos of the Radical Socialists.

The biggest groups in such a coalition are the Socialists, with 104 deputies, the MRP with 84, the Gaullists with 78 and the Radical Socialists with 69. Pineau, however, likely may not have the support of all those members.

WOULD BUILD CASTLE REPLICA

HARRISBURG (AP)—A replica of historic Ole Bull Castle, site of a Norwegian settlement of a century ago, would be built in Potter County under a bill before the Senate today.

The measure, introduced Tuesday by Sen. James S. Berger (R-Potter), would appropriate $20,000 for construction of the replica by the Department of Forests and Waters.

Other Senate bills introduced Tuesday would:

Set up a court martial board of three commissioned officers to hear cases of enlisted men ordered dismissed or refused reenlistment in the Pennsylvania state police—Eustace H. Bane (D-Fayette).

Give orphans courts exclusive jurisdiction in all proceedings affecting birth records—Martin Silver (D-Philadelphia).

NAVY DEPOT TO HAVE OPEN HOUSE

As a part of the world-wide celebration in honor of the 160th anniversary of the Supply Corps, the business corps of the United States Navy, the four naval activities at the Mechanicsburg naval supply depot will hold an open house from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, February 19.

The four activities which will act as general host to the public are: the Naval Supply Depot, the Ships Parts Control Center, the Ordnance Supply Office, and the Naval Records Management Center.

Visitors will see one of the finest displays ever presented to the public at an open house, according to Rear Admiral S. R. Edson, commanding officer of the depot. The major displays will be concentrated in one of the large warehouse buildings and will include demonstrations on all of the many facets of essential supply operations performed by the Mechanicsburg activities in supporting the United States Fleet.

A demonstration of special interest to local business men will highlight the various stages of processing priority requests for material in the Mechanicsburg warehouses to naval users throughout the world. Audience participation displays will be available for visitors to try their skill in flying a Link trainer, used for training naval aviators, to test their voices on naval tape recorders, and to use a Geiger counter.

Problem Of 15 Fliers Revived

WASHINGTON (AP)—The problem of 15 American fliers held by Red China and 35 Chinese students detained in America is still alive, although obscured by concern over Formosa.

Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) brought the matter of the imprisoned Americans to the fore again Tuesday when he told the Senate "the conscience of the United Nations should be deeply troubled" by its failure to get them freed from Red prisons.

Shortly afterward, Secretary of State Dulles—without mentioning Knowland—came to the defense of the U. N. He told a meeting of the United Nations Committee for the International Organization "is an almost essential buffer" between hostile nations.

AIRMAN GRINS AFTER ORDEAL

WINNIPEG, Man. (AP)—Flashing a big grin, Tommy Pittman, who survived three bitterly cold nights and two days in the wilderness without food greeted newsmen:

"I'm mighty glad to be here."

The 34-year-old U.S. Air Force captain could still laugh and smile although his right leg was broken and frostbitten and his head injured.

Last night Capt. Pittman was flown to Winnipeg, five hours after he was plucked from the northern Saskatchewan wilderness on which he dropped after a B-47 Stratojet bomber exploded at a height of 35,000 feet 110 miles west of the Pas, Man., last Saturday.

Pittman of Fabens, Tex., was taken to the Deer Lodge military hospital.

Pittman, a Stratojet captain himself, based at Riverside, Calif., was flying with Lt. Col. Kenneth G. McGrew, 3, and Capt. Lester E. Epton, 3, and Maj. Robert Dowdy, 31.

McGrew and Epton also survived the crash—McGrew was rescued a few hours after the crash, Epton Sunday morning. Dowdy's body was found in the wreckage of the plane.

TECHNIQUES CAN REPLACE PRACTICES IN MODERN LIFE

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Business practices now considered advanced would become obsolete overnight if Americans put to use the techniques scientists already know or can develop.

A leading scientist, Dr. Vannevar Bush, president of the Carnegie Institution of Washington, says so. And he thinks this should be done right away for record keeping before the present "vast and ever-increasing store of information" gets too big to be used efficiently.

Take the telephone. Dr. Bush thinks businessmen will use it more and more. But the telephone is often a nuisance, breaking in on other work. Outlining his views to members of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers meeting here, Dr. Bush suggests they perfect a way "by which conversations could be carried on when both participants, rather than just one, want to talk and find it convenient to do so."

Postal System Archaic
As for the stenographer on whom most businessmen rely, the scientists say, "We could make a machine that would type when we talked into it."

Dr. Bush finds the postal system, with multiple handling of a letter between sender and recipient, "utterly archaic." He says, "It is quite possible to read addresses photoelectrically, if they are in proper code, and to render all sorting automatic."

But Dr. Bush thinks the most pressing need now is to work out from under the mass of paper that is piling up every day.

Techniques Are At Hand
The work of thousands of able men is constantly being recorded, he says, but an increasing part of that work is lost, for all essential purposes, "because we do not know how to find a pertinent item of information after it has become embedded in the mass."

Techniques for remedying this are already at hand, he says. Fifty companies are active in the production of one kind or another of data-handling equipment.

Photographic methods can be used to cram the material of a thousand books into the space of a cigarette package. Computing devices can manipulate records in the form of numbers at the rate of millions of operations a second.

Scientific literature, a legal document or business records could be thus coded and placed under the control of machinery.

Warns Of Deadline To Enter Contest

The last day to enter the "Mrs. America" contest is March 1, Julian N. Estep, manager of the Manufacturers Light and Heat Co., reminded Adams County women today. The gas company, and gas appliance dealers are conducting the contest, and application blanks may be obtained at any of their offices.

Mr. Estep stated: "Great speculation is arising as to whether some married woman in Adams County is going to win the $15,000 in prizes and all that goes with it. 'Mrs. America' will be selected principally for abilities as a homemaker and meal planner, as well as for personal appearance. This contest is not a bathing beauty show."

All married women of 21 years or over are eligible.

PP AND L ASKS RATE CHANGES

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania Power & Light Co., of Allentown, will initiate a new rate schedule Feb. 28 designed to lower rates to many industrial and commercial users and boost charges to others.

The Public Utility Commission yesterday authorized the firm to drop its fuel adjustment clause to make the changes possible. The clause is a formula used by PP&L to vary rates for large quantity customers in line with coal and power generation costs.

Under the revision, rates of 2,649 industrial and commercial consum-

When Zhukov Decorated Eisenhower

Marshal Georgi Zhukov, appointed Wednesday as Soviet minister of defense, is shown presenting the Order of Victory to President Eisenhower, then Supreme Allied Commander in Europe, during ceremony at Frankfurt, Germany, in June, 1945. At his news conference in Washington Wednesday, Ike recalled pleasant relations with Zhukov during World War II. When asked if he would renew a 1945 invitation to Zhukov to visit the United States, Ike said he would have to consult his aides about that.

ers will decrease $275,523 yearly and increase $1,393 annually for 217 other consumers.

Residence Unaffected
The changes do not affect residential customers.

"Obviously it would not be to the interest of the public or to the consumer served by this utility to suspend a tariff providing for decreases in rates," the PUC told PP&L and 11 plants protesting the change.

The 11 plants, located in Berks and Lancaster counties, in effect contended that the decrease was too small.

Commissioner John B. Conly, Pittsburgh, voted against the PUC action and said he favored elimination of the fuel clause "but by positive rather than negative action as in this case."

GOING TO FRANCE

NEW YORK (AP)—Helen Hayes and Mary Martin will go to Paris this spring to star in "The Skin of Our Teeth," one of the offerings in the Salute to France program sponsored by the American National Theater and Academy.

The two stars agreed to make the trip after conferring last night with Robert Whitehead, producer of the Thornton Wilder play.

HARRISBURG (AP)—A new House resolution suggests that the Legislature recommended extension of Daylight Saving Time an additional month this summer.

Five Democratic women representatives, citing the "great convenience" of observing Daylight Saving Time, asked the House yesterday to recommend its extension to every municipality which customarily observes it during the summer.

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Eight-year-old Edward Otis went to a dentist yesterday for his second extraction. Edward didn't like the first one, so just before he was called to the chair, he asked to be allowed to wash his hands.

He didn't return. A missing persons report eventually was filed. Police and his mother Mrs. Elzie Otis feared he had been kidnapped. Several hours later, however, the boy arrived home, the pain from the bad tooth aggravated by sore feet. He had walked six miles.

Urges Poultrymen To Guard Against Egg Production Slump

Adams County Farm Agent

During the winter season, poultrymen constantly must be on guard against slumps in egg production. There always is a direct relationship between the amount of feed consumed, and the number of eggs laid. A drop in the amount of feed consumed is followed by a drop in egg production in just a few days.

It's a mighty good idea to check body weight occasionally, either by weighing marked birds in the flock, or by feeling the breasts of a number of birds in each pen, after they have gone to roost. Birds losing weight will generally slow up in their egg production. So if you do notice a drop in weight, your best bet is to try to increase feed consumption by any means you can muster.

Anything that affects the birds' regular routine of feeding will upset egg production. Try to keep away from sudden and drastic changes in management... such as a lack of a constant supply of drinking water... irregular use of artificial lighting, or irregular feeding.

You can't prevent cold snaps from occurring... but you can do something about them; to prevent a slump in egg production. Feed wet mash or pellets as a bonus during cold spells... anything to keep that feed intake where it belongs. That extra pound of feed is what makes those extra eggs.

More Cattle On Feed

The number of cattle and calves on feed in the United States at the first of this year was eight per cent larger than a year ago. The number on feed in the North Central States was up four per cent above a year ago, as well. And in the thirteen western states, cattle and calves on feed were up twenty-two per cent.

The Crop Reporting Service estimates that near-record numbers of cattle and calves were on feed the first of this year in the corn belt. That's up about four per cent above last year. The number one feeding state, Iowa, showed a six per cent increase, with Nebraska, the second biggest feeding state, up two per cent. Illinois was up five per cent.

In fact, all North Central states had the same or more cattle on feed than a year ago. The one exception was North Dakota, down eight per cent.

California and Colorado, the important feeding states in the west, were up thirty-three and twelve per cent. And all other areas of the west made increases from seven to sixty-nine per cent... except Wyoming and Texas that were down just a little.

WEATHERMAN PLEASES SOME BUSINESS FOLK

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—The weatherman—who gets blamed for almost everything—is getting some friendly pats today from industries that fared less profitably in other years when the winters were more on the sissy side.

It's been a good winter for the makers and sellers of heavy overcoats, rubbers and galoshes, and for distributors of coal, fuel oil and natural gas.

On the other hand, merchants in many cities blame the weatherman for store sales dropping below the year ago figure. New York department stores report sales off 3 per cent last week because the weather kept people home. But San Francisco, with better days, had a sales increase of 6 per cent above the year-ago figures.

Chain Stores Gain

Chain stores and mail order houses report big gains in sales last month as merchandise associated with cold weather moved freely. The average gain: 9 per cent. For the mail order houses, the increase averaged 15 per cent above a year ago. Maybe folk stayed home because of the bad weather and shopped through the postman.

Fuel peddlers have had some sorry winters in recent years and talked gloomily of climatic changes and the disappearance of the old-fashioned "real" winter. But this year the American Petroleum Institute reports that cold weather has reduced the big stocks of fuel oils, to the industry's joy.

Employment in general has dropped in areas where winter halted outdoor work.

Milk Off, Eggs Up

Milk production is running slightly behind a year ago, because in many regions the cows haven't been getting out to pasture as they did in the sissy winters.

Egg prices have gone up, and one reason given is that cold weather has discouraged the birds and also has kept some farmers from coming to town with the eggs the hens did lay.

Cold waves have dipped lower into the South this year. Freezing weather has cut output of some winter vegetables and threatens to slice some Southern fruit crops. You'll be paying higher prices for some foods.

Werner said he would retire as postmaster at end of this month to run for the city job. Harrisburg's mayor gets $7,000 annually. The postal job pays $9,870.

DOUBLE-DUTY TOGS FOR TEENS

Double-duty outfits are tops in

a teen wardrobe — and if separates can be planned for triple duty that's even better. Newest idea in the mix-or-match brigade is a shirt dress color-matched to a flaring felt skirt to make three outfits — dress alone, skirt over dress, or skirt with a different top. One of the easiest and quickest sewing projects for an amateur seamstress is the straight shirt dress, with no waistline seam or difficult fitting problems. An effective outfit may be made of bold striped Indianhead cotton in tones of black, orange and white, for a simple shirt dress made by a standard pattern. Teamed with the dress is a flaring felt skirt in bright orange to pick up the color of the stripe. Local sewing center experts remind you that felt needs no hemming, and that a felt skirt is easy enough to give even the most timid beginner a dose of confidence. The pattern contains only two major pieces plus a waistband. Some girls like to make the outfit in their school colors, or the colors of their best beau's school. Ever try adding mince meat and brandy or rum flavoring to vanilla fudge? Delicious and different!

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Business practices now considered advanced would become obsolete overnight if Americans put to use the techniques scientists already know or can develop.

A leading scientist, Dr. Vannevar Bush, president of the Carnegie Institution of Washington, says so. And he thinks this should be done right away for record keeping before the present "vast and ever-increasing store of information" gets too big to be used efficiently.

Take the telephone. Dr. Bush thinks businessmen will use it more and more. But the telephone is often a nuisance, breaking in on other work. Outlining his views to members of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers meeting here, Dr. Bush suggests they perfect a way "by which conversations could be carried on when both participants, rather than just one, want to talk and find it convenient to do so."

Postal System Archaisms
As for the stenographer on whom most businessmen rely, the scientist says, "We could make a machine that would type when we talked into it."

Dr. Bush finds the postal system, with multiple handling of a letter between sender and recipient, "utterly archaic." He says, "It is quite possible to read addresses photoelectrically, if they are in proper code, and to render all sorting automatic."

But Dr. Bush thinks the most pressing need now is to work out from under the mass of paper that is piling up every day.

Techniques Are At Hand
The work of thousands of able men is constantly being recorded, he says; but an increasing part of that work is lost, for all essential purposes, "because we do not know how to find a pertinent item of information after it has become embedded in the mass."

Techniques for remedying this are already at hand, he says. Fifty companies are active in the production of one kind or another of data-handling equipment.

Photographic methods can be used to cram the material of a thousand books into the space of a cigarette package. Computing devices can manipulate records in the form of numbers at the rate of millions of operations a second.

Scientific literature, a legal document or business records could be thus coded and placed under the control of machinery.

Warns Of Deadline To Enter Contest

The last day to enter the "Mrs. America" contest is March 1, Julian N. Estep, manager of the Manufacturers Light and Heat Co., reminded Adams County women today. The gas company, and gas appliance dealers are conducting the contest, and application blanks may be obtained at any of their offices.

Mr. Estep stated: "Great speculation is arising as to whether some married woman in Adams County is going to win the $15,000 in prizes and all that goes with it. 'Mrs. America' will be selected principally for abilities as a homemaker and meal planner, as well as for personal appearance. This contest is not a bathing beauty show."

All married women of 21 years or over are eligible.

PP AND L ASKS RATE CHANGES

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania Power & Light Co., of Allentown, will initiate a new rate schedule Feb. 28 designed to lower rates to many industrial and commercial users and boost charges to others.

The Public Utility Commission yesterday authorized the firm to drop its fuel adjustment clause to make the changes possible. The clause is a formula used by PP&L to vary rates for large quantity customers in line with coal and power generation costs.

Under the revision, rates of 2,649 industrial and commercial consum-

When Zhukov Decorated Eisenhower

Marshal Georgi Zhukov, appointed Wednesday as Soviet minister of defense, is shown presenting the Order of Victory to President Eisenhower, then Supreme Allied Commander in Europe, during ceremony at Frankfurt, Germany, in June, 1945. At his news conference in Washington Wednesday, Ike recalled pleasant relations with Zhukov during World War II. When asked if he would renew a 1945 invitation to Zhukov to visit the United States, Ike said he would have to consult his aides about that.

ers will decrease $275,523 yearly and increase $1,393 annually for 217 other consumers.

Residence Unaffected
The changes do not affect residential customers.

"Obviously it would not be to the interest of the public or to the consumer served by this utility to suspend a tariff providing for decreases in rates," the PUC told PP&L and 11 plants protesting the change.

The 11 plants, located in Berks and Lancaster counties, in effect contended that the decrease was too small.

Commissioner John B. Conly, Pittsburgh, voted against the PUC action and said he favored elimination of the fuel clause, "but by positive rather than negative action as in this case."

DEATHS

GOING TO FRANCE

NEW YORK (AP)—Helen Hayes and Mary Martin will go to Paris this spring to star in "The Skin of Our Teeth," one of the offerings in the Salute to France program sponsored by the American National Theater and Academy.

The two stars agreed to make the trip after conferring last night with Robert Whitehead, producer of the Thornton Wilder play.

HARRISBURG (AP)—A new House resolution suggests that the Legislature recommend extension of Daylight Saving Time an additional month this summer.

Five Democratic women representatives, citing the "great convenience" of observing Daylight Saving Time, asked the House yesterday to recommend its extension to every municipality which customarily observes it during the summer.

Cohen Dismisses Seven Employees

HARRISBURG (AP)—Atty. Gen. Herbert B. Cohen yesterday dismissed seven Justice Department employees including Deputy Atty. Gen. Benjamin Abramson, Philadelphia.

Given dismissal notices in addition to Abramson, who received $7,590 yearly, were:

Joseph F. Saporito, Pittston, special deputy attorney general, $5,058; John E. Stevenson, Philadelphia, special deputy attorney general, $6,990; Joseph Marzocco, Carbondale attorney, $5,058; Frank L. Shallow, Philadelphia, special deputy attorney general, $4,524; Carl B. Boy Flees Dentist Office; Goes Home

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Eight-year-old Edward Otis went to a dentist yesterday for his second extraction. Edward didn't like the first one, so just before he was called to the chair, he asked to be allowed to wash his hands.

He didn't return. A missing persons report eventually was filed. Police and his mother Mrs. Elzie Otis feared he had been kidnapped. Several hours later, however, the boy arrived home, the pain from the bad tooth aggravated by sore feet. He had walked six miles.

ABOUT 100 AGED WOMEN DIE IN FIRE IN JAPAN BEFORE DAWN

By JOHN RANDOLPH

YOKOHAMA, Japan (U)—About 100 aged women died in flaming agony today when a flash fire roared through a Roman Catholic old ladies' home before dawn.

There were only 46 survivors, police said. Nearly all were burned or injured in jumps from the second floor of their two-story wooden dormitory, declared a fire hazard in 1953. Several were in critical condition.

"I could do nothing," a survivor cried. "I can hear their screams. Help! Help! Help! Help!"

Mostly Old Women
The inmates were mainly pitiful old Japanese women without families. Their ages ranged from 60 to 96.

It was Japan's worst building fire since the Pacific war air raids. Sister Umeko Sugiyama, 42, a nun, died when she dashed back into the burning building to carry out another of her charges.

The home, a converted Japanese army barracks, was part of the convent of the Garden of Our Lady, belonging to the Franciscan Missionaries of Mary, an international Catholic order.

Blame Wiring
Yokohama police said the blaze apparently started with defective wiring at 4:30 a.m. Heat and sparks ignited a two-story chapel and two other buildings. They too burned to the ground.

The main convent housing 101 nuns and novices, mainly Japanese, was spared.

In the Yokohama National Hospital, the suffering survivors mingled Christian "Our Lady" and "Amen" with chants of "Namu amida butsu" — the Buddhist prayer of mercy for the dying.

Chihito Hamada, 86, told how the oldest resident, 96-year-old Mrs. Machi Okuni, died.

"I Am Old Enough"

"We were awakened—only to see flames and smoke all around. 'Okuni-san looked about her and said, 'I am old enough to die.'"

"Then she held up her bed quilt to keep the flames back and let the others escape."

EXPECT SENATE TO FOLLOW SUIT ON PAY BOOST

WASHINGTON (U)—Leaders predicted today the Senate will follow the House lead in voting a substantial pay boost for members of Congress and federal judges.

The House voted 283-118 yesterday to give the 96 senators and 435 representatives a $10,000 annual boost to $36,000. Comparable raises are included for the vice-president, the House speaker, all federal judges and U.S. attorneys.

Sen. Clements (D-Ky.) acting majority leader, said the Senate probably will take up its version of the pay raise next week.

Heavy Majority
The bill approved by a heavy majority in the Senate Judiciary Committee would give members of Congress a $7,500 increase to $22,500.

Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn.), who headed a subcommittee which conducted hearings on the question, told a reporter today he believes the Senate will pass its bill "by a substantial margin."

He said "at the moment" his plan is to stick to the Senate bill, "then work out our differences in conference."

Mail Is Against It
Sen. George (D-Ga.), dean of the Senate and its president pro tem, and Sen. Bridges (R-NH), senior Republican member, support the raise to $22,500.

However, one senator who has backed a pay boost said in an interview today his mail is running heavily against it and that, while visiting in his state last week, he found people "bitter" about it. This senator, asking not to be named, indicated he may vote "no."

The pay bill sailed through the House with relatively light opposition.

Though the story of Thomas Edison has been told and retold many times and in many ways, the scenes where he fashioned his long line of inventions are becoming steadily more popular today as travel attractions on the American scene.

One of the lesser known of these, but rising steadily in interest and attendance, is the Edison Museum at West Orange, New Jersey, including the laboratory, library and machine shop where the great inventor spent the major portion of his time.

Of the other settings, Greenfield Village, at Dearborn, Michigan, probably is the best known and most visited. There Edison's friend and admirer, Henry Ford, has restored the Menlo Park laboratory and the railroad station where Edison worked as a lad.

In another section of the country, at Fort Myers, Florida, Edison's winter home, gardens and laboratory are now open. Besides the shop and laboratory, the 14 acres of garden reflect another side of Edison — his interest in rare trees, ferns and flowers from all parts of the world.

"Cradle Of Industry"
Elsewhere, elements of Edison are on display at leading industrial collections, such as the Eastman Museum at Rochester, New York.

But it remains for the group of buildings at West Orange, where

Edison set up shop in 1887, to be known as the "cradle of American industry." In every corner it recounts the engrossing story of Edison's engineering achievements.

In the original chemical laboratory, for example, nothing has been changed since Edison's death in 1931. Half-filled chemical bottles, experiments in the making, the littered work desk and his acid stained lab coat on the hanger make his presence strongly felt. Even in his eighties, he sometimes worked here sixteen and eighteen hours a day. When sleep became imperative, he would retire to an old cot in the library rather than go the few blocks to his home.

The challenge and romance of invention are manifest at the Museum. Having brought the incandescent light into being, Edison found this was not quite enough and proceeded to devise a practical system for distributing electricity and illumination to cities.

"Writing In Daylight"
On display is a model of the first central station, opened in downtown New York in 1882. Reports of that hour showed that its light was "more brilliant than gas and a hundred times steadier." In the offices of the New York Times, where men had "battered" their eyes sufficiently by years of night work, it seemed "almost like writing in daylight."

Another interesting item on display is the original phonograph which employed a tin foil cylinder and a blunt, polished steel needle. Into this Edison recited "Mary had a little lamb" — the first time sound was ever reproduced. Other inventions shown include the stock ticker; an incandescent lamp operating on the "Edison effect" principle, which is the basis of electronics, and several of his improvements on the telegraph, telephone and typewriter.

The Museum of Modern Art in New York City now earns two-thirds of its annual income of almost $1 1/2 million dollars.

Edison also was responsible for the "kinescope," the first camera with a continuing tape-like film, which made it possible to take and reproduce motion pictures. In fact, the first movie studio, called "Black Maria," was set up here. It was reconstructed last year, complete with rotating spindle to capture the light of the sun through an opening in the roof. Early Edison films are now shown in the studio as part of the guided tour.

Operated By Foundation
The Museum is maintained and operated by the Thomas Edison Foundation, whose trustees include distinguished inventors, engineers and industrialists, who knew and worked with the great inventor. The president of the Foundation is Charles P. Kettering, while the executive director is Vice Admiral Harold G. Bowen, retired, who formerly headed the Navy's Bureau of Engineering and the Naval Research Laboratory.

The Museum is open Wednesday through Sunday from 9:30 to 11:30 and 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. Admission is 50 cents per person, with children under 12 admitted free.

The Museum of Modern Art in New York City now earns two-thirds of its annual income of almost $1 1/2 million dollars.

Truman, Acheson Are Still In Accord

KANSAS CITY (U)—After being out of office more than two years, Harry S. Truman and his former secretary of state Dean Acheson are still in agreement.

Acheson, visiting the Trumans this week, appeared at a press conference with the former President yesterday. Truman, who is 70, was asked about his future plans. He replied with a quip he's used before:

"I shall run for president the year I'm 90."

Said Acheson: "If Mr. Truman is elected at 90, I shall be happy to

RAISE PHONE BOOTH RATE

HARRISBURG (U)—The Buffalo Valley Telephone Co. of Lewisburg today has Public Utility Commission authorization to double its five-cent public toll booth charge on Feb. 28.

The company serves 5,700 customers in Northumberland and Union counties. The PUC said the increase would bring the company's charge into line of other telephone companies in Pennsylvania.

The utility estimated the increase will produce an extra $583 a year.

SHAPIRO ORDER CALLED DRASTIC BY FRED MAUE

SHAMOKIN, Pa. (AP) — The president of the Board of Trustees at Laurelton State Village described an ordered removal of 40 women from an institution cottage as a "drastic" move capable of causing "great disturbance and chaos."

Fred W. Maue said yesterday "This is drastic action and I hate to contemplate the disturbance and chaos which might result from this action."

Welfare Secretary Harry Shapiro ordered removal of 40 mentally defective women from the building Tuesday in another step in his campaign to clean up what he called "miserable conditions" in some institutions under his department's jurisdiction.

Like "Dark Ages"

Shapiro described the building as "reminiscent of the dark ages." "It must be remembered," Maue said in a statement, "that there are some 1,100 girls at this institution and that the secure cottage was built to isolate some 40 of them who became violently disturbed at certain periods."

He said that the women were put in the special cottage at the Union County institution "so that no harm will come to themselves or other girls."

Earlier, Dr. Effie Ireland, superintendent of Laurelton, protested Shapiro's order for removal of the women from the cottage.

Doesn't Want Controversy

"I have no desire to get into a public controversy with Mr. Shapiro over conditions at Laurelton State Village with respect to the charges he released," Maue declared, adding:

"The same charges were made to the Board of Trustees by Mr. Shapiro in person on Feb. 10. A that time he refused to give Dr. Ireland and Dr. Catherine Edgette, assistant superintendent, an opportunity to defend themselves but turned the matter over to the board for immediate investigation and correction."

Meanwhile, two officials of a five-man team continued a personal investigation today of the institution. Dr. Hilding A. Bengt, commissioner of mental health, said the group will report its findings to Shapiro.

SEEKS AMENDED UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFIT LAW

HARRISBURG (AP) — The state secretary of labor and industry today sought prompt action on legislative amendments to the commonwealth's unemployment compensation laws designed to prevent a decrease in benefits and an increase in taxes.

Secretary John R. Torquato in a letter to Sen. Rowland B. Mahany, Senate GOP leader, said yesterday his department is placed in a "critical" situation by the pending legislation in determining the rate schedule for employer taxes to the fund.

The House has approved an amendment to the unemployment compensation law that would increase maximum weekly payments, eliminate the so-called peril point and boost employer contributions. The bill is now before a Senate committee.

Feb. 28 Deadline

Torquato said his department has set Feb. 28 as the deadline "on which it will be necessary to ascertain the rate schedule to be applied in order that these operations may be completed in time for employers to return their contributions as they fall due."

Without the amendments, all employer contributions would jump to 2.7 per cent for the second quarter of 1955. The amendment would boost average contributions from 1.2 to 1.65 per cent.

Payments for the first quarter, under existing law, would vary from .6 to 2.7 per cent.

But Torquato said that under the amendments, contributions for the first quarter would be payable at rates varying between 1 and 2.7 per cent.

The secretary estimated that 150,000 of the total 190,000 reporting employers would be affected by the changing rates.

"Consequently the department will be required to determine the individual rates of employers in this number of cases and then imprint reporting forms and issue individual rate notices to the employers to apprise them of their liability," he wrote, adding:

"Needless to say this involves a tremendous amount of clerical work."

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Department of Property and Supplies yesterday received an unofficial low bid of $7,351 from the Bebenek Construction Co., Northumberland, for repairs to the Warrior Run Church at Milton.

The site is operated by the state Historical Museum Commission.

Missing Bucknell Coed Found Working

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP) — A 17-year-old co-ed, missing from the Bucknell University campus since last Friday, was believed today to be working near her Catonsville, Md., home.

University officials said they were notified last night that Sonia Diane Knop, a freshman at Bucknell, had secured a job and "was not lonely."

The girl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Knop, told Miss Mary Jane Stevenson, dean of women at the university, that they received a telephone call from their daughter at their Catonsville home yesterday.

The Knops said the call was not long distance and they believed the girl to be in the Catonsville area. The student, however, refused to tell her parents her exact location.

REFUSE PAROLE APPEAL

HARRISBURG (AP) — It was up to the State Pardons Boards today to decide if Thomas M. Wheatley, convicted of the non-fatal shooting of a state trooper in 1953, should be given a parole.

The State Parole Board yesterday refused to parole the Langhorne R.D. garage owner "at this time in the best interests of the public."

Open Bids For New Hospital Building

HARRISBURG (AP) — The General State Authority yesterday opened an unofficial low bid of $68,700 for electrical construction work in the replacement of building No. 11 at Norristown State Hospital.

Submitted the bid was C. R. Kilgore & Son of Lemoyne, Pa. Contracts totaling nearly 1 1/2 million dollars for other work on the job were awarded last month.

The work is being done at the request of the state Welfare Department which found that the 50-year-old building had deteriorated so much it was impractical to repair.

Atomic Tests Are Set For Tomorrow

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—After three postponements, chances for the opening of the 1955 atomic test series tomorrow morning appeared brighter today because the Atomic Energy Commission has an ace in the hole.

The AEC disclosed yesterday that, beginning tomorrow, it has a "less sensitive" shot ready for detonation in addition to the one which has been canceled since Tuesday.

The original shot was slated to be exploded from a 500-foot tower on Yucca Flat with 1,100 military men in trenches 4,000 yards away. Continuing cloudiness and high winds aloft, coupled with sprinkles of rain in the Las Vegas area, forced the third postponement last night.

Named Maple Queen Of Pennsylvania

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Mona Lea Hillegass, a 17-year-old 5-6 blue eyed brunette, is Pennsylvania's 1955 maple queen.

Miss Hillegass, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hillegass of Berlin R. 1, was chosen queen over 12 other contestants last night.

Two other Somerset County girls were chosen maids of honor. They are Eleanor Whipple, a student at the Somerset Joint High School, and Shirley Ann Welsh of Rockwood.

Miss Hillegass, who says she plans to become a nurse, will receive a four-year state senatorial college scholarship. She will be crowned March 25 at Meyersdale when the 8th annual Somerset County maple festival opens.

Ira Hayes

A Hero To All But Himself

disturbed him unbearably. No matter how hard he tried, he could not forget that three of his buddies in the Iwo Jima flag-raising scene were killed soon afterward, and that other of his comrades never came back as heroes or anything else. To rid himself of these harrowing memories he turned to drink as a last resort, which, as stated, proved fatal.

Ira Hayes Was A Hero
But Ira Hayes will not be judged or remembered because of this not unusual human weakness, which he was unable to control. No; that will soon be forgotten. But what will be remembered will be that superb young Marine in his moment of glory—second from the left, rifle slung on shoulder, raising his country's flag under which he served so gallantly and heroically. In the words of one of his comrades, "IRA HAYES WAS A HERO TO EVERY ONE BUT HIMSELF."

When he died his remains lay in state in his home town, and hundreds of men, women, and children came to pay their respects, and bid their hero a last farewell. Then, all that was mortal of Ira Hayes was brought to Washington and interred at Arlington with full military honors by a grateful nation.

While holding no brief for the use of alcohol as a beverage in any form, there are, however, extenuating circumstances to be cited in the case of Ira Hayes, the Indian.

Whites Brought Alcohol
To mention one in particular, Indians, strange as it may seem, knew nothing of alcoholic beverages until the advent of the White man. W. E. Woodward, in his "New American History," tells us that "The distillation of whiskey from corn (corn or maize was a major article of food with the Indians) is one of the simplest processes. Very primitive people can do it; but if any North American Indian of colonial times ever made whiskey a record of the fact has eluded a rather thorough search on my part."

It was the White man, says Woodward, who introduced the Indian to strong drink, which next to the White man's fire arms, the Indian prized above all else.

Continuing, historian Woodward declares that the amount of drinking that was done in those early days by all classes, including many of the clergy, is almost beyond belief. Whiskey, brandy, rum, gin, cider, and wines were drunk both separately and mixed. "Hard Cider" was drunk by everybody in the family, in quantities. A New England minister (according to Woodward), who had laid in forty barrels of hard cider for the winter, wrote that he was afraid of running short.

Potent Potion

Among the gin-beer mixtures was one called "Rumfustian." It contained a pint of gin, a quart of beer, a bottle of Sherry, the yolks of a dozen eggs, sugar and nutmeg. A note on the recipe indicates that the mixture had a queer taste—a leathery taste—but that it carried undeniable authority, and that a shot or two of the concoction fortified the imbiber against all comers. (Even that assurance sounds like an all-time understatement.)

Records disclose that the White man of the colonial period could "hold his rum," but the Indian could not. Rum and whiskey apparently had more to do with the destruction of the Indian tribes than all the wars in which they were engaged. Missionaries and Indian Agents made every effort to stop white traders from giving the Indians liquor, but to no avail. An Indian would sell his entire season's catch of furs for a couple bottles of whiskey.

From the foregoing one must conclude that our Marine hero should not be taken to task unduly for his drinking propensities—his ancestors paved the way for him; it was in the blood—part of his heritage.

Deserve Some Sympathy

In a recital of these drinking habits, it must be remembered that most of the colonials of that early day lived rough, rugged lives. The climate was severe, and the houses poorly constructed with never sufficient heat. They did the hardest kind of physical labor, and deserve at least a modicum of sympathy for their excesses.

Another sympathetic gesture should be afforded Marine Hayes for his moody, melancholy, brooding temperament. He came by this mysterious characteristic honestly. The Indian was either blessed or burdened, shall we say, with a pronounced religious-superstitious-imaginative complex. He believed in signs, omens, and dreams. His imagination peopled the air, water, and forest with evil spirits that filled him with superstitious dread. So constituted, Ma-

Clear Trade Program For House Debate

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's controversial program to liberalize foreign trade policy has been cleared for House debate today or Friday by an 8-3 vote of the House Rules Committee.

Tuesday's committee action put a strict limit on any attempts to amend the proposal, which would give Eisenhower authority to lower U.S. tariffs 15 per cent during a three-year period in return for concessions to American products sent abroad.

A bitter debate marked committee consideration of the measure, which would extend the Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act three years beyond next June 12.

rine Hayes' mental processes were the result, no doubt, of his tragic experiences in his country's service.

"You Tell Um"

Contrary to popular belief, the Indian is not cruel by nature. Before the coming of the White man he was a simple, peaceful child of nature. Family quarrels were almost unknown among the Indians. The husband did not abuse his wife—never chided her nor found fault with her management of the household. And he wasn't without a sense of humor. For example, a Government Inspector from the Bureau of Indian Affairs in Washington, while visiting a Reservation, warned the tribal Chief that it was a violation of law to have more than one wife. Said the Inspector to the Chief, "I want you to tell all of your wives, except one, that they can no longer look upon you as their husband." "YOU TELL UM," said the Chief.

When the White man first came to these shores the natives received him kindly. When the Pilgrims came in 1620 to secure religious freedom imagine their surprise to have an Indian come shouting, "Welcome Englishmen!" It was Squanto, whom the Whites had carried to Spain and sold as a slave. An Englishman had rescued and returned him to his native land. During his absence he had learned to speak English.

Helped Save Colony

Squanto helped save the little Pilgrim colony from extermination. As their interpreter he was instrumental in having a treaty signed by them and the great chief, Massasoit, which the latter never broke during the remaining 40 years of his life.

A basic virtue of the Indian was his reputation for never breaking a promise. William Penn by treating the Indians as friends, not enemies, proved that conflict between the races could be avoided. When Penn died in 1718 the Indians lost their best friend.

Much has been said and written critical of the Indian, but this writer has never heard of a native White American, with Indian blood in his veins, who wasn't proud of it. To name but a few, Mrs. Woodrow (Bolling) Wilson, born in Wytheville, Virginia, is a direct descendant of Pocahontas. The late Vice President of the United States, Hon. Charles Curtis, of Kansas, was half Indian. The late beloved Will Rogers, of Oklahoma, was another. Matthew Stanley Quay, one of Pennsylvania's most distinguished United States senators, and a holder of the Congressional Medal of Honor for heroism in the Civil War, took great pride in his Indian ancestry.

Logan, Mingo Chief
Indian lore, romance, and tradition are inexhaustible, but lack of space will not permit a lengthy Indian dissertation.

I cannot end this article, however, without reference to one of the great Indian Chiefs, none other than Logan, chief of the Mingoes, born in New York State, but who spent much of his life in Pennsylvania, and later in Ohio.

He was the second son of Shikellamy, vice-gerent of the Six Nations. His Indian name was Tagah-jute, meaning that the formation of his eyelashes gave him the appearance of looking through or over something. His father named him JAMES LOGAN, after James Logan, secretary of the Provincial Council of Pennsylvania, for whom he had a high regard. Chief Logan, I like his famous father before him, was a loyal friend of the White man, and he became famous, among other things, for his unusual oratorical gifts.

Keen Sense Of Justice
Logan was an imposing and commanding figure, endowed with a keen sense of justice, and, as indicated, was particularly friendly to the white colonists. But the great tragedy of his life was the brutal, inexcusable murder of his entire family, with and kin, in 1774, near what is now Wellsburg, Ohio. Details of this unforgivable atrocity cannot be dealt with here, but it made of Logan a deadly and lasting enemy of the Whites, and provoked his famous speech, which follows, acknowledged to be the finest specimen of Indian oratory:

"I appeal to any white man to say if he ever entered Logan's cabin hungry, and I gave him not meat; if ever he came cold and naked, and I gave him not clothing."

"During the course of the last long and bloody war Logan remained in his tent, an advocate of peace. Nay, such was my love for the whites, that those of my own country pointed to me as they passed, and said, 'Logan is the friend of white men.' I had even thought to live with you but for the injuries of one man."

"Colonel Cresap the last spring, in cold blood, and unprovoked, killed all the relatives of Logan; not sparing even my women and children. There runs not a drop of my blood in the veins of any human creature."

"This called on me for revenge. I have sought it. I have killed many. I have fully glutted my vengeance. For my country, I rejoice at the beams of peace. Yet do not harbor the thought that mine is the joy of fear. Logan never felt fear. Logan will not turn on his heel to save his life. Who is there to mourn for Logan? Not one."

Thomas Jefferson was so impressed that he "challenges Cicero, Demosthenes, and both European and American statesmen" (in his "Notes on Virginia," published in 1781-82) "to surpass this speech—the cry of the wrong, done the Indian race that came from the breaking heart of Logan, and made his name immortal."

"Lofty And Sublime"
It is at once bold, lofty, and sublime; and yet is permeated with a note of sadness. It has been recited in schools throughout the United States for more than a hundred years. It was copied in England, and has been translated into French.

Plan Considered To Widen U.S. Route 6

HARRISBURG (AP)—Highways Secretary J. J. Lawler Wednesday considered a proposal by a northern Pennsylvania group to widen and improve U.S. 6 as part of the state's road improvement program.

Officers of the Pennsylvania Free Roads Assn. told Lawler Tuesday that traffic on the highway is constantly growing as it provides the most direct free route between New York City and western Pennsylvania and the Midwest.

Making the appeal were Oren P. Smith, Coudersport, association president; Frank Dodd, Potato City, president of the Pennsylvania Potato Growers Assn., and Hugh Dale, Wellsboro, Pennsylvania Hotels Assn. president.

GAS LEAK SETS OFF EXPLOSION

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Illuminating gas, leaking from a broken main in North Philadelphia, set off explosions early Wednesday in two homes, left the cellars ablaze and caused police to evacuate some 200 persons from 38 fume-filled buildings.

Police, who hurried from door to door on North Bodine street, between Montgomery and Columbus avenues, said they had difficulty in awaking many of the occupants.

They said some residents appeared groggy, apparently from the effects of the gas.

Fireman Hurt
The only casualty, however, was a fireman injured slightly in the second explosion.

Investigators found the gas had escaped from a 4-inch main which sagged and cracked when a 6-inch water main burst and gouged out a 6-foot-deep hole under the street. The fire was confined to the basements of the two homes damaged by the exploding gas.

German, and other languages as an example of classic oratory. The Ohio Archaeological and Historical Society has erected a monument, near Logan's Elm on the Ohio River at Wellsburg, bearing the following inscription:

"Under the spreading branches of a magnificent elm tree nearby is where Logan, a Mingo Chief, made his celebrated speech."

Democrats Seek To Upset GOP Control Of Senate

HARRISBURG (AP)—Democrats flirted with the idea today of upsetting Republican control of the Senate to underline their contention that the GOP is obstructing government reorganization.

Sen. John H. Dent, Democratic floor leader, said such a plan may be discussed by the 24 Democratic senators at a caucus next Monday.

"I'm not going to predict what will happen," he said. "But there's a feeling among my colleagues that something must be done to counteract Republican obstructionism."

Any Democratic plan to take control of the Senate from the GOP would be temporary. It would last only as long as Sens. John T. Van Sant (R-Lehigh) and Henry J. Probert (R-Montgomery) continue their absence because of injury and illness.

Could Be 25-24 Vote

The vote of either of the two senators would give Republicans 25 votes to 24 for the Democrats. When both return the GOP will be back to 26 votes—enough to pass a bill.

But with Van Sant and Probert sidelined Democrats could use the tie-breaking vote of Lt. Gov. Roy E. Furman to win out on any parliamentary move except actually passing a bill.

Sen. Joseph J. Yosko (D-Northampton) said he himself would sponsor a resolution to take over control of committees and depose Sen. M. Harvey Taylor (R-Dauphin) as Senate president pro tempore—if the GOP is adamant on its government reorganization stand. The GOP-dominated Senate State Government Committee sent to the floor Tuesday over Democratic objections a revised version of a House-passed plan to give Gov. George M. Leader broad powers of government reorganization.

Has 30-Day Limit
Under the original bill, Leader would have to submit a reshuffling plan to the lawmakers and see it become law if it is not vetoed within 30 days by either the House or Senate.

The Republican amendments have the effect of requiring that both the House and Senate vote affirmatively on a reform within a 30-day period. If there is no vote, then the bill automatically would die after 30 days.

The Senate, before recessing Tuesday night for the week, received for floor action a Republican plan to make a full 100 per cent refund of taxes paid by farmers on gasoline used in farm machinery.

The change was made by the Senate Finance Committee to a bill which passed the Democratic-controlled House to continue for another two years the current 50 per cent refund of the 5 cents a gallon gasoline tax. Refunds now amount to $800,000 a biennium.

Bottle Money Play

The committee, however, kept bottled up the administration's plan to reenact nearly 400 million dollars in existing taxes for another two years. The gasoline tax refund had been part of that package in going through the house.

In a House development on taxes, Rep. Charles C. Smith, Republican floor leader, asked why the governor asked for 40 million dollars in deficiency appropriations if there is no money to finance them.

Atty. Gen. Herbert B. Cohen said on Monday that the lawmakers must provide new funds before May 31 to pay for a deficit estimated at up to 90 million dollars.

"Did the governor know when he made that request that the Legislature could not make such appropriations as the attorney general now states?" Smith asked.

Meanwhile, Dent, in discussing GOP amendments to the governor's government reorganization plan, said:

"Scrap Whole Plan"
"You might just as well scrap the whole thing for you can hold up all reorganization."

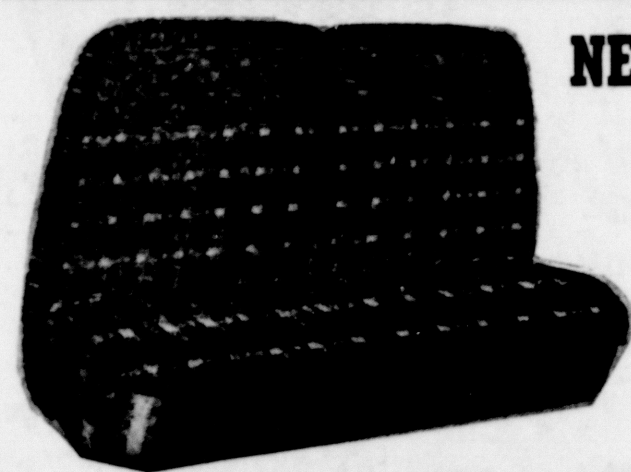

Asked if any Democratic move to gain control of the Senate would contradict his previous statement that his party won't take advantage of the Republicans on the absence of Van Sant and Probert, Dent replied:

"Democrats won't take advantage of an act of God for political purposes but, by the same token, we will not condone obstructionism as a result of tricks of the devil."

The House State Government Committee Tuesday approved for floor action a companion reorganization bill to create a 12-man commission to study the possibility of reforms.

Republicans would be assured representation on the group which would include four to be appointed by the governor, four by the speaker of the House and four by the Senate president pro tempore.

Double-duty outfits are tops in

a teen wardrobe — and if separates can be planned for triple duty that's even better. Newest idea in the mix-or-match brigade is a shirt dress color-matched to a flaring felt skirt to make three outfits — dress alone, skirt over dress, or skirt with a different top. One of the easiest and quickest sewing projects for an amateur seamstress is the straight skirt dress, with no waistline seam or difficult fitting problems. An effective outfit may be made of bold striped Indianhead cotton in tones of black, orange and white, for a simple shirt dress made by a standard pattern. Teamed with the dress is a flaring felt skirt in bright orange to pick up the color of the stripe. Local sewing center experts remind you that felt needs no hemming, and that a felt skirt is easy enough to give even the most timid beginner a dose of confidence. The pattern contains only two major pieces plus a waistband. Some girls like to make the outfit in their school colors, or the colors of their best beau's school. Ever try adding mince meat and brandy or rum flavoring to vanilla fudge? Delicious and different!

WILL SOON USE NEW TUBULAR DESIGN TRAINS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Trains of "startlingly different" designs will be rolling over tracks of four of the nation's largest railroads before too long.

The Pennsylvania, the New Haven, the New York Central and the Santa Fe railroads announced Monday they expect to place orders soon for radically new equipment. The announcement followed completion of a six-month study by a joint committee.

The PRR has agreed to test a new train of tubular design, with depressed centers. It is designed to be used in integrated trains, but can also be interchanged with present standard equipment. The PRR plans to use the train between New York and Pittsburgh and New York and Washington.

"Train X"
The New York Central has agreed to order a complete integrated train similar to the design known as "Train X." This is described as similar to the "Talgo" type train now being built by the American Car and Foundry Co. for the Rock Island Railroad.

"Talgo" cars are low slung, lightweight and designed for use only as integrated units.

Details were not immediately available on a third design, to be put in operation by the New Haven.

PREDICT HUGE PEACH CROP IN PENNSYLVANIA

YORK, Pa. (AP)—Prospects for a bumper peach crop this year brightened today with a predicted harvest of 63,721,000 bushels, almost 4 million more bushels than last year.

The National Peach Council forecast the harvest in its annual "guesstimate." The figure has been so close to actual production over the years that the industry

considers it a barometer of the year's crop.

The council's three-day 14th annual convention opened Monday with the Pennsylvania Horticultural Assn. acting as host and conducting its 96th annual meeting at the same time.

Some 200 delegates from 19 states and Canada, representing top peach growing areas of the two countries, are attending the first council meeting ever held in Pennsylvania.

Ira Hayes

A Hero To All But Himself

disturbed him unbearably. No matter how hard he tried, he could not forget that three of his buddies in the Iwo Jima flag-raising scene were killed soon afterward, and that other of his comrades never came back as heroes or anything else. To rid himself of these harrowing memories he turned to drink as a last resort, which, as stated, proved fatal.

Ira Hayes Was A Hero
But Ira Hayes will not be judged or remembered because of this or unusual human weakness, which he was unable to control. No, that will soon be forgotten. But what will be remembered will be that superb young Marine in his moment of glory—second from the left, rifle slung on shoulder, raising his country's flag under which he served so gallantly and heroically. In the words of one of his comrades, "IRA HAYES WAS A HERO TO EVERY ONE BUT HIMSELF."

When he died his remains lay in state in his home town, and hundreds of men, women, and children came to pay their respects, and bid their hero a last farewell. Then, all that was mortal of Ira Hayes was brought to Washington and interred at Arlington with full military honors by a grateful nation.

While holding no brief for the use of alcohol as a beverage in any form, there are, however, extenuating circumstances to be cited in the case of Ira Hayes, the Indian.

Whites Brought Alcohol
To mention one in particular, Indians, strange as it may seem, knew nothing of alcoholic beverages until the advent of the White man. W. E. Woodward, in his "New American History," tells us that "The distillation of whiskey from corn (corn or maize was a major article of food with the Indians) is one of the simplest processes. Very primitive people can do it; but if any North American Indian of colonial times ever made whiskey a record of the fact has eluded a rather thorough search on my part."

It was the White man, says Woodward, who introduced the Indian to strong drink, which next to the White man's fire arms, the Indian prized above all else.

Continuing, historian Woodward declares that the amount of drinking that was done in those early days by all classes, including many of the clergy, is almost beyond belief. Whiskey, brandy, rum, gin, cider, and wines were drunk, both separately and mixed. "Hard Cider" was drunk by everybody in the family, in quantities. A New England minister (according to Woodward), who had laid in forty barrels of hard cider for the winter, wrote that he was afraid of running short.

Potent Potion
Among the gin-beer mixtures was one called "Rumfustian." It contained a pint of gin, a quart of beer, a bottle of Sherry, the yolks of a dozen eggs, sugar and nutmeg. A note on the recipe indicates that the mixture had a queer taste—a leathery taste—but that it carried undeniable authority, and that a shot or two of the concoction fortified the imbiber against all comers. (Even that assurance sounds like an all-time understatement.)

Records disclose that the White man of the colonial period could "hold his rum," but the Indian could not. Rum and whiskey apparently had more to do with the destruction of the Indian tribes than all the wars in which they were engaged. Missionaries and Indian Agents made every effort to stop white traders from giving the Indians liquor, but to no avail. An Indian would sell his entire season's catch of furs for a couple bottles of whiskey.

From the foregoing one must conclude that our Marine hero should not be taken to task unduly for his drinking propensities—his ancestors paved the way for him; it was in the blood—part of his heritage.

Deserve Some Sympathy
In a recital of these drinking habits, it must be remembered that most of the colonials of that early day lived rough, rugged lives. The climate was severe, and the houses poorly constructed with never sufficient heat. They did the hardest kind of physical labor, and deserve at least a modicum of sympathy for their excesses.

Another sympathetic gesture should be afforded Marine Hayes for his moody, melancholy, brooding temperament. He came by this mysterious characteristic honestly. The Indian was either blessed or burdened, shall we say, with a pronounced religious-superstitious-imaginative complex. He believed in signs, omens, and dreams. His imagination peopled the air, water, and forest with evil spirits that filled him with superstitious dread. So constituted, Ma-

Clear Trade Program For House Debate

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's controversial program to liberalize foreign trade policy has been cleared for House debate today or Friday by an 8-3 vote of the House Rules Committee.

Tuesday's committee action put a strict limit on any attempts to amend the proposal, which would give Eisenhower authority to lower U.S. tariffs 15 per cent during a three-year period in return for concessions to American products sent abroad.

A bitter debate marked committee consideration of the measure, which would extend the Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act three years beyond next June 12.

Hayes' mental processes were the result, no doubt, of his tragic experiences in his country's service.

"You Tell Um"
Contrary to popular belief, the Indian is not cruel by nature. Before the coming of the White man he was a simple, peaceful child of nature. Family quarrels were almost unknown among the Indians. The husband did not abuse his wife—never chided her nor found fault with her management of the household. And he wasn't without a sense of humor. For example, a Government Inspector from the Bureau of Indian Affairs in Washington, while visiting a Reservation, warned the tribal Chief that it was a violation of law to have more than one wife. Said the Inspector to the Chief, "I want you to tell all of your wives, except one, that they can no longer look upon you as their husband." "YOU TELL UM," said the Chief.

When the White man first came to these shores the natives received him kindly. When the Pilgrims came in 1620 to secure religious freedom imagine their surprise to have an Indian come shouting, "Welcome Englishmen!" It was Squanto, whom the Whites had carried to Spain and sold as a slave. An Englishman had rescued and returned him to his native land. During his absence he had learned to speak English.

Helped Save Colony
Squanto helped save the little Pilgrim colony from extermination. As their interpreter he was instrumental in having a treaty signed by them and the great chieftain, Massasoit, which the latter never broke during the remaining 40 years of his life.

A basic virtue of the Indian was his reputation for never breaking a promise. William Penn by treating the Indians as friends, not enemies, proved that conflict between races could be avoided. When Penn died in 1718 the Indians lost their best friend.

Much has been said and written critical of the Indian, but this writer has never heard of a native White American, with Indian blood in his veins, who wasn't proud of it. To name but a few, Mrs. Woodrow (Bolling) Wilson, born in Wytheville, Virginia, is a direct descendant of Pocahontas. The late Vice President of the United States, Hon. Charles Curtis, of Kansas, was half Indian. The late beloved Will Rogers, of Oklahoma, was another. Matthew Stanley Quay, one of Pennsylvania's most distinguished United States senators, and a holder of the Congressional Medal of Honor for heroism in the Civil War, took great pride in his Indian ancestry.

Logan, Mingo Chief
Indian lore, romance, and tradition are inexhaustible, but lack of space will not permit a lengthy Indian dissertation.

I cannot end this article, however, without reference to one of the great Indian Chiefs, none other than Logan, chief of the Mingoes, born in New York State, but who spent much of his life in Pennsylvania, and later in Ohio.

He was the second son of Shikellamy, vice-governor of the Six Nations. His Indian name was Tah-gah-jule, meaning—that the formation of his eyelashes gave him the appearance of looking through or over something. His father named him JAMES LOGAN, after James Logan, secretary of the Provincial Council of Pennsylvania, for whom he had a high regard. Chief Logan, like his famous father before him, was a loyal friend of the White man, and he became famous, among other things, for his unusual oratorical gifts.

Keen Sense Of Justice
Logan was an imposing and commanding figure, endowed with a keen sense of justice, and, as indicated, was particularly friendly to the white colonists. But the great tragedy of his life was the brutal, inexcusable murder of his entire family, with and kin, in 1774, near what is now Wellsboro, Ohio. Details

Plan Considered To Widen U.S. Route 6

HARRISBURG (AP) — Highways Secretary J. J. Lawler Wednesday considered a proposal by a northern Pennsylvania group to widen and improve U.S. 6 as part of the state's road improvement program.

Officers of the Pennsylvania Free Roads Assn. told Lawler Tuesday that traffic on the highway is constantly growing as it provides the most direct free route between New York City and western Pennsylvania and the Midwest.

Making the appeal were Oren P. Smith, Coudersport, association president; Frank Dodd, Potato City, president of the Pennsylvania Potato Growers Assn., and Hugh Dale, Wellsboro, Pennsylvania Hotels Assn. president.

GAS LEAK SETS OFF EXPLOSION

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Illuminating gas, leaking from a broken main in North Philadelphia, set off explosions early Wednesday in two homes, left the cellars ablaze and caused police to evacuate some 200 persons from 38 furnace-filled buildings.

Police, who hurried from door to door on North Bodine street, between Montgomery and Columbus avenues, said they had difficulty in awaking many of the occupants.

They said some residents appeared groggy, apparently from the effects of the gas.

Fireman Hurt
The only casualty, however, was a fireman injured slightly in the second explosion.

Investigators found the gas had escaped from a 4-inch main which sagged and cracked when a 6-inch water main burst and gouged out a 6-foot-deep hole under the street.

The fire was confined to the basements of the two homes damaged by the exploding gas.

German, and other languages as an example of classic oratory. The Ohio Archaeological and Historical Society has erected a monument, near Logan's Elm on the Ohio River at Wellsboro, bearing the following inscription:

"Under the spreading branches of a magnificent elm tree nearby is where Logan, a Mingo Chief, made his celebrated speech."

Thomas Jefferson was so impressed that he "challenges Cicero, Demosthenes, and both European and American statesmen" (in his "Notes on Virginia," published in 1781-82) "to surpass this speech—the cry of the wrong, done the Indian race that came from the breaking heart of Logan, and made his name immortal."

"Lofty And Sublime"
It is at once bold, lofty, and sublime; and yet is permeated with a note of sadness. It has been recited in schools throughout the United States for more than a hundred years. It was copied in England, and has been translated into French,

Democrats Seek To Upset GOP Control Of Senate

HARRISBURG (AP) — Democrats flirted with the idea today of upsetting Republican control of the Senate to underline their contention that the GOP is obstructing government reorganization.

Sen. John H. Dent, Democratic floor leader, said such a plan may be discussed by the 24 Democratic senators at a caucus next Monday.

"I'm not going to predict what will happen," he said. "But there's a feeling among my colleagues that something must be done to counteract Republican obstructionism."

Any Democratic plan to take control of the Senate from the GOP would be temporary. It would last only as long as Sens. John T. Van Sant (R-Lehigh) and Henry J. Probert (R-Montgomery) continue their absence because of injury and illness.

Could Be 25-24 Vote

The vote of either of the two senators would give Republicans 25 votes to 24 for the Democrats. When both return the GOP will be back to 26 votes—enough to pass a bill.

But with Van Sant and Probert sidelined Democrats could use the tie-breaking vote of Lt. Gov. Roy E. Furman to win out on any parliamentary move except actually passing a bill.

Sen. Joseph J. Yosko (D-Northampton) said he himself would sponsor a resolution to take over control of committees and depose Sen. M. Harvey Taylor (R-Dauphin) as Senate president pro tempore—if the GOP is adamant on its government reorganization stand.

The GOP-dominated Senate State Government Committee sent to the floor Tuesday over Democratic objections a revised version of a House-passed plan to give Gov. George M. Leader broad powers of government reorganization.

Has 30-Day Limit

Under the original bill, Leader would have to submit a reshuffling plan to the lawmakers and see it become law if it is not vetoed within 30 days by either the House or Senate.

The Republican amendments have the effect of requiring that both the House and Senate vote affirmatively on a reform within a 30-day period. If there is no vote, then the bill automatically would die after 30 days.

The Senate, before recessing Tuesday night for the week, received for floor action a Republican plan to make a full 100 per cent refund of taxes paid by farmers on gasoline used in farm machinery.

The change was made by the Senate Finance Committee to a bill which passed the Democratic-controlled House to continue for another two years the current 50 per cent refund of the 5 cents a gallon gasoline tax. Refunds now amount to $800,000 a biennium.

Bottle Money Play
The committee, however, kept bottled up the administration's plan to reenact nearly 400 million dollars in existing taxes for another two years. The gasoline tax refund had been part of that package in going through the house.

In a House development on taxes, Rep. Charles C. Smith, Republican floor leader, asked why the governor asked for 40 million dollars in deficiency appropriations if there is no money to finance them.

Atty. Gen. Herbert B. Cohen said on Monday that the lawmakers must provide new funds before May 31 to pay for a deficit estimated at up to 90 million dollars.

"Did the governor know when he made that request that the Legislature could not make such appropriations as the attorney general now states?" Smith asked.

Meanwhile, Dent, in discussing GOP amendments to the governor's government reorganization plan, said:

"Scrap Whole Plan"
"You might just as well scrap the whole thing for you can hold up all reorganization."

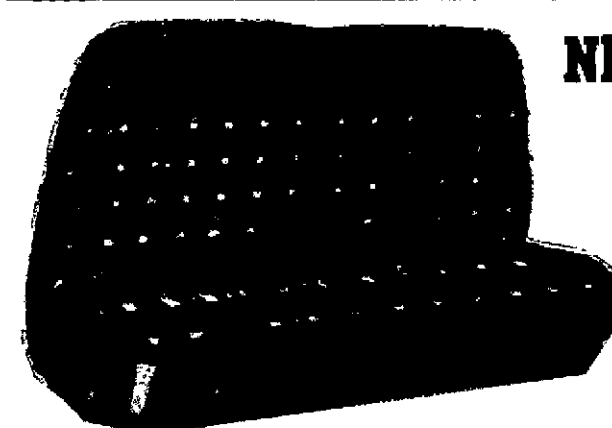

Asked if any Democratic move to gain control of the Senate would contradict his previous statement that his party won't take advantage of the Republicans on the absence of Van Sant and Probert, Dent replied:

"Democrats won't take advantage of an act of God for political purposes but, by the same token, we will not condone obstructionism as a result of tricks of the devil."

The House State Government Committee Tuesday approved for floor action a companion reorganization bill to create a 12-man commission to study the possibility of reforms.

Republicans would be assured representation on the group which would include four to be appointed by the governor, four by the speaker of the House and four by the Senate president pro tempore.

IKE'S PROGRAM DRAWS PRAISE AND CRITICISM

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Spokesmen for American business and farm interests today lauded President Eisenhower's economic philosophy as "admirable," but took issue with him on such specific issues as corporate tax reduction and minimum wage increase.

Henry G. Riter III, president of the National Assn. of Manufacturers, told the Senate-House Economic Committee N.A.M. "can heartily endorse" the basic philosophy outlined in the President's economic message to Congress last Jan. 20.

Riter said Eisenhower's expressed intention to concentrate on policies looking to long-term economic growth was "economic statesmanship and vision of the highest order."

Praise And Criticism

But the NAM president spoke in the same prepared text of the "pressing necessity" for corporate tax reduction to overcome what he termed "stagnation" of business profits. Eisenhower has asked Congress to cancel a 5 per cent drop in corporation income taxes scheduled for April 1.

Dr. Emerson P. Schmidt, economic research director of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, said in his prepared statement the President's economic philosophy and policy "on the whole are admirable."

But he was critical of Eisenhower's public housing, minimum wage and certain other recommendations.

Pass Resolution Of Congratulation

HARRISBURG (AP)—The House passed unanimously and sent to the Senate Tuesday a resolution congratulating the Pennsylvania State University on its 100th anniversary to be marked Tuesday.

The resolution would express the Legislature's "sincere appreciation and gratitude" for the school's contributions to Pennsylvania life since it was granted a charter as Farmers High School on Feb. 22, 1855.

"One of the most important factors in the elevation of the commonwealth," the measure states, "to the position of respect which it enjoys today has been its educated citizenry and no institution has contributed as much in this field as the Pennsylvania State University."

It calls Penn State "Pennsylvania's finest institution of higher learning."

eration, told the committee, "We are in agreement with the general philosophy expressed in the (President's) report."

But in his prepared statement, Shuman opposed Eisenhower's request to raise the minimum wage from 75 to 90 cents an hour and to bring more workers under the wage floor law. He also came out against any increase in federal spending for highway improvement.

The Senate - House Economic Committee has been taking testimony from labor, business and other groups in connection with its study of Eisenhower's report on the nation's economic health. This was to be the committee's last public session.

Commy's Dog Is Released In Bern

BERN, Switzerland (AP) — The anti-Communist fighters who invaded Romania's legion in Bern released the last of the establishment's Red contingent Wednesday. Charge d'Affaires Emeric Stoffel's black airedale.

Dressed in a sweater, plus-fours and a holstered revolver, one of the four men occupying the building opened an outside door just before 9 a.m. The dog bounded out.

The man went back into the legion immediately. The animal dashed over to a fence. Stoffel, tired and unshaven since he was forced out of his premises at gunpoint before dawn Tuesday pulled the dog over the fence and took it away in a taxi.

Eisenhower Signs GI Benefit Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Legislation continuing GI education benefits for those who entered the armed forces before Feb. 1 was signed Tuesday by President Eisenhower.

The new law, enacted with administration encouragement, nullifies part of a presidential proclamation ending Korean War emergency benefit as of Jan. 31.

JULY PRIMARY MEASURE LOST IN COMMITTEE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. George M. Leader's proposal to change the primary election date from May 17 to July 19 ended up in the legislative discard Tuesday.

The House last night recommitted the bill after both Republicans and Democrats raised their voices against it.

Rep. Albert S. Readinger, Democratic floor leader, wrote off any changes in 1955 but indicated that there may be future action on the measure to provide for a mid-July primary in 1957.

Leader himself gave only lukewarm support to the measure, telling his news conference that he would not press for its enactment if there was any significant opposition to it.

The governor supported the measure as a means of cutting down the length of political campaigns and saving wear and tear on candidates and their financial resources.

Work, Vacation Month

"Too many members don't like a July date because it would create too much confusion," Readinger told a newsman. "Lots of (election) forms are already being prepared and the bill could

Wants Foresters Under Civil Service

HARRISBURG (AP)—Maurice K. Goddard, state secretary of forests and waters, Wednesday advanced a proposal for the adoption of a civil service system in his department to secure "top forestry graduates."

Goddard, in a televised interview (over WPTA's "Capitol Correspondents"), said Tuesday night that Pennsylvania is not getting the outstanding forestry students as state workers because of the spoils system.

He urged civil service status for all except top policy-making officials. Goddard also said he favored a set-up in reforestation activities and would like "to see 25 or 30 more state parks" opened to the public.

not be passed until too late."

Rep. Charles C. Smith, Republican floor leader, voiced the opinion of his party with the declaration:

"Many farmers are busiest working in the fields in July and in the cities July is the height of vacation time. We should do all possible to make it easier to vote, not deprive people of votes."

As originally introduced, the primary would be on the third Tuesday of July instead of the third Tuesday of May in all years except when a president is elected. In those years, it would continue in September.

CONVICTED BY EMBEZZLEMENT

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—James A. Andrew, 58-year-old Ocean City, N. J. resident, has been found guilty of embezzling $48,209.57 from the defunct Seaboard Mutual Casualty Co.

Andrew, a former president of the company, was also found guilty of fraudulently converting the money to his own use. The rulings were made Tuesday by Judge Peter F. Hagen of Common Pleas Court who ordered Andrew to make restitution of $57,513.91, representing the amount embezzled plus interest. Hagen ruled that if the restitution isn't made within 60 days that Andrew must pay a fine of $5,000 and serve 23 months in jail. Seaboard, which closed Dec. 4, 1951, is now in the process of being liquidated under a Dauphin County (Pa.) Court order. At Andrew's trial last November it was charged that an insurance agency he owned drained money from Seaboard by charging high commissions and insuring poor risks. Andrew is free in custody of his attorney, John P. Walsh, pending an appeal to Superior Court.

SHAPIRO ORDER CALLED DRASTIC BY FRED MAUE

SHAMOKIN, Pa. (P) — The president of the Board of Trustees at Laurelton State Village described an ordered removal of 40 women from an institution cottage as a "drastic" move capable of causing "great disturbance and chaos."

Fred W. Maue said yesterday "This is drastic action and I hate to contemplate the disturbance and chaos which might result from this action."

Welfare Secretary Harry Shapiro ordered removal of 40 mentally defective women from the building Tuesday in another step in his campaign to clean up what he called "miserable conditions" in some institutions under his department's jurisdiction.

Like "Dark Ages"

Shapiro described the building as "reminiscent of the dark ages."

"It must be remembered," Maue said in a statement, "that there are some 1,100 girls at this institution and that the secure cottage was built to isolate some 40 of them who became violently disturbed at certain periods."

He said that the women were put in the special cottage at the Union County institution "so that no harm will come to themselves or other girls."

Earlier, Dr. Effie Ireland, superintendent of Laurelton, protested Shapiro's order for removal of the women from the cottage.

Deans' Want Controversy

"I have no desire to get into a public controversy with Mr. Shapiro over conditions at Laurelton State Village with respect to the charges he released," Maue declared, adding:

"The same charges were made to the Board of Trustees by Mr. Shapiro in person on Feb. 10. A that time he refused to give Dr. Ireland and Dr. Catherine Edgett, assistant superintendent, an opportunity to defend themselves but turned the matter over to be board for immediate investigation and correction."

Meanwhile, two officials of a five-man team continued a personal investigation today of the institution. Dr. Hilding A. Bengt, commissioner of mental health, said the group will report its findings to Shapiro.

SEEKS AMENDED UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFIT LAW

HARRISBURG (P) — The state secretary of labor and industry today sought prompt action on legislative amendments to the commonwealth's unemployment compensation laws designed to prevent a decrease in benefits and an increase in taxes.

Secretary John R. Torquato in a letter to Sen. Rowland B. Mahany, Senate GOP leader, said yesterday his department is placed in a "critical" situation by the pending legislation in determining the rate schedule for employer taxes to the fund.

The House has approved an amendment to the unemployment compensation law that would increase maximum weekly payments, eliminate the so-called peril point and boost employer contributions. The bill is now before a Senate committee.

Feb. 28 Deadline

Torquato said his department has set Feb. 28 as the deadline "on which it will be necessary to ascertain the rate schedule to be applied in order that these operations may be completed in time for employers to return their contributions as they fall due."

Without the amendments, all employer contributions would jump to 2.7 per cent for the second quarter of 1955. The amendment would boost average contributions from 1.2 to 1.66 per cent.

Payments for the first quarter, under existing law, would vary from .6 to 2.7 per cent.

But Torquato said that under the amendments, contributions for the first quarter would be payable at rates varying between 1 and 2.7 per cent.

The secretary estimated that 150,000 of the total 190,000 reporting employers would be affected by the changing rates.

"Consequently the department will be required to determine the individual rates of employers in this number of cases and then imprint reporting forms and issue individual rate notices to the employers to apprise them of their liability," he wrote, adding:

"Needless to say this involves a tremendous amount of clerical work."

HARRISBURG (P) — The Department of Property and Supplies yesterday received an unofficial low bid of $7,351 from the Bebenek Construction Co., Northumberland, for repairs to the Warrior Run Church at Milton.

The site is operated by the state Historical Museum Commission.

Missing Bucknell Coed Found Working

LEWISBURG, Pa. (P) — A 17-year-old co-ed, missing from the Bucknell University campus since last Friday, was believed today to be working near her Catonsville, Md., home.

University officials said they were notified last night that Sonia Diane Knop, a freshman at Bucknell, had secured a job and "was not lonely."

The girl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Knop, told Miss Mary Jane Stevenson, dean of women at the university, that they received a telephone call from her daughter at their Catonsville home yesterday.

The Knops said the call was not long distance and they believed the girl to be in the Catonsville area. The student, however, refused to tell her parents her exact location.

REFUSE PAROLE APPEAL

HARRISBURG (P) — It was up to the State Pardons Boards today to decide if Thomas M. Wheatley, convicted of the non-fatal shooting of a state trooper in 1953, should be given a parole.

The state Parole Board yesterday refused to parole the Langhorne R.D. garage owner "at this time in the best interests of the public."

Open Bids For New Hospital Building

HARRISBURG (P) — The General State Authority yesterday opened an unofficial low bid of $68,700 for electrical construction work in the replacement of building No. 11 at Norristown State Hospital.

Submitted the bid was C. R. Kilgore & Son of Lemoyne, Pa. Contracts totaling nearly 1½ million dollars for other work on the job were awarded last month.

The work is being done at the request of the state Welfare Department which found that the 50-year-old building had deteriorated so much it was impractical to repair.

SHAPIRO MAY TRANSFER 40 MENTALLY ILL

HARRISBURG (AP)—If Welfare Secretary Harry Shapiro has his way, 40 mentally defective women will be removed from a jail-like building at Laurelton State Village in Union County.

The order for their evacuation from the building—known as Johnston Cottage and described by Shapiro as "reminiscent of the Dark Ages"—went to the institution's board of trustees Tuesday.

The secretary directed his order to Fred W. Maue, president of the board, who last week said the board planned its own "non-political" probe of the village.

Maue said he would have no comment until he was notified officially of Shapiro's action.

Shapiro's order was another step in his campaign to correct what he termed "miserable conditions" in some institutions under his department's jurisdiction.

Superintendent Is Ousted
Previous directives resulted in the removal of the superintendent of Allentown State Hospital and the firing of four members of the board of trustees at Parvian State Hospital in Wayne County.

In a statement concerning conditions at Laurelton, Shapiro said "the failure of the board to take some measures to put an end to inhuman practices, places the responsibility for the continuance of these acts squarely upon them."

He said the board was told of such conditions at the institution as:

1. Patients kept in solitary confinement for as long as six months in 40 barred cells in Johnston Cottage, with each cell sealed by a solid wooden door that had only a peephole and a slot for feeding purposes.
2. Using Johnston Cottage for punishment for rules infractions.
3. Turning on cold water only once a day for washing purposes.
4. Limiting meals to a piece of bread with just as much food as could be placed on top of the bread slice.
5. Turning off the water supply for a toilet for a week.
6. Removing mattresses from beds and forcing patients to sleep on bare springs or on the floor.

GOP IS SEEKING GAS TAX REFUND FOR FARMERS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Republicans, rebuffed in the House, are trying in the Senate to allow farmers a full 100 per cent refund for gasoline taxes paid on fuel used on their farms.

The GOP-Controlled Senate Finance Committee Tuesday amended a House-passed bill providing for the refund, now limited to 100 per cent.

The action was taken in amending a companion bill renewing for another two years the state's temporary tax of two cents a gallon on gasoline. A tax of three cents a gallon is permanent, making a total of five cents a gallon.

When the measure was before the Democratic-controlled House Rep. Charles C. Smith, Republican floor leader, sought to make the farmer gasoline tax refund 100 per cent, but was voted down.

Pledged By Leader
Smith cited a campaign pledge by Gov. George M. Leader favoring the full gasoline tax refund to farmers. Rep. Albert S. Readinger, Democratic floor leader, retorted at the time the Democrats would pick the time and place to fulfill campaign pledges.

Japan And Russia Will Discuss Peace

TOKYO (AP)—A Russian concession Wednesday paved the way for peace negotiations between Japan and Soviet Union in New York—probably in the next few weeks.

In a note delivered directly to Prime Minister Ichiro Hatoyama, the Soviets waived their preference for Moscow or Tokyo as a meeting site and said they would agree to the place "the Japanese government considers most adequate."

Japan told Russia officially Feb. 15 it felt New York was the best place.

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Spokesmen for American business and farm interests today lauded President Eisenhower's economic philosophy as "admirable," but took issue with him on such specific issues as corporate tax reduction and minimum wage increase.

Henry G. Riter III, president of the National Assn. of Manufacturers, told the Senate-House Economic Committee N.A.M. "can heartily endorse" the President's philosophy outlined in the President's economic message to Congress last Jan. 20.

Riter said Eisenhower's expressed intention to concentrate on policies looking to long-term economic growth was "economic statesmanship and vision of the highest order."

Praise And Criticism

But the NAM president spoke in the same prepared text of the "pressing necessity" for corporate tax reduction to overcome what he termed "stagnation" of business profits. Eisenhower has asked Congress to cancel a 5 per cent drop in corporation income taxes scheduled for April 1.

Dr. Emerson P. Schmidt, economic research director of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, said in his prepared statement the President's economic philosophy and policy "on the whole are admirable."

Charles B. Shuman, president of the American Farm Bureau Fed-

Pass Resolution Of Congratulation

HARRISBURG (AP)—The House passed unanimously and sent to the Senate Tuesday a resolution congratulating the Pennsylvania State University on its 100th anniversary to be marked Tuesday.

The resolution would express the Legislature's "sincere appreciation and gratitude" for the school's contributions to Pennsylvania life since it was granted a charter as Farmers High School on Feb. 22, 1855.

"One of the most important factors in the elevation of the commonwealth," the measure states, "to the position of respect which it enjoys today has been its educated citizenry and no institution has contributed as much in this field as the Pennsylvania State University."

It calls Penn State "Pennsylvania's finest institution of higher learning."

eration, told the committee, "We are in agreement with the general philosophy expressed in the (President's) report."

But in his prepared statement, Shuman opposed Eisenhower's request to raise the minimum wage from 75 to 90 cents an hour and to bring more workers under the wage floor law. He also came out against any increase in federal spending for highway improvement.

The Senate-House Economic Committee has been taking testimony from labor, business and other groups in connection with its study of Eisenhower's report on the nation's economic health. This was to be the committee's last public session.

FLOOD CONTROL MEASURE GOES BEFORE SENATE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Legislation to help provide better flood control protection in Pennsylvania went before the Senate Tuesday.

GOP senators George B. Stevenson (Clinton), Charles R. Mallory (Blair) and J. Irving Whalley (Somerset) introduced a bill Monday night to provide for placement of rents and royalties from gas and oil leases on state lands in a special fund for conservation, recreation dams and flood control.

The measure also would authorize the Water and Power Resources Board to determine the need and location for such projects.

Other new Senate bills would: Increase from $32.50 to $66 the compensation paid by the commonwealth for non-registered cattle killed because of disease and from $50 to $100 the amount paid for pure bred registered cattle.

Charles R. Mallory (R-Blair), Albert E. Madigan (R-Bradford) and J. Irving Whalley (R-Somerset) introduced a bill Monday night to provide for placement of rents and royalties from gas and oil leases on state lands in a special fund for conservation, recreation dams and flood control.

Dressed in a sweater, plus-fours and a holstered revolver, one of the four men occupying the building opened an outside door just before 9 a.m. The dog bounded out. The man went back into the legation immediately. The animal dashed over to a fence. Stoffel, tired and unshaven since he was forced out of his premises at gunpoint before dawn Tuesday, pulled the dog over the fence and took it away in a taxi.

Eisenhower Signs GI Benefit Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Legislation continuing GI education benefits for those who entered the armed forces before Feb. 1 was signed Tuesday by President Eisenhower. The new law, enacted with administration encouragement, nullifies part of a presidential proclamation ending Korean War emergency benefit as of Jan. 31.

Those in service before Feb. 1 will be eligible for up to 36 months of schooling, figured at the rate of 1½ days of schooling for each day in service.

JULY PRIMARY MEASURE LOST IN COMMITTEE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. George M. Leader's proposal to change the primary election date from May 17 to July 19 ended up in the legislative discard Tuesday.

The House last night recommended the bill after both Republicans and Democrats raised their voices against it.

Rep. Albert S. Readinger, Democratic floor leader, wrote off any changes in 1955 but indicated that there may be future action on the measure to provide for a mid-July primary in 1957.

Leader himself gave only lukewarm support to the measure, telling his news conference that he would not press for its enactment if there was any significant opposition to it.

The governor supported the measure as a means of cutting down the length of political campaigns and saving wear and tear on candidates and their financial resources.

Work, Vacation Month. "Too many members don't like a July date because it would create too much confusion," Readinger told a newsman. "Lots of (election) forms are already being prepared and the bill could not be passed until too late."

Rep. Charles C. Smith, Republican floor leader, voiced the opinion of his party with the declaration: "Many farmers are busiest working in the fields in July and in the cities July is the height of vacation time. We should do all possible to make it easier to vote, not deprive people of votes."

As originally introduced, the primary would be on the third Tuesday of July instead of the third Tuesday of May in all years except when a president is elected. In those years, it would continue in September.

Wants Foresters Under Civil Service

HARRISBURG (AP)—Maurice K. Goddard, state secretary of forests and waters, Wednesday advanced a proposal for the adoption of a civil service system in his department to secure "top forestry graduates."

Goddard, in a televised interview (over WPTA's "Capitol Correspondents"), said Tuesday night that Pennsylvania is not getting the outstanding forestry students as state workers because of the spoils system.

He urged civil service status for all except top policy-making officials.

Goddard also said he favored a set-up in reforestation activities and would like "to see 25 or 30 more state parks" opened to the public.

CONVICTED BY EMBEZZLEMENT

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—James A. Andrew, 58-year-old Ocean City, N. J. resident, has been found guilty of embezzling $48,209.57 from the defunct Seaboard Mutual Casualty Co.

Andrew, a former president of the company, was also found guilty of fraudulently converting the money to his own use. The rulings were made Tuesday by Judge Peter F. Hagen of Common Pleas Court who ordered Andrew to make restitution of $57,513.91, representing the amount embezzled plus interest.

Hagen ruled that if the restitution isn't made within 60 days that Andrew must pay a fine of $5,000 and serve 23 months in jail.

Seaboard, which closed Dec. 4, 1951, is now in the process of being liquidated under a Dauphin County (Pa.) Court order.

At Andrew's trial last November it was charged that an insurance agency he owned drained money from Seaboard by charging high commissions and insuring poor risks.

Andrew is free in custody of his attorney, John P. Walsh, pending an appeal to Superior Court.

"Cultured Man" Shouldn't Be Jailed With "Riff Raff"

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — Superior Court's Appellate Division has reserved decision on a bid by a Pennsylvania motorist to have set aside his conviction for contempt.

At a session yesterday, the lawyer for the motorist described his client as a "cultured man" who shouldn't be put behind bars with "riff raff."

Charles Gussman of Newtown, Pa., had been sentenced to 10 days in jail for contempt of court when he wrote an allegedly insulting letter to Weehawken Magistrate George L. McNally in disputing a speeding ticket.

Decision Delayed

The letter by Gussman accused the court of "degradation of democratic processes" and said he would refuse to appear in court because it would be "manifestly futile."

Hudson County Judge David A. Nimmo imposed the 10-day jail term on Gussman after McNally disqualified himself from the case.

Dep. Atty. Gen. James Rosen described the letter as a deliberate attempt to defame the Weehawken court. He said Gussman did nothing to warrant special consideration.

The Appellate Division reserved decision on the request made on Monday by Gussman's lawyer, James A. Major.

Continue Appeal Of Condemned Man

HARRISBURG (AP) — The state pardons board has continued the appeal of Harry Zietz, Bucks County, for commutation of his death sentence to life imprisonment.

Zietz was one of three men convicted of murder in the slaying of William Kelly, 38, during the hold-up of a tavern in Feasterville in 1949. He has been given 22 respite since the death sentence was imposed.

The board continued the case at the request of Lemuel B. Schofield, Philadelphia, counsel for Zietz. He gave no reason for the motion.

STATE PUSHES SUIT AGAINST 42 UTILITIES

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Commonwealth today pushed forward its Dauphin County Court suits against 42 utilities and other business firms for unclaimed dividends and interests.

Atty. Gen. Herbert B. Cohen disclosed the court action against the firms Monday but said he did not know how much money is involved. He said the suits were filed last November and December.

The suits describe the funds as unclaimed dividends, interest and other money which the state claims the firms retained after they were unable to find the owners.

Filed under the escheat law through which unclaimed funds may be claimed by the state, the suits were started by escheaters appointed as far back as Nov. 30 by former Revenue Secretary Otto P. Messner.

The suits are based on old escheat information furnished the state prior to 1937, a spokesman said. Since 1939, a number of firms have turned over unclaimed funds to the state under terms of the act.

The suits listed in the courthouse and the present status of each, including the final date for pleas, are:

BULLDOG RULES CANINE WORLD

NEW YORK (AP) — Just 14 months ago, Dr. John A. Saylor of Long Beach, Calif., looked long and hard at a picture of a bulldog taken in Great Britain.

Less than 24 hours later, he was the owner of the dog, Ch. Kippax Fearnought, who today rules the canine world as king of the Westminster Kennel Club Show — the one that counts in the doggy set.

Fearnought, a big favorite with the Madison Square Garden crowd of 10,000, was sent to the top Tuesday over a strong field of five other group winners by Albert E. Van Court of Los Angeles, who judged the final.

The 65-pound Fearnought never has been defeated in his group. If you want to go by past performance, he's the greatest specimen of his breed since 1913—the last time a bulldog won at Westminster.

The field Fearnought defeated included Ch. Robin Hill Brigade, a sealyham, the terrier winner; Ch. Tacon of Crown Crest, an Afghan, the No. 1 hound; Ch. Star Twilight of Ch-Mor, a Yorkshire, the best toy; Ch. King Peter of Salllyn, an English springer spaniel; and Barrage of Quality Hills, a boxer, the working group victor.

Seek New Method To Determine Drunks

HARRISBURG (AP) — Bills to legalize the court use of mechanical or chemical devices to determine if a motorist is drunk were before the House today.

Two Allegheny Democrats, Reps. George J. Sarraf and Walter T. Kamyk, suggested Tuesday that the certificate of a medical doctor or other qualified person be admissible as court evidence in a drunken driver case.

The measure would also legalize the use of an alcometer or similar testing device to determine drunkenness.

The second bill, sponsored by Kamyk, would permit the revocation for one year of the driver's license of any person who refused to submit to a chemical test to determine the alcoholic content of his blood.

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. George M. Leader Tuesday signed a contract with two Philadelphia accounting firms to modernize the accounts receivable bookkeeping system of the Department of Revenue at a cost of $85,000.

SEN. DIRKSEN SPIKES TALK OF THIRD PARTY

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Dirksen (R-Ill.) has termed "nonsense" speculation that a third party movement may grow out of Republican criticism of Eisenhower administration policies.

Dirksen said he believes a Chicago seminar of Midwestern Republicans who style themselves "conservatives" served as "a good session to ventilate some irritations."

Gov. J. Bracken Lee of Utah told that meeting the government had moved rapidly to the left in the past two years, and he spoke of the possibility of a third party. Later, however, Lee said, "I merely threw this in as a suggestion. I believe the American people have a right to vote on the present trend."

To Lunch With Ike

Dirksen, another speaker at the Chicago gathering, held Saturday, said in an interview today that any third party talk is "just nonsense" and not supported by others who were critical of some administration policies.

He commented in advance of a closed session of a seven-member subcommittee of the Republican National Committee to consider bids from Chicago, San Francisco and Philadelphia for the party's 1956 nominating convention.

The subcommittee will make its recommendations to the full national committee today in a day's session which includes a luncheon with President Eisenhower.

Democrats plan to hold their 1956 convention in Chicago July 23.

Within GOP ranks, new criticism of Eisenhower came from Sen. Lanigan (R-ND), who has voted often with the Democrats.

Lanigan told the National Rural Electric Cooperative Assn. at Atlantic City, N.J., last night Eisenhower is heading an administration "that is the willing handmaiden of the power monopoly."

"We are witness today to a scene of unparalleled giveaways of the public domain," Lanigan declared. "I do not know what President Eisenhower's place in history will be, but I feel that if he continues in his present road, his memory will be hallowed in the Banker's Club in New York as 'the most generous president in history.'"

SENTENCED FOR MAIL FRAUD

ST. LOUIS (AP) — John T. Southwell, 37-year-old Devon, Pa., man who widely advertised a so-called blue rose, was sentenced to eight years in prison and fined $1,600 Tuesday for using the mails to defraud.

Federal Judge Roy W. Harper commented: "I think that he figured he had a get-rich-quick scheme." Judge Harper, who heard the trial without a jury, convicted Southwell on 16 of 22 counts.

Government agents reported Southwell, who operated from St. Louis as "The Garden Guild of America," grossed more than $700,000 during an 18-month period ending in 1953 through mail order sales. Witnesses testified the "blue rose" actually was a common species with a red bloom that faded to a bluish color as it died.

Judge Harper refused a request for probation but granted Southwell until March 14 to get his personal affairs in order before entering prison.

RESCUE SIX FROM FIRE

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Firemen carried six persons down ladders from the third floor of their burning North Philadelphia home early

Wednesday, when they were trapped by smoke and flames.

Firemen prevented the flames from spreading to the store or living quarters. It burned out the stairway to the second floor.

ST. LOUIS — The Rev. Walter Edwin Dakin, 97, retired Episcopal minister, the oldest living alumnus of the theological school of the University of the South, Sewanee, Tenn., and grandfather of playwright Thomas Lanier (Tennessee) Williams. Died Monday.

WILL SOON USE NEW TUBULAR DESIGN TRAINS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Trains of "startlingly different" designs will be rolling over tracks of four of the nation's largest railroads before too long.

The Pennsylvania, the New Haven, the New York Central and the Santa Fe railroads announced Monday they expect to place orders soon for radically new equipment. The announcement followed completion of a six-month study by a joint committee.

The PRRT has agreed to test a new train of tubular design, with depressed centers. It is designed to be used in integrated trains, but can also be interchanged with present standard equipment. The PRRT plans to use the train between New York and Pittsburgh and New York and Washington.

"Train X" The New York Central has agreed to order a complete integrated train similar to the design known as "Train X." This is described as similar to the "Talgo" type train now being built by the American Car and Foundry Co. for the Rock Island Railroad. "Talgo" cars are low slung, lightweight and designed for use only as integrated units.

Details were not immediately available on a third design, to be put in operation by the New Haven.

The announcement said the new design of equipment to be used first in its El Capitan between Los Angeles and Chicago.

PREDICT HUGE PEACH CROP IN PENNSYLVANIA

YORK, Pa. (AP)—Prospects for a bumper peach crop this year brightened today with a predicted harvest of 63,721,000 bushels, almost 4 million more bushels than last year.

The National Peach Council forecast the harvest in its annual "guesstimate." The figure has been so close to actual production over the years that the industry

new design of equipment to be used first in its El Capitan between Los Angeles and Chicago.

The council's three-day 14th annual convention opened Monday with the Pennsylvania Horticultural Assn. acting as host and conducting its 98th annual meeting at the same time.

Some 200 delegates from 10 states and Canada, representing top peach growing areas of the two countries, are attending the first council meeting ever held in Pennsylvania.

SUPPORTERS OF FREE TRADE ARE "OPTIMISTIC"

By CHARLES F. BARRETT
WASHINGTON (AP)—Supporters of President Eisenhower's program to boost free world trade by cutting tariffs expressed confidence they held the upper hand today as the House called the measure up for debate.

Both Democratic and Republican floor leaders backed the proposal. But a sizable group of insurgents in both parties promised a last-ditch fight before final action, expected late tomorrow. The Senate has not acted.

Foes planned first to try today to upset scheduled procedure—they call it "gag rule"—which would limit the opposition to offering only one amendment. They have a long series of trade-restricting ideas they would like to offer.

Plan Amendment
Falling that, opponents plan to concentrate tomorrow on the single amendment allowed them. Both sides agreed the President's basic program would pass and the big question was whether it would be amended.

The bill would extend for three more years the President's power to negotiate reciprocal trade agreements, and to make further cuts in tariffs on foreign goods coming into the United States in exchange for trade benefits to American products abroad.

With much of the tariff-cutting authority under the present law exhausted, the bill would permit the President to reduce all rates 5 per cent each year below the levels in effect next July 1. In some cases he could make bigger cuts.

Eisenhower has argued this would be a vital step to help U. S. allies sell more goods here, help Americans sell more products abroad, and thus bolster the economy of the entire anti-Communist alliance. It would also strengthen military power and political unity, he contends.

Opponents argue that increased imports of cheaper foreign goods will wreck many competing American industries, bringing economic distress and unemployment instead of boom.

Communist Front Committee Disbands

NEW YORK (AP)—The Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee, an alleged Communist front, has announced it is disbanding.

The group's executive board says the decision was caused by government "harassments, persecutions and prosecutions."

These actions, the board adds, made it "impossible to carry on the good and necessary relief work that we have carried on since our inception."

The committee was organized to aid Loyalist refugees of the Spanish civil war. It later was accused by congressional investigators of being a communist front and it was listed as subversive by the attorney general's office.

The committee has denied all allegations of subversion.

Attlee Declares Red Secretary Is Noisy

LONDON (AP)—Clement Attlee, leader of Britain's Labor party, described Nikita Khrushchev today as a "rather noisy chap." He said also he thought successful Big Four talks are still possible.

Attlee met the Soviet Communist party secretary, now generally believed to be Russia's strong man, during his visit to Moscow with a group of Labor party associates last year.

In an interview published by the liberal News Chronicle, Attlee explained:

"It is more sensible to assume that the men who are in charge of a country want to do the best they can to keep their people contented, and it should not be impossible to convince any national leader that reduction in world tension would make the greatest of all contributions to that contentment."

EX-PRESIDENT OF PANAMA TO STAND TRIAL ON MURDER CHARGE

PANAMA (AP)—Ex-President Jose Ramon Guizado must stand trial March 21 on homicide charges in connection with the machine-gun slaying of his predecessor in office, President Jose Antonio Remon.

The National Assembly voted 48-1 to indict Guizado during a four-hour session last night highlighted by an impassioned declaration of innocence from the accused. The Assembly is the only body which can try a president. If convicted, Guizado could be sentenced to a prison term of from 10 to 20 years.

Guizado's outburst came as special prosecutor Jose de la Vega told the lawmakers he would prove at the trial that the price for killing Remon was between $75,000 and $80,000, part of which was paid by Guizado.

"An Infamous Plot"
Rising from his seat in the hall and gesturing with both hands, Guizado shouted into an Assembly microphone:

"What is being done to me is the greatest infamy in the world. It is an infamous plot. I am innocent. I swear it by God and before the graves of my parents."

Remon was machine-gunned January 2 as he chatted with friends in a pavilion at the Juan Franco race-track, four miles from the city. Guizado, the first vice president, was sworn in as president six hours later.

Party Tip: Spread red caviar on buttered rounds or squares of fresh bread; top with minced parsley and a tiny cocktail onion. The onions come pickled in 4-ounce jars.

"Cultured Man" Shouldn't Be Jailed With "Riff Raff"

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — Superior Court's Appellate Division has reversed decision on a bid by a Pennsylvania motorist to have set aside his conviction for contempt. At a session yesterday, the lawyer for the motorist described his client as a "cultured man" who shouldn't be put behind bars with "riff raff."

Charles Gussman of Newtown, Pa., had been sentenced to 10 days in jail for contempt of court when he wrote an allegedly insulting letter to Weehawken Magistrate George L. McNally in disputing a speeding ticket.

Decision Delayed
The letter by Gussman accused the count of "degradation of democratic processes" and said he would refuse to appear in court because it would be "manifestly futile."

Hudson County Judge David A. Nimmo imposed the 10-day jail term on Gussman after McNally disqualified himself from the case.

Dep. Atty. Gen. James Rosen described the letter as a deliberate attempt to defame the Weehawken court. He said Gussman did nothing to warrant special consideration.

The Appellate Division reserved decision on the request made on Monday by Gussman's lawyer, James A. Major.

Continue Appeal Of Condemned Man
HARRISBURG (AP) — The state Pardons Board has continued the appeal of Harry Zietz, Bucks County, for commutation of his death sentence to life imprisonment.

Zietz was one of three men convicted of murder in the slaying of William Kelly, 38, during the hold-up of a tavern in Feasterville in 1949. He has been given 22 respites since the death sentence was imposed.

The board continued the case at the request of Lemuel B. Schofield, Philadelphia, counsel for Zietz. He gave no reason for the motion.

STATE PUSHES SUIT AGAINST 42 UTILITIES

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Commonwealth today pushed forward its Dauphin County Court suits against 42 utilities and other business firms for unclaimed dividends and interests.

Atty. Gen. Herbert B. Cohen disclosed the court action against the firms Monday but said he did not know how much money is involved. He said the suits were filed last November and December.

The suits describe the funds as unclaimed dividends, interest and other money which the state claims the firms retained after they were unable to find the owners.

Filed under the escheat law through which unclaimed funds may be claimed by the state, the suits were started by escheaters appointed as far back as Nov. 30 by former Revenue Secretary Otto F. Messersmith.

The suits are based on old escheat information furnished the state prior to 1937, a spokesman said. Since 1929, a number of firms have turned over unclaimed funds to the state under terms of the act.

List Of Dependents
The suits listed in the courthouse and the present status of each, including the final date for pleas, are:

Bell Telephone Co. of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, March 23; Budd Co., Philadelphia, Feb. 28; Curtis Publishing Co., Philadelphia, preliminary objections filed; Pennsylvania Railroad Co., Philadelphia, March 31; Pennsylvania Salt Manufacturing Co., Philadelphia, Feb. 28.

Atlantic Refining Co., Philadelphia, March 31; A. M. Byers Co., Pittsburgh, preliminary objections filed; Equitable Gas Co., Pittsburgh, preliminary objections filed; Harbison Walker Refractories Co.,

BULLDOG RULES CANINE WORLD

NEW YORK (AP) — Just 14 months ago, Dr. John A. Saylor of Long Beach, Calif., looked long and hard at a picture of a bulldog taken in Great Britain.

Less than 24 hours later, he was the owner of the dog, Ch. Kippax Fearnought, who today rules the canine world as king of the Westminster Kennel Club Show — the one that counts in the doggy set.

Fearnought, a big favorite with the Madison Square Garden crowd of 10,000, was sent to the top Tuesday over a strong field of five other group winners by Albert E. Van Court of Los Angeles, who judged the final.

The 65-pound Fearnought never has been defeated in his group. If you want to go by past performance, he's the greatest specimen of his breed since 1913 — the last time a bulldog won at Westminster.

The field Fearnought defeated included Ch. Robin Hill Brigade, a sealyham, the terrier winner; Ch. Taceon of Crown Crest, an Afghan, the No. 1 hound; Ch. Star Twilight of Clu-Mor, a Yorkshire, the best toy; Ch. King Peter of Salfyn, an English springer spaniel; and Barrage of Quality Hills, a boxer, the working group victor.

Seek New Method To Determine Drunks

HARRISBURG (AP) — Bills to legalize the court use of mechanical or chemical devices to determine if a motorist is drunk were before the House today.

Two Allegheny Democrats, Reps. George J. Sarraf and Walter T. Kamyk, suggested Tuesday that the certificate of a medical doctor or other qualified person be admissible as court evidence in a drunken driver case.

The measure would also legalize the use of an alcometer or similar testing device to determine drunkenness.

The second bill, sponsored by Kamyk, would permit the revocation for one year of the driver's license of any person who refused to submit to a chemical test to determine the alcoholic content of his blood.

SIGNS CONTRACT

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. George M. Leader Tuesday signed a contract with two Philadelphia accounting firms to modernize the accounts receivable bookkeeping system of the Department of Revenue at a cost of $85,000.

The contracts went to Laventhol, Krekstein and Co., and Price, Waterhouse and Co.

SEN. DIRKSEN SPIKES TALK OF THIRD PARTY

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Dirksen (R-Ill.) has termed "nonsense" speculation that a third party movement may grow out of Republican criticism of Eisenhower administration policies.

Dirksen said he believes a Chicago seminar of Midwestern Republicans who style themselves "conservatives" served as "a good session to ventilate some irritations."

Gov. J. Bracken Lee of Utah told that meeting the government had moved rapidly to the left in the past two years, and he spoke of the possibility of a third party. Later, however, Lee said, "I merely threw this in as a suggestion. I believe the American people have a right to vote on the present trend."

To Lunch With Ike
Dirksen, another speaker at the Chicago gathering, held Saturday, said in an interview today that any third party talk is "just nonsense" and not supported by others who were critical of some administration policies. He commented in advance of a closed session of a seven-member subcommittee of the Republican National Committee to consider bids from Chicago, San Francisco and Philadelphia for the party's 1956 nominating convention.

The subcommittee will make its recommendations to the full national committee today in a day's session which includes a luncheon with President Eisenhower.

Democrats plan to hold their 1956 convention in Chicago July 23.

Within GOP ranks, new criticism of Eisenhower, came from Sen. Lananger (R-ND), who has voted often with the Democrats.

Langer told the National Rural Electric Cooperative Assn. at Atlantic City, N.J., last night Eisenhower is heading an administration "that is the willing handmaiden of the power monopoly."

"We are witness today to a scene of unparalleled giveaways of the public domain," Langer declared. "I do not know what President Eisenhower's place in history will be, but I feel that if he continues in his present road, his memory will be hallowed in the Banker's Club in New York as the most generous president in history."

SENTENCED FOR MAIL FRAUD

ST. LOUIS (AP) — John T. Southwell, 37-year-old Devon, Pa., man who widely advertised a so-called blue rose, was sentenced to eight years in prison and fined $1,600 Tuesday for using the mails to defraud.

Federal Judge Roy W. Harper commented: "I think that he figured he had a get-rich-quick scheme." Judge Harper, who heard the trial without a jury, convicted Southwell on 16 of 22 counts.

Government agents reported Southwell, who operated from St. Louis as "The Garden Guild of America," grossed more than $700,000 during an 18-month period ending in 1953 through mail order sales. Witnesses testified the "blue rose" actually was a common species with a red bloom that faded to a bluish color as it died.

Judge Harper refused a request for probation but granted Southwell until March 14 to get his personal affairs in order before entering prison.

RESCUE SIX FROM FIRE
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Firemen carried six persons down ladders from the third floor of their burning North Philadelphia home early

Wednesday, when they were trapped by smoke and flames.

Rescued were Philip Cooperstein, 45, operator of a grocery on the first floor of the building; his wife, and four children.

Firemen prevented the flames from spreading to the store or living quarters. It burned out the stairway to the second floor.

ST. LOUIS — The Rev. Walter Edwin Dakin, 97, retired Episcopal minister, the oldest living alumnus of the theological school of the University of the South, Sewanee, Tenn., and grandfather of playwright Thomas Lanier (Tennessee) Williams. Died Monday.

SHAPIRO MAY TRANSFER 40 MENTALLY ILL

HARRISBURG (AP) — If Welfare Secretary Harry Shapiro has his way, 40 mentally defective women will be removed from a jail-like building at Laurelton State Village in Union County.

The order for their evacuation from the building—known as Johnston Cottage and described by Shapiro as "reminiscent of the Dark Ages"—went to the institution's board of trustees Tuesday.

The secretary directed his order to Fred W. Maue, president of the board, who last week said the board planned its own "non-political" probe of the village.

Maue said he would have no comment until he was notified officially of Shapiro's action.

Shapiro's order was another step in his campaign to correct what he termed "miserable conditions" in some institutions under his department's jurisdiction.

Superintendent Is Ousted
Previous directives resulted in the removal of the superintendent of Allentown State Hospital and the firing of four members of the board of trustees at Fairview State Hospital in Wayne County.

In a statement concerning conditions at Laurelton, Shapiro said "the failure of the board to take some measures to put an end to inhuman practices, places the responsibility for the continuance of these acts squarely upon them."

He said the board was told of such conditions at the institution as:

1. Patients kept in solitary confinement for as long as six months in 40 barred cells in Johnston Cottage, with each cell sealed by a solid wooden door that had only a peephole and a slot for feeding purposes.
2. Using Johnston Cottage for punishment for rules infractions.
3. Turning on cold water only once a day for washing purposes.
4. Limiting meals to a piece of bread with just as much food as could be placed on top of the bread slice.
5. Turning off the water supply for a toilet for a week.
6. Removing mattresses from beds and forcing patients to sleep on bare springs or on the floor.
7. Beating and dragging a patient around by the hair.
8. Restraining girls by strapping their arms together above their heads for as long as a week.

GOP IS SEEKING GAS TAX REFUND FOR FARMERS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Republicans, rebuffed in the House, are trying in the Senate to allow farmers a full 100 per cent refund for gasoline taxes paid on fuel used on their farms.

The GOP-controlled Senate Finance Committee Tuesday amended a House-passed bill providing for the refund, now limited to 100 per cent.

The action was taken in amending a companion bill renewing for another two years the state's temporary tax of two cents a gallon on gasoline. A tax of three cents a gallon is permanent, making a total of five cents a gallon.

When the measure was before the Democratic-controlled House Rep. Charles C. Smith, Republican floor leader, sought to make the farmer gasoline tax refund 100 per cent, but was voted down.

Pledged By Leader
Smith cited a campaign pledge by Gov. George M. Leader favoring the full gasoline tax refund to farmers. Rep. Albert S. Readinger, Democratic floor leader, retorted at the time the Democrats would pick the time and place to fulfill campaign pledges.

Japan And Russia Will Discuss Peace

TOKYO (AP)—A Russian concession Wednesday paved the way for peace negotiations between Japan and Soviet Union in New York—probably in the next few weeks.

In a note delivered directly to Prime Minister Ichiro Hatoyama, the Soviets waived their preference for Moscow or Tokyo as a meeting site and said they would agree to the place "the Japanese government considers most adequate."

Foreign Office sources said procedural matters would prevent the talks beginning before the Feb. 27 general election, and that Japan would stick to its earlier choice of New York.

Japan told Russia officially Feb. 15 it felt New York was the best place.
